SUMMER SESSION WILL ENROLL 1000 IN 1920

Class Work Begins June 16 and Finals July 22—Session is Divided Into Six and Five Week Terms

An enrollment exceeding 1000 is expected for the summer session of the University for 1920. Class work will begin June 16, and will continue for eleven weeks. The sessions is divided into three terms, the first six weeks in length, extending from June 16 to July 22, the second of five weeks, extending from July 22 to August 21. Registration will take place June 14 and 15.

Work is offered in the graduate college, the college of education, the college of liberal arts, the college of law, and the college of agriculture and veterinary science. The crush of work offered and the entrance requirements are the same as for the regular academic year. The number of courses offered has been increased 30 to 40 per cent since the summer session of last year.

100 Members in Faculty

The faculty is composed of 100 members, of whom fourteen are selected from other educational institutions. The rest of them are members of the regular faculty of the University, and will teach their regular subjects.

The attendance of University students at summer school is decidedly increasing, according to Prof. Charles E. Weller, director of the summer session. Formerly, it was attended mainly by teachers and by students who had failed in their work. Now every year shows an increasing number of students who take work in the summer session to complete their course, or who take the second of five weeks, each summer session is coming to resemble the usual session of the University, and Professor Weller, last year the enrollment was 1,500.

One hundred and forty leading superintendent of schools in the state attended. Eighty graduate students worked on their thesis and did original research work in the college of education.

SENIORS: LAST CHANCE TO GET CAP AND GOWN

This week—A. F. I.

Caps and gowns for commencement may be ordered during the remainder of this week at Bremer's Golden Eagle clothing store under the auspices of A. F. I., senior honorary society for men, to which is to be given the profits from cap and gown rental by Mr. Bremer this year.

Such funds as may accrue to A. F. I. from Mr. Bremer's courtesy are to be used in the interests of University athletics. A. F. I. is to expend the money in newspaper publicity and in letters to prominent athletes over the state which will be aimed to arouse their interest in the University and bring them to Iowa for their higher education.

By ordering their caps and gowns the Golden Eagle students will be giving their money to a greater Iowa at the same time. Mr. Bremer makes 10% on the caps and gowns this year, but is giving everything else away. In A. F. I. It is to be used in the interests of University athletics.

The caps and gowns are delivered at Bremer's armories at 8:30 on Friday, day of the commencement.

ARTS ASSOCIATION ELECTS OFFICERS AT ANNUAL MEET

Iowa City Fine Arts association held its annual meeting Thursday afternoon. Reports were given by Miss Mary E. Mean, president; and by Dr. Zelia White Stewart, treasurer. The reports showed a record of a successful year for the association. The special work of the year was the exhibition of the Rockwell paintings at the Commercial Club rooms last January.

To Observe 18 O'Clock Ride Ten o'clock ride will be observed during week nights of the summer session according to Mrs. Nellie B. Avery, dean of women, and women will be permitted to stay out until 11:30 o'clock on Friday and Saturday nights except when they are attending dances, when they must be in by 11:20.

WAGER OF DINNER NOW SQUARELY UP TO GRADUATE MEN

Field the director of the Summer Session to the dean of the graduate college after he had discovered the University's enrollment this year to be over 4,000 students:

"I'll bet you a dinner that the summer school attendance this year is nearer 1,500 than 1,000.

When the date of the graduate college region to the director of the Summer Session is not recorded, but that this year's summer session showed a greater growth than the summer session of any university in the United States which made a report. Attendance during the summer of 1918 was 1,290.

DENTAL CLINIC WILL CLOSE FOR SUMMER

College of Medicine Open Only to Graduates and no Regular Courses Are Offered

The dental clinic will not be in session during the summer season, according to information from Dean Frank T. Broome. Last year it was necessary to keep it open in order to permit some students to finish, because of the S. A. T. C. work. However, Dr. William W. Martin, who has charge of the orthodontia work, will take care of orthodontia cases that are necessary to his patients. Because of limitation in space in the laboratory and information not all of the 100 eligible freshmen may register, since there is only room for 60. Registration in orthodontia will be based on high scholarship entirely.

Courses offered in the college of medicine during the summer season will be open only to graduates. "Regular work in this college will not go on this summer," Dr. John T. McClin-chuch, junior dean of the college of medicine, said yesterday.

The three courses offered are a clinical course for general practitioners, a course in surgical specialties, and an elementary course in anatomy. The first course is open to twelve physicians and this quota has already been filled.

The school of nursing is also offering during the summer a pre-practice course, given conjointly by the departments in the college of medicine and the college of liberal arts.

QUADRANGLE MAKES ROOMS PLENTIFUL FOR SUMMER

Rooms will be easier to secure for this summer season than before on account of the fact that the Quadrangle is finished. This has been re- served for the men except one section of it which has been set aside for married couples. These rooms are completely furnished except for towels and bed linen.

Besides the Quadrangle there is Currill hall, the University's residence for women and La Maison Francaise reserved for students of the French course in conversation. These three dormitories belong to the University.

Rooms may be secured in private houses, or private houses may be secured from families who customarily bring the student from the city during the summer. Those who expect to attend may make reservations for rooms from either the office of the dean of men or the dean of women. Room rent at Currill hall will be the same during the summer season as it is during the year. The prices for three months are: double rooms, $25.50, and for single rooms $15.00. Suites will be $35.00. The price of board is now $15.00 a week, but it will probably be raised to $16.00 or more due to the increase in prices. The rooms at the Quadrangle, the men's dormitory across the river, will be the same as they are during the regular school year, and the cafeteria service will be continued.

Women's Council PAC goes to CO-ED Voters

Proposed Constitution Will be Accepted or Rejected at Referendum

Miss Violet Blakes, social secretary in the Dean of Women, in speaking of the constitution, said: "The constitution as designed, is broad enough to include the interest of all the girls in school, and hopes to coordinate the women's activities on the campus. The adoption of this constitution will form a definite working basis for a women's organization which might develop into a true self-government association within a year or so."

The Council, upon every women in the University to vote. "By voting, the women will show their interest in the establishment of an organization at Iowa that has as its purpose, the furthering of the spirit of unity among the women of the University; the promoting and maintaining of high standards of living and scholarship, and the regulating of student comfort and facilities under Faculty Jurisdiction."

A copy of the constitution appears in the following pages of this issue of the Torch.

IOWA TRACK MEN TO GO TO BIG MEET

Iowa Will Send One of Largest and Strongest Track Teams Ever To Go To Ann Arbor

Twelve men will represent Iowa at the Big Ten Track meet and Field meet at Ann Arbor, Mich., Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday.

Cally and Ty Smith are entered in the dashes, Balting and Shepe in the hurdles, Rice and Peterson, two miles, A. Devine, pole vault, Hoffman, high jump, Wallen and Slater in the weight.

HILLCOLT STRUBLE,

Flowers Martin, Ruth Mrs.

Rice

Brown, and Buchman in the pole vault.

It is one of the biggest squad ever sent to the classic and from advance notice it is one of the strongest; an army of stars among whose number are listed two individuals who hold state records.

HILLICOLT STRUBLE

While Illinois and Michigan are touted to be the best in the west the possibilities are not as remote that Iowa or Wisconsin may not in some of their pet events and make the meet a thriller. Michigan looks to Capt. Carl Johnson to boost its points by taking a couple of firsts and Illinois has a formidable array in such distance men as Emery, Spisk, and Brown, and Buchman in the pole vault.

In the indoor Conference meet held at Evanston March 29 Illinois ran away with first place followed by Michigan, Wisconsin, and Iowa.

Since that time the Hawkeyes have shown remarkable improvement especially in the field events, where the other is now exceptionally strong. At the State meet at Des Moines May 22 Slater broke the state record in both the shot put and discus, the latter a record of seven feet over a record mark of 134 feet he had made at Ames the week before.

Wallen almost doubles the shot and is a close second to Slater, even likely to beat him.

Iowa in Running

It is in the pole vault and high jump that some of the keenest competition is expected. A. Devine is capable of hitting eleven feet and better with the hurdle but in the three Conference meets in which Iowa has been he has been held to a tie by Minnesota, Illinois, and Northwestern.

However, it is doubtful if either of the four will take first place in the affair. The high jump will be equally as hard fought, Hoffman should be able to clear the bar at six feet and if he makes this mark he will give Carl Johnson of Michigan a run, and may even beat him. Iowa's two, Hayward and Michigan's are in the pole vault.

McFerrin, Hawkeye pitcher who has led the team hitting all season, took a big swing in his willow deck during the last games of the schedule but still maintained his hold on the top of the column for the year with a mark of .393. Captain Hamilton and Michaelson gave him a hard run although they fell by the way in the closing manner by failing to connect in the closing misses.

While no one of them can boast of anything sensational for record hitting the past start which was made in the early collegiate games was largely responsible for the small figures. After getting a single blow in both the opening game with Coe Cedar Rapids and the Upper Iowa game here the team hit a better aldier when the Conference season opened and cleaned out the blunders at a better than 200 clip.

McFerrin is the only exception, the last games being responsible for varying his .393 mark obtained throughout the bigger end of the mat line.

Hamilton failed considerably when the season was young but the Ames game and the last trip out saw him connecting safely better than half of the time.

Curry, also lathered along most of the way and may return to the home lot. Here he took a brace and slammed out a levy of lines that run his total to 10 and anchored him for fourth place when the flag came down at half wind after the luckless Notre Dame game.

Michigan authorities are now agitating a post season baseball game with Princeton to settle supremacy.
The constitution for the Student Council was presented to the administration by a committee of the senior liberal arts class. The petition for exemption of seniors from final examinations recently presented to the administration by the committee from the senior liberal arts class was not granted. Dean George F. Kay, in an interview with Dwight C. Ensig, chairman of the committee, explained the impossibility of the faculty taking action on the matter of such a late date. "There are some instructors who are still depending on the work of the last few weeks for determining the final grades," said Dean Kay. "The faculty of the college, in determining examinations, is exculpated in the following extract from the regulations of the college of liberal arts:

1. We favor an arrangement for the closing weeks of the term or semester any and every form of instruction shall be given.
2. We favor such action as shall be feasible with, in our opinion, carry the principles just stated.
