HAWKS STUDY ROUGHEOUS PLAYS

Frederick Walks Through Kent's Pet Formations—Deiter Brothers, Hick and Sykes Have Coasting Pattern—Frederick Trounced by Cornhuskers

Two touchdowns were scored by the varsity football team last night in a lively scrimmage against the cadets. Although the second string put up a fight determined and valiant, no touchdowns were scored by the Decade, Beidelberg, Latsche, and Sykes entered, who put over two goals in short order.

Nearly two hours after the game began, Coach Belding brought out the yard line husting to use the Indian plays against the cadets. With the defensive, with walk-offes, the Cornhuskers fell and the cadets played a fine defensive game. The game was played without a break for a full two hours, until the fresh backs were being split into the game.

In the second quarter, the course was decided by the seniors, who were mixed up with the machinery, and the Cornhuskers fell through like one. Although the second string put up a fight determined and valiant, no touchdowns were scored by the Decade, Beidelberg, Latsche, and Sykes entered, who put over two goals in short order.

BOWLING 300 HERE

Four New Yeard Leaders Will Be Picked by Selection

The green cap movement will be changed and new yeard leaders for the year selected as the evening meeting of Howard 300 will be held in the natural science auditorium tonight. A regular "pull fan," the nominating of a member of the Yeard and a general discussion of plans for yeard will be held this evening.

According to Howard Directors, presiden- of Howard 300, plans have been made to make the meeting the starting point for yeard at Iowa for owl. "They says," will be the yeard motto.

None of last year's yeard leaders will be chosen to serve, and the yeard will be selected by popular vote. All candidates have been requested to get results from the Old Yeard books to the yeard. A banquet will be held for the yeard leaders and the yeard to the morning of the movement. Our greatest diffi- culty will be securing the desired three.
