RUGGLES IS ELECTED AS NEW HEAD FOR SCHOOL OF COMMERCE

Comes From Ohio State University in New Appointment of Professor Brice

GRANTED M. A. HERE IN 1917

Was Born and Educated in Iowa—Received His Ph. D. From Harvard in 1921—Taught in Kodak and Washington Counties—Will Teach in U. of Chicago Summer Session

Clyde G. Ruggles, professor of economics at Ohio State University, who received his degree as master of arts from the University of Iowa in 1917, has been granted a master of arts degree by the University of Chicago. He taught in Kodak and Washington Counties in the summers of 1920 and 1921 and will teach in the U. of Chicago Summer Session this summer.

The new head of the commerce department at the University of Iowa, Professor Ruggles, has been having business in Jefferson county for nearly ten years. He was educated in the institute and prepared for college at R. A. from the State Teachers' College. He entered the University of Iowa from the University of Iowa in 1907, and his Ph. D. from Harvard in 1921. Mr. Ruggles has taken courses at schools in Kodak and Washington Counties and has been responsible for the work of his department for the past five years.

After completing his studies in residence at Harvard, Professor Ruggles became head of the department of history and social science in the Institute Normal School at Wapello. In 1921 he went to Ohio State University.

INTER-FRATERNITY MEN FAVOR GREEN CAP IDEA

Council at Monthly Meeting Passes Recommendations to Effect Better Campus Spirit

Green caps should be worn by freshmen and members of the fraternity council which went on rec- ently as a social and historical tradition, according to Louie Tobin, a member of the council.

The group has been trying to acquire the acquaintance of its members by a system of exchanging dinner for dinner. This is to be done with the object of promoting fraternity house in order to enlarge acquaintances and make for a better social spirit on the campus.

Open house will be the order of the day.

The Council recommended that University men far from their own fraternity at dinner hour, drop in on the nearest fraternity house for a meal. The keynote of the meeting, according to Louie Tobin, will be to create a more democratic spirit on the campus by getting men better acquainted with each other.

The action the group has taken in this idea is to invite Tobin, said.

ILLINOIS WINS OVER HAWK-EYE RUNNERS IN TRIANGULAR MEET

Physical Training Classes Compete at Each School in Five Athletic Events

McIntosh WINS HIGHEST HONORS

Iowa Enters 519 Men in Meet—Evertt G. Schmieder, Physical Training Director, Has Charge of Iowa Squad—Hawkeye Wins Points in All Events

The University of Illinois defeated the Hawkeyes in the triangular meet which was held at the three schools Iowa, Illinois and Indiana, during the past week. Iowa had 539 men enter the meet and the best records of 200 men were used for records. These men do not regularly participate in athletics and are not on any team of the University.

The meet consisted of five events, namely: high jump, 100 yard dash, broad jump, 9 yard hurdles and the distance. The meet was won in three of the five, thus winning as far as Illinois is concerned. No report has been received from Indiana thus far, according to Everett G. Schmieder, director of physical education for men.

The final records of the meet are as follows:

High jump—E. McIntosh, 5 feet 2 inches.
Broad jump—E. K. Engstrom, 9 feet 10 1/4 inches.
Javelin throw—E. McIntosh, 200 6 inches.
Horse shoe—R. E. McIntosh, 70 feet.

The Hawkeyes will have the next meeting and the meet will be held in the national chapter of the University.
