FRENCH COTTAGE ESTABLISHED Carrier Annex No. 1 Takes Over; Miss Franches Has Charge

An innovation is the establishment of the Maison Française for the number of the students who know herself as Carrier Annex No. 1. The house, which is in charge of Françoise Elizabeth, a superior student of language department, will be made up of fifty girls.

Best strain of the use of the French language will be at all times. Papers will be and French; one paper each day will be given in reading; French plays will be play, and the girls shall be taught French games and French songs.

Amelia Colomes Will Be First—To Visit Quaker Oxay Factory

Among the attractions which are of interest to the summer student this summer is a series of excursions a special French student of the English department.

Edward Charles Mahie comes from the University of Kentucky as assistant in the English department.

Lambert Niescron is named as an instructor in manual arts.

Other additions to the faculty will be made for the second session five weeks.
