BEAT THE RENT GRABBER

Students at the University of Illinois are conducting a campaign against the rent grabber. The Illini, the student newspaper, expresses its views in the following editorial:

"The grab game is rampant among all and normal junior bulletin has just out of Illinois high schools, not writing or work or less. The take a hand are nevertheless paying the rent, and in the football field, they are for a college training to which they are entitled by every legal and legal right. Grief has failed its grip on the University and a result scores of young college are acceptance of the earnestly, losing heart in the dual prospect of a feet, and they are not ever making an effort to begin the advanced training they have anticipated since entering their teams. A majority of the youth, who in normal terms could understand the hardship of a modest income by the grind and who have had to admit the impossible and have not so much as make it trip to the Twin Cities. Others have come, sickened at the rate of prices, and have gone back disgusted and disheartened.

The Daily Illini does not purpose to close its eyes to the situation in the case and student protests. It is not being gutted and then wrong of the last censure. For the registration have had the courage of have been basically minded they are yet enough convictions eliteness in the Twin Cities who will be listening at respectable rates to meet the enrollment requirements. There is necessity for paying the exorbitant de-

JESSUP SPEAKS TO NEW WOMEN

Fraternity Urged to Be Leaders—
Mrs. Turner Preludes—Many Other Speakers

President Walter A. Jessup, speaking for the faculty, gave an address of welcome at the first freshman banquet of the year to women yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the natural science auditorium. Mrs. Nellie E. Auer, dean of women, presided.

President Jessup emphasized the place that the new women were to take in the University life as future leaders to carry on the ideals and principles of the University. He urged the freshmen women to do their best intellectually in the class room as well as in the literary and social organizations. “The University is organ- ized,” said President Jessup, “to help young women to live a larger life.”

Other speakers of the afternoon were: Mrs. Adeline Hersey, secretary of women; Miss Violet Bluford, social advisor and advisor; Dwight A. Davis, business manager of the Daily Iowan; Dorothy Banks, president of Staff and Circle; Margaret Sollers, president of the Y. W. C. A.; Jean Spiers, president of Women’s Athletic Association; Roberta Anderson, chairman of the sponsor committee; and Margaret Holton, president of the Women’s Association.
