By M. F. Carpen-Good game at hand as it looks as Iowa should begin the 1963 football season with a win of 20 to 10 over the Northwestern Wildcats.

Iowa will only have to have a good showing on the part of the Northwestern Wildcats to win the game this weekend.

There is no other indication that the game will be a good one and the only indication that the game will be a good one is the fact that the Wildcats have not lost a game since 1959.

Iowa will have to put out more than the Wildcats to win the game.

By the way, the game is to be held on the home ground of the Wildcats, and it will be played on the home ground of the Wildcats.

In the first game of the season, the Iowa Hawkeyes defeated the Northwestern Wildcats by a score of 20 to 10.

The Hawkeyes have had a good showing in their first game of the season and are expected to put up a good showing in their next game.
