END MID-WEEK DATES FOR FUTURE FRESHMEN

Social Committee Takes Action to Eliminate Failures of First-Year Women

Mid-week dates for freshman women of the future are tabooed.

This is the action taken by the Social committee yesterday afternoon as a result of a recent recommendation made by the Women's Pan-hellenic council. Exceptions to the rule will be made only in case of University entertainments and special theatrical productions when special permission will be granted by the dean of women.

A freshman woman with high scholastic standing may be exempt from the rule by petition during the second semester, the committee said.

"It is hoped that freshmen women will take more interest in campus activities and eliminate failures which are caused because of so many mid-week social engagements," said a member of Women's council last evening.

The women's council constitution was approved by the University Social committee.

SECOND MEETING OF CLASS OFFICERS FOR UNION FALLS DOWN

Only Two Student Representatives Appear to Plan for Student Memorial Campaign

TERMS OF PAYMENT CHANGED

Committee from Senior Honorary Societies Expresses Dissatisfaction at Small Turn-out—All Students Will be Asked to Take Out Life Memberships

The second attempt to call together all the officers of the different classes in all colleges in the liberal arts assembly yesterday afternoon to plan for the student Memorial campaign met with little success. The only officers who responded to the call were Alvin H. Ehresman, president of the liberal arts sophomore class and Charles Toynbee, president of the sophomore engineers.

The joint committee composed of Mabel Turner, Helene Blattner, and Elizabeth Dorcas representing Staff and Circle, and Ralph E. Overholser, J. Mel Hickerson, and Dwight C. Ensign, representing A. F. I., expressed their dissatisfaction at the little interest shown. One more attempt will be made to get the class leaders together to hear the plans for the student Memorial campaign which will be carried out next week.

Terms of Payment Changed

Romola H. Latchem, director of the student campaign for members in the Iowa Memorial Union, said yesterday, "We are going to ask all of the students to take out life memberships in the Union. We have changed our terms of payment to make it easier for students to pledge."

YOU RANK THIRD ON THIS MILKING STOOL

Henry Miller of "Great Divide" Fame Tells Rating of Audience in the Theatre

"The audience in the theatre is the third leg of the dramatic milking stool," in the opinion of Henry Miller, the man who was largely instrumental in bringing success to the initial performance of "The Great Divide," William Vaughn Moody's most famous play, to be presented by the senior class June 9 and 14 at the Englert theatre.

The part of Stephen Ghent, to which Henry Miller brought his wonderful ability will be portrayed by Hugh Rosson of the University Players in the senior play. Jean Birdsall, also of the University Players, will play opposite him in the role of Ruth Jordan. Miss Birdsall and Mr. Rosson have been active in dramatics throughout their University career.

Other prominent characters in the play are: Philip Jordan, played by Fred K. Smith; Polly Jordan, Mrs. Josephine Hunter Ray; Winthrop Newbury, Robert R. Aurner; Dr. Newbury, Leon H. Brigham; Mrs. Jordan, Julia K. Wade; Dutch, James A. Hollingsworth; the Mexican, Roy D. Burns; Burt, Ralph E. Overholser; Lon, Clarence Fackler; the architect, Herbert O. Pillars; the contractor, Harold T. Sandy.

Seat reservations for the play may be obtained from Whetstone's Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock.

CAMPUS CO-EDS FAVOR COUNCIL CONSTITUTION

Voting for the constitution of the Women's Council constitution ended yesterday afternoon. The number of votes cast has not been counted, but according to Margaret Holmes, president of the council, there were undoubtedly enough affirmative votes cast to ratify the constitution.

Because of the lack of ballot majority necessary for the adoption of the constitution, the voting which was to have been completed on Thursday was continued yesterday. Returns from the Nurses training school election show that the nurses favor it.

The constitution is now ready to be presented to the administration for approval. If approved, it will go into effect at the opening of the next academic year.

OPERATE SECOND TIME ON RICHARD JESSUP

Master Richard Jessup, five year old son of Pres. and Mrs. Walter A. Jessup was resting easily and showed a much improved condition last evening, following a second operation performed Thursday night in an effort to save his life. He was not expected to live through the remainder of the night, but gained strength all day yesterday.

He was taken to the University hospital about ten days ago, where an operation was performed for mastoid. His condition was not considered critical until yesterday, when the unexpected change for the worse necessitated the second operation.

BIG TEN TRACK MEET DRAWS FOUR HUNDRED MEN TO ANN ARBOR

Athletes From Twenty Universities Assemble for Big Classic at Michigan

CHANGE MADE IN IOWA SQUAD

Colby Declared Ineligible and Captain Brigham Goes With Team—Prentiss Attends Meeting of Big Ten Officials to Decide Spiltball Question—Watson and Jones Go Too

Four hundred athletes, representing over a score of western universities, are assembled at Ann Arbor, Mich., for the Big Ten conference track and field meet, the preliminaries which were held yesterday and the finals to be run off this afternoon. Among that monster delegation Iowa has twelve men.

The team has had one change since the list of entries was first given out. Colby, star dash man, was declared ineligible by the athletic board; the following statement being given out on that account:

"The eligibility committee of the Board in Control of Athletics declared Charles Colby ineligible to compete in intercollegiate athletics on and after June 2, 1920. This decision was due to a letter dated June 1 from the Registrar's office stating that 6 semester hours of Mr. Colby's credit had been cancelled on that day.

Officials Meet

Captain Brigham, who was not originally going with the squad, finally left with it Thursday morning and kept the number still at a dozen. He will compete in the high jump, his last performance in varsity track after a record of three years on the Iowa track squad.

At the same time of the track meet the Big Ten officials will meet at Ann Arbor to settle some of the baseball controversies that have arisen during the past season. Dr. Henry J. Prentiss, president of the Board in Control of Athletics, will be the Iowa representative at the meeting, where it is expected that the spiltball will come up for discussion. The contention of Ames a short time ago that the Big Ten allowed the use of the curve could not have been well founded in view of the coming meeting, which is the first to convene on the new rule program.

Trainer Jack Watson and Director Howard H. Jones are also attending the big carnival with the dozen Hawkeye track men, Captain Brigham, Hoffman, A. Devine, Slater, Wallen, Dyke, Jaqua, Ty Smith, Ristine, Peterman, Belding and Shope.

THREE DISTRICTS OPEN FOR WEST POINT CANDIDATES

Any student in the University who is a resident of the first, third or sixth congressional district of the state of Iowa has a chance for an appointment to West Point, according to information just received from the adjutant general of the army. No further mental examination will be held this year, but appointees who can qualify by certificate will be admitted on July 1 next, subject to a successful physical examination.

Any student who desires to make application for this appointment should report immediately to the professor of military science and tactics, Room 203, men's gym.

I believe we have room for but one soul loyalty, and that is loyalty to the American people. —Theodore Roosevelt

WHEN WE LEARN TO GIVE

"A university will never be great until its alumni learn to give."

This is the maxim spoken by Prof. Charles H. Weller to a small group of students who are fighting for the Memorial Union. Students of Iowa! Ponder over the proverb. It carries a truth which woefully reflects upon our University.

It is more blessed to give than to receive. The philanthropist is happier than the miser. To a world, whose progress is dependent upon successful association and cooperation, the former is an aid, the latter a parasite. Iowa has both.

Alumni and students of Iowa are not "givers" as a whole. They are "receivers." A kind state has been benign to them. So long have they been the recipient of charity, that greed and selfishness have supplanted a benevolent campus spirit.

Students of Iowa set out to build a Memorial—a Memorial to those who have served man, nation, and University in the wars of the past. Students believed it just that they should do so. Their hearts had been touched by the passing of such men as Roland, Becker, and Grubb. Nine months ago the project was launched. Today the Memorial lags. Hearts of students and alumni are cold to the object of their own initiative. Indifference has overtaken loyalty—Why?—loyalty necessitates "giving."

The greedy ask why the state doesn't spend the million for the Memorial. Why should we, as humble students at the University pay for a building on the Iowa campus? It's true we want the building; we sponsored it. But why should we pay for it? This is a state institution. The state gives all. Let it build the Memorial. Such is a current argument on the campus.

Would you ask some one outside your family to erect a marble stone to one of your own kin? Would you ask the state to build a Memorial to those who have given their "last measure of devotion" to your University? No! A Memorial should come from the heart. Students who have survived the ill-fortunes of war should find pleasure in contributing to a Memorial for their comrades who have fallen. Such a Memorial should be one that the students may call their own—a thing of their own building.

Iowa tax payers are generous to the University. But their good money should not taint the spirit of a Memorial. The state pays more than $2000 for every sheep skin that passes out the portals of this University. Iowa students in return, during a four year liberal arts course pay but $80 tuition; professional colleges more. The state is generous; in return we give nothing. Can it be that we are so miserly as to ask the state to erect a Memorial to those "honor men" who have passed on?

Students and alumni of Iowa! Generosity is a virtue. When we learn to give as freely as we receive, then will our University become great; not before.

Remember: "A university will never be great until its alumni learn to give." Soon you will be alumni.

WHAT IS A CLASS OFFICER?

We have denounced the dearth of Iowa spirit. Students have criticized the slovenly interest in campus activities. Class officers have wept copious tears over the lack of a University spirit. Everyone weeps but few act.

The spirit of Iowa was typified yesterday afternoon. Officers of all colleges and of all classes were requested to come to a meeting in the interests of the Iowa Memorial Union. Two class officers, presidents of the sophomore liberal arts and applied science colleges, responded. The senior officers of all colleges were not called as the senior class is organized in behalf of the Union. The meeting was called by Prof. C. H. Weller, chairman of the "Big June Push."

In answer to the fifty-two telephone calls, two men responded. The meeting was originally called for Thursday afternoon but in response to fifty-two letters sent to the class officers, the same two officers answered on that day. This is Iowa spirit at its best.

What is the status of a class officer? Does his duty end when he pulls the final political string for his election to office? Does he use the office to gird himself with honor and prominence and then to armor himself against University duties? Are class officers elected for their ability to lift a cup of tea and shake the shimmy? Illusions in politics usually come to the surface before a regime is over. Time has uncovered election's folly of last fall. Frequently the leaders in a class are barred from office by the strategy of honor seeking politicians. Such may be the case at Iowa. At least we hope it is. We are ashamed to think that there are no leaders in a class who would not respond to a University duty.

The spirit of Iowa is at stake. If it is dependent on class officers, it is dead. We hope class electors next fall will take into consideration a man's qualifications as a leader and a booster rather than a social butterfly.

The tea dancers can go on unmolested, there are no more athletic events to interrupt their tete-a-tete.

Even the democrats are carrying planks to the Chicago convention.

The seniors can not hold out much longer.

June 11 is armistice day at the University.

Johnson's fire may burn Wood.

IOWAN PLEDGE OF $1000 TO UNION
ACKNOWLEDGED BY APPRECIATION

THE IOWA MEMORIAL UNION
Old Capitol, Iowa City, Iowa

June 3, 1920

The Daily Iowan,
University of Iowa.
Gentlemen:

I have just now learned of the generous pledge of $1000 made by the Daily Iowan to the Iowa Memorial Union. Let me express my keen appreciation of not only the pledge itself but more especially of the splendid spirit back of it.

Throughout the entire campaign thus far the Daily Iowan has loyally backed every effort that has been made to interest the alumni and students of the University. Hundreds of dollars worth of space have been given in the best portions of your paper. Editorials have been written and individual members of the staff have worked consistently for the success of the enterprise.

Let me say that this pledge comes as a distinct surprise to me. It had not occurred to me that the corporation would undertake the financial support of the enterprise. This shows that I have too little vision and too little appreciation of the devotion of the men and women in the student body.

Personally, and as Secretary of the Board of Trustees, I wish to thank you.

Very truly yours,
FOREST C. ENSIGN,
Secretary, Board of Trustees

Sigma Delta Chi, Professional Journalistic Fraternity Pledges Sum at Banquet

Besides giving $100 to the Iowa Memorial fund, twelve members of the Iowa chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, national professional fraternity for journalists, dedicated their professional services to the campaign conductors, at a banquet held at the Hotel Burkley last night.

The purpose of the meeting last night, which was to elect officers for the ensuing year, was almost forgotten in an enthusiastic and occasional critical discussion of the "Iowa Spirit," when Prof. C. H. Weller, an honorary member of the fraternity made a few remarks to the effect that the "Iowa Spirit" among the alumni is impossible unless it is felt by the undergraduate.

Talks were also made by Prof. Wm. S. Maulsby, O. E. Klingaman, of the extension division, and undergraduate members of the organization.

Following the banquet an election of officers was held. Earl Wells, Sigma Phi Epsilon, president; Bruce Gould, Kappa Sigma, vice-president; Fred A. Steiner, Sigma Phi Epsilon, secretary; Harold Andrews, Kappa Sigma, treasurer.

Ralph E. Overholser, the retiring president of the fraternity, and who is to be graduated this year, was the toastmaster.
