SLATER SNACHES RECORDS

Continues in His Pet Events and Best State Marks in Both Dish and Shotput; in Former by Over 11 Feet—Javelin Throws Out of the Field. Special to Daily Iowan.

Des Moines, Ia., May 22—Iowa easily won the state meet at the Drake stadium before today with 619 points, beating Ames, runners-up, by 86 points. Slater, Iowa's negro athlete, broke the state record in both the shot and discus; in the latter he beat the previous record by over 11 feet.

Wenig of Morningale was individualia- tion of Slater's most successful contestant, pushed closely by Slater and Bolden of Iowa, and Faust of Grand Island who garnered 182 points.

Iowa entered the meet without the javelin, it being dissolved, it was disputed from all state meets by the decision of the Games com-mittee. The javelin was declared eligible and competed in the javelin with Wenig. He cleared 110 yards high bar-hurdles—first (1st); 600-yard hurdles—second (2nd); 100-yard hurdles—second; 2-mile—third (3rd). Time: 4:26.5. Mile run—SJam (Ames) first; Stone (Ames) second; Bolden (Ames) third. Time: 4:01.7.

100-yard dash—Pauly (Grinnell) first, Smith (Ames) second, Colby (1st) third, Justin (1st) fourth. Time: 10.25. Pole vault—Carpenter (first) first, Trancy (Ames) second, Amos (Ames) third, Boyd (Ames) fourth. Height: 17 feet 6 inches. 440-yard dash—Beckett (Cornell) first; Beckett (Ames) second; Amos (Ames) third, Siler (Cornell) fourth. Time: 49.4. 220-yard low hurdles—Beckett (first); Beckett (1st), Drake (1st), Edwards (1st), Wallas (1st), Gannuth (2nd). Distance: 1⁄4 mile. Time: 46.5.

440-yard dash—Beckett (Cornell) first, Beckett (Ames) second, Franklyn (Ames) third, Siler (Cornell) fourth. Time: 49.4. 100-yard dash—Beckett (first); Beckett (1st), Drake (1st), Wallas (1st), Gannuth (2nd). Distance: 1⁄4 mile. Time: 46.5.

During the days of 1917 and 1918 these men united, only unwise legislation depended upon numbers and upon loyalty, so should the bugaboos of fear edging it, and with the spirit of fellowship and harmony within its own ranks, the future is in the hands of those who can control the investment. That's the way the outgoing class will know just what the Alumnus is.
