FATE SMILES ON REPUBLICANS IN TODAY'S BALLOT
Leaders of Two Political Clubs Code the Future of the Republican and Government

Cox to Carry the South

Democratic Followers See Defeat in Resolute War Drive — Delaware of Republican Club Due Here明日 with Iowa by 100,000 — Conley and Missaukee Have Small Margins

Students who have failed to return their absent voters' ballots should think before a lack of ballots. Harding will carry the state, but in a narrow margin. Students who have not voted should do so immediately. The student vote is a very important factor in the election.

PARTY COMMITTEES TO BE ERECTED AT ELECTION

Parliamentary rules require that each political club must have a parliamentary committee to regulate the conduct of the election. In the past, the committees have been poorly conducted. The student body has a right to expect better election rules. The committees should be well-prepared and have a clear understanding of the rules and procedures.

Little Caps to Put Ginger into Annual Contest

Freshman-Sophomore Pushball Mix, 1919

With the annual "Wreathing of Grant," both teams expect to win.

Garrett and Lyons Both Confident of Victory

Both squads believe that they can win the contest and will do their best to win.

Both teams are confident of victory.

The annual freshman-sophomore pushball contest promises to be the most exciting and competitive contest of the year. Both teams are well-prepared and have trained extensively for this contest.

Elections for the Committee

The committee for this year consists of the following members: President, Ralph C. Smith; Vice-President, William J. Johnson; Secretary, John A. Brown; and Treasurer, Robert E. White.

The committee is responsible for the smooth operation of the election and will ensure that all rules are followed.

Yarsity Backed in Early Drive

Cox and Land Pass Lead Second Team

Fall to Curve

The second string carried the ball and scored two touchdowns to win the varsity goal via a long smash and a close line.

Lettle to Shettleworth in Yarsity

They were unable to drive through for the last half point, and the game is lost. The score was two touchdowns to one.

Coming to the Englert Theatre
Iowa City - Night
Monday, November 15

In announcing Gay Bait Post and No excellent company as the last summer's hit, they planned on the same line only now, repeating the opinion expressed by every theater manager where it more clearly had been brought out.

When negotiations began to have Mr. Post REMAIN in the United States during the current season, Mr. Walmsley, the manager, had already completed arrangements to have Mr. Post and his unusually talented company appear at the Englert Theatre for "The Master" and "Masquerader," both of which success he has been so hotly advertised for.

The Associated Theater Managers of the United States did not relish the plan of having two leading dramatic attractions, Gay Bait Post and Southern Harlequin, both absent from the stage. However, as they are both under contract, they must, as it is to be understood, play the Englert Theatre.

The name of the company that was to have visited London, this season, has been left open by the United States, and the sale of their company, it is a fact, is a matter of the greatest importance to the company. They have been particularly successful here, and it is to be hoped that they will continue their success in the future.

The stage of the Englert Theatre is large enough to accommodate any attraction that has ever visited this city, but the STAGE MUST BE CLEARED OF EVERY PIECE OF HOUSE SCENERY AND PROPS BY 5:30 IN THE EVENING AS THE THEATRE WILL BE OPEN TO THE PUBLIC AT 6:30.

The box office will be open for regular sale of seats, Saturday, November 11.

Mail orders will be filled in order received, and when accompanied by check or money order, together with self-addressed stamped envelope (to avoid error) — additional amount tax of 15 per cent.

The ends of the street and the railroads sides will be well marked. No one seated during the prologue.

Curtain 8:30.

Mr. Post will only play Iowa City, Waterloo, and Burlington in the state.
