The smoke from the fire will spread this afternoon in the liberal arts library. It will be during homecoming.

The annual recognition service of the V. W. C. A. was held in the drawing room on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The new members were recognized by full and junior membership. The new members formed a line in the Y. W. C. A. building and marched in the drawing room where they were received by the cabinet.

At the meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Cabinet, it was voted to hold the annual meeting at the private dining room of the Jefferson Hotel.

According to E. R. Fitzgerald, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., the cabinet proposed to hold its annual meeting at the Y. M. C. A. office if they can.

At the meeting, it was expected that several members will be present to meet the new students and discuss the membership campaign.

The meeting will be held under the direction of the Illinois College Women's Association.

IOWA TO HAVE MANY WINDERS AT WINDY CITY

Three Hundred Undergraduates are Estimated to Attend the Big Windy City Reception

Will Stop at the Laskarle

R. D. Mitchell, President of the Iowa Alumni Association States The 1,680 Old Students Will Be in the Hawkeye Section Sunday—Broker Will Make Showing

An estimated crowd of 1,800 undergraduates at this instant will be in the Iowa stands on Stagg Field, Chicago, Ill., Saturday afternoon, Oct. 21, last date for voting for seats to the Windy City College football games.

After a survey of the possible student body who will come to the Windy City John H. (Barnie) Hurlbut, of Virginia and Woodstock, III., president of the Hawkeye section of the Bleachers, said he believed that the total crowd at Iowa will be around 1,680 which might possibly run higher.

A conversation from B. D. Mitchell, president of the Iowa Alumni Association, Chicago, says that an estimated crowd of 1,800 undergraduates will be at the Hawkeye Section's stand, the Blondes, Black, Chicago, a graduate of the college of Iowa, is attending the University in Chicago head quarters for the day at the East Park Hotel.

No Special Train.

Plans for the annual meeting to have been abandoned, it was announced last night by Teamster B. D. Mitchell, that most students of the time they will be at the Iowa City on Friday afternoon it was announced. The national convention of the Hawkeyes was held.

The Windy City will have a strictly political campaign in Chicago, according to Dwight A. Davis, business manager of the Daily Iowan.

Last night will probably be the last staff meetings before the meeting the business section as the team leaves for Chicago tonight.

THE BANKS OFFER NOTARY SERVICE FOR VOTERS’ APPLICATIONS

III. THE ABSENTEES’ LAW

By F. R. Horack

(Technical Editor of Daily Iowa)

Any person qualified to vote in Iowa City may, if he expects to be absent from his home county on election day, make application to the County Auditor for an official ballot to be voted at the same time and place. The application for an official ballot must be made “late and without fail” at least five days prior to the date of the primary election. The application forms are made available upon request from financial institutions.

In this manner, the County Auditor of the county in which the voter resides is required to mail the ballot to the voter, who must return it by a specified date. The application must be subscribed and sworn to as provided by law. The application must be returned to the auditor no later than five days before the primary election.

The law provides that the County Auditor upon receiving your application for an official ballot, must post a record of the application, and that the application must be kept on file for future reference.

A law in force allows the Officier of the county to make an official ballot for the voter, and the voter must return it by a specified date. The application must be subscribed and sworn to as provided by law. The application must be returned to the auditor no later than five days before the primary election.

In the event of an election, the envelope containing the absent voters’ ballots is opened in the presence of the officer who received the ballots. The absent voters’ ballots are counted, and the result is published in the newspaper of the county.
