UNION DIRECTOR

GRASSFIELD TO BE UNION HEAD

Iowa Memorial Union to Make New Lead Under Direction of Iowa Law Journal

Announcement is made that Ralph G. Grassfield, a former University of Iowa law student, has been appointed director of the Iowa Memorial Union. Mr. Grassfield, 25, by using his law degree and legal ability, is expected to carry on the work inaugurated under the direction of Prof. Charles H. Weber, who is in charge of the Memorial Union when in session.

After leaving the University in 1918 as a member of the secretarial force, the Iowa and Chicago school for which he worked successfully a short time, Ralph joined the Army and was in the service of the government during the war.

Ralph, who became interested in journalism during the war, is spending his spare time to prepare for the law and in the fall he will take up the study of law for admission to the bar.

The exhibit, which is interesting and scholarly, is expected to return to the Union next week, but will be next shown in the gallery of the Union, which is not now in use.

Grassfield is a member of the Acacia fraternity and of the international department.

The student body will meet the coming guest.

BE AN OLD GOLD BOOSTER TODAY, MEET THE TEAM

The student body will meet the team when it returns from Chicago this evening. "The fact that the team was defeated should have no effect on the size of the crowd which turns out to meet the team," said Marguerite M. Smith, one of the members of the committee in charge of meeting the team.

The exhibit is to be in a body and exhalation 25 feet by 25 feet, and in the Iowa Union, which is expected to return to the Union next week, but will be next shown in the gallery of the Union, which is not now in use.

"Flopping the Blinds" is the quickest method of transportation when the desire arises to get somewhere and the financial means is lacking. The procedure is to warrant first class passage. Subsequently "Flopping the Blinds" is the quickest method of getting to a hospital or a mortuary.

"Flopping the Blinds" is not actually a light occupation. Whomever has flopped out round that corner earns his passage. His ride, if he makes a freight train, is not of the pleasant variety, and he lays himself open to severe criticisms by members of the crew. If his choice is a fest bound passenger, he lays himself open to the same criticism and greater opportunity of a dialogue with St. Peter. "Flopping the Blinds," in practical, has proved that the strongest of shifting motives knows actually no self preservation. It has proved that the untidy of the ten years is not dying out, and that men will still be commend of their assistance for the satisfaction of a whimsy which at least to the thoughtful seems the best way to cut this thing short.

REMEMBER THE BARBEQUE.

The travelers and guests in the year of grace 1910 are in upon us: Old grads, hundreds, perhaps thousands of them, shaded hands, stoning positions, and bearing their own burdens.

Homecoming, the day or two days of the Barbearque, is the time when the university takes a little bit more in its picture affairs. That picture is so early fitting.

We can enjoy giving up our time, our entertainment to the big barbecue set for the evening of Friday, November 12. This for 2000 persons looks to be a worth while gathering. The old grads want to get together at dinner tables and in dance for a big night for year.

OX AND BARRETTING: A CONTRIBUTOR TO THE Minnesota Daily on the comparative character of the two, presidential candidates of the two, presidential candidates and the way in which they are represented by their neighbors:

"Perhaps in no presidential election has the contrast between the positions and the political platforms of the two candidates been more sharply drawn than in the present contest, in spite of the fact that the two presidential candidates, Governor Cox and Senator Bryan, have been industrious in their efforts to meet and satisfy the needs of the diverse groups that are represented by their respective political parties.

"For instance in the presidential campaign the contrast between the two political platforms is most striking than in the present contest, in spite of the fact that the two candidates, Governor Cox and Senator Bryan, have been industrious in their efforts to meet and satisfy the needs of the diverse groups that are represented by their respective political parties."

"The old, somewhat ethical question of the two presidential candidates is the difference of personality which has been wont to cast Aspersions on the opposition."

"It is upon us: Perhaps thousands of them, shaking and hashing over old times.

"If you are not sure of modern events of the novel events of the past, you are not sure to have been won over by the Flopper-Blinds."

Locke went through center for 3 but Iowa was penalized 15 yards for holding. A forward pass by A. Devine was incomplete. Locke goes 3 yards through center. Another audacious pass hits ground. Fourth down and 12 and Iowa fails to go. Ball on Iowa 27 yard line. Punting puts to A. Devine who was downed on Chicago 46 yard line.

Second half, Third quarter

Hutchinson made 2 yards at center. Palmer added one at same place. But Christian lost 6 yards when he slipped and fell. Palmer punted to A. Devine who was downed on Iowa 17 yard line. Locke went through left tackle for 3 yards. He repeated right and left for first down. A forward pass, A. Devine to Belding gains 21 yards. Ball on Chicago 49 yard line. A. Devine made 2 yards at right end. Another forward pass to Belding gained 21 yards. This was followed by another pass to A. Devine which took the ball to Chicago's 14 yard line. Halfback replaced Halliday at Hutchinson for Chicago. A forward pass by A. Devine hit the ground and the ball was out at this point. Score, Chicago, 1-0.

IV. MAKING YOUR BALLOT

United States, twenty-one years of age, and a resident of Iowa for sixty days in the County in which you claim the right to vote.

2. Your affidavit in the ballot column will make it unnecessary for you to go home to register.

3. The absent Voters Ballot is only voted upon application to the County Auditor in the form prescribed by law.

4. The application must be to the hands of your County Auditor before October 31, 1920.

5. The following penalty clause should be carefully read: If any person shall willfully write falsely to any such affidavit, he shall, upon conviction thereof be guilty of perjury and shall be punished as in each case by law provided. If any person, having procured an official ballot or ballots as heretofore provided shall willfully neglect or refuse to cast or return same in the manner hereof prescribed, or shall willfully violate any provision of this act he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not to exceed one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not to exceed thirty days. If any county auditor, city, town clerk or any election officer, shall refuse or neglect to perform any of the duties prescribed by this act, or shall violate any of the provisions thereof, he shall upon conviction be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or imprisoned in the county jail not more than thirty days (see 1357, Supp., 1913).

A. The ballot of Iowa City and the cities of Des Moines and Cedar Rapids will give you the services of a Notary Public without charge, but you will have to pay the postage and registration fees for mailing your ballot to your county auditor.

Are You a Slacker?

Slackers didn’t fight and slackers won’t vote. By not voting November 2nd, you will be shirking your duty as an American citizen.

Your absent voters application must be filed with your County Auditor by Wednesday, October 27th. Applications may be had at your Dean’s office and free notary service may be had at your Iowa City bankers or at Dean Rienow’s office. For any other information see a member of the University Republican Club at 8 So. Clinton.

Your duty will be fully performed when you voted a straight Republican ticket.
