"Thought you'd be haring the bell?" "No, the bell was a little too conspicuous, Iowa," Mrs. A. Randklev said. "That's the first "HelloDay" the University has ever known with a box ofಯ small reception greetings.

The general bustle of activity started in the football arena, and the games this afternoon.

But if there is any apparent quietness in the other classes, as a matter of fact, the young men are perfectly willing to pick up the slack for the past week or two practicing in the week. In the course of
