FATE SMILES ON REPUBLICANS IN TODAY'S BALLOT

Leaders of Two Political Clubs Cede
the G. O. P. Presidency and Governorship

COX TO CARRY THE SOUTH

Democratic Followers See Defeat in Reaction From War — Doolittle of Republican Club Says Harding Will Carry Iowa by 150,000 — Kendall
and Cummins to Have Small Margin

Students who have failed to return their absent voters' ballot should mail them at once whether or not they will arrive in time to be counted, is the advice of Prof. F. E. Horack of the department of political science. "There is a penalty of $100 or thirty days in jail for failure to return the ballot," said Professor Horack. Approximately 1800 absent voters' ballots have been filled out by the students, as estimated by Clyde H. Doolittle L3, president of the University Republican club.

That the state and national republican ticket will win in the election today is the general opinion on the campus. Although the democratic party has some followers among the students, indications are that a great majority are republican sympathizers. Republicans predict a landslide in their favor in the national election. Democrats are more conservative in their claims, and are, in fact, slowly conceding the advantage to Harding.

In the state contest, however, the republicans of the campus while confident of the election of Kendall for governor and Cummins for United States senator, admit that their majorities will be small. Democrats are more hopeful as to the outcome of the state election than the national.

Cummins and Kendall to Win

Cox will carry a solid south while Harding will carry the North, and Ohio and New York in the East, is the opinion of Harold Irwin L3, secretary-treasurer of the Herring-for-Governor club. Because of the general reaction after the war, Harding has a little better chance of being elected than has Cox," said Irwin. "In the state election the results will be very close with the republicans having a slight advantage. Herring has a better chance of election than has Porter."

Harding will receive at least 375 of the 531 electoral votes, according to Clyde H. Doolittle L3, president of the University Republican club. "He will carry Iowa by a majority of 150,000," said Doolittle. "Although Cummins and Kendall will win, their respective majorities will fall far below that of Harding."

Gould Says Herring Victory

Roger P. Birdsall L2, prominent member of the Republican club said, "Without a doubt, Harding will carry the country by an overwhelming majority. I predict that his majority will be one million. Kendall will win by a decisive margin. I am not sure of Cummins; he is weak in the southeastern part of the state."

"Harding will have a small majority," said DeWayne L. Silliman L1, president of the freshman law class. "Cox will get more votes in Iowa than Wilson did in 1912 and 1916. Kendall and Cummins will win."

Margaret Dolliver A4, president of the Y. W. C. A. said that in her opinion the entire republican ticket both state and national will be elected.

Harding will win decisively and Hering will be elected governor, is the opinion of Bruce Gould A3, business manager of Frivol.

"It looks like a landslide for Harding," said Clyde B. Charlton L1, president of A. F. I., honorary senior society. "Iowa is still a republican stronghold. Kendall will win by a clear majority. Cummins will have a close race but will win out."

PARTY COMMITTEES TO BE APPROVED BY DEAN RIENOW

"Class presidents must use care in making up party committees," said Dean Robert E. Rienow yesterday in speaking of the dance committees. Each committee must contain a representative of every college on the campus, and each man on the committee must have passed at least fourteen hours of work for every semester that he has been in the University.

This list must be approved by Dean Rienow, chairman of the board on social regulations. The smallest number of men that have been on committees in the past is nine on the Sophomore Cotillion committee of 1919. The usual number is fourteen and nearly all committees in the past have contained this number of men.

TICKET SALE TO CLOSE THURSDAY

Special Effort Made to Present
Barbecue Proposition in

Organized efforts to close the sale of tickets for the Homecoming barbecue, November 12, are made by special appeal to fraternities and sororities through the interfraternity council and women's pan-Hellenic, Currier hall through the management of Mame Rose Prosser, preceptress, the Quadrangle, through Ben W. Robinson, president of the Quadrangle association, professional students through their associations, and the faculty by personal canvass, in order to have complete sale returns in by Thursday, November 4, at 5 p. m.

Choice of meat or fish courses will be made at the time the ticket is bought, a color being provided for each course. Price of tickets for the oxen roast is 50 cents. The affair will be held in the new armory. It is announced that the sale is open to townspeople as well as students and faculty members of the University. No tickets will be sold after 5 o'clock Thursday.

Tickets may be bought at Whetstone's, University Book Store, Iowa Book store, Wieneke's, Kirk's and Racine number one, cigar stores.

WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION TO SELL FLOWERS HOMECOMING

A canvass will be made of sororities and fraternities by the members of the women's athletic association in order to solicit orders for chrysanthemums to be used as decorations for Homecoming.

Last year the women's athletic association covered expenses by selling sandwiches throughout the year. This year they intend to cover expenses by selling "I" buttons, chrysanthemums, and pop-corn balls at Homecoming. Prices of the chrysanthemums will be as follows: small size, 35 cents apiece, or $4 a dozen; medium size, 50 cents apiece, or $5 a dozen; large size, 75 cents apiece, or $8 a dozen.

RAINBOW VETERANS TO MEET AND CONSIDER FUTURE PLANS

Possible arrangements for a special observance of Armistice Day and plans for the entire year will be considered at a meeting of the Old Gold chapter of the Rainbow Division Veterans association called for tomorrow at 7 p. m. at the Y. M. C. A. by James E. Thomas, president.

Last year the chapter held a banquet at the Hotel Jefferson on the evening of November 11.

MATHEMATICS CLUB TO MEET

"Co-normal Points on the Parabola" will be the subject of the lecture to be given by Doctor Woods before the mathematics club, Wednesday at 4:10, room 222, physics building. The lecture is open to everyone but will be of special interest to students of analytical geometry.

LITTLE CAPS TO PUT GINGER INTO ANNUAL CONTEST

Freshman-Sophomore Pushball Mix,
Nov. 13, May Be Spiced by
"Wearing of Green"

BOTH TEAMS EXPECT TO WIN

Gordon and Locke Both Confident of Victory—Schrader Says No Roughness
Will Be Allowed — Game to be in Three Periods — Frosh to Have Faces Marked

The annual freshman-sophomore pushball contest promises to be the hardest fought battle ever staged between two classes. Some expect that the frosh will be out to avenge the green caps imposed by upper classmen. Roy N. Bilney of Eagle Grove, president of the freshman class, said, "We have a bunch of huskies that the sophomores will never beat." Gordon Locke, sophomore president, answers, "The preps aren't worrying us." Harold Crawford A2 of Mason City, has been appointed captain of the sophomore team.

According to Mr. E. G. Schroeder, chairman of the pushball committee, the contest will be held under the prescribed rules, and no unnecessary roughing will be allowed. Each team, consisting of twenty-one men including the captain, will lineup at its respective goals and at the blast of the referee's whistle will rush at the ball. The side which succeeds in pushing the ball over the opponents' goal the most times, wins the contest.

In the first two ten-minute periods, only the appointed teams may take part, but in the final period any member of either class may get into the fray.

Last year the pushball contest was won by the freshmen. In the games staged during the past ten years the freshmen have usually come out victorious because of the greater number of men they can command for the final period. Freshmen will have their faces marked with burnt cork to distinguish them from the sophomores.

The pushball, which is six feet in diameter, has a cover made of six cow hides. At present prices, the ball would cost approximately $250.00. It is owned by the University and is frequently rented to smaller colleges for their class scraps.

The contest will be staged at 10 a. m., November 13, before the homecoming visitors on Iowa field. The admission price has not yet been decided.

WILLETT THINKS NATION SHOULD JOIN A LEAGUE

Peace, democracy, and religion, were set forth as the three principles of Americanism, by Reverend Herbert L. Willett, of the University of Chicago in his address on the subject, "The Nations New Program", given at vesper services Sunday afternoon.

Rev. Willett gave a brief history of the United States, showing that these three principles had been at stake in all our wars. He emphasized that the nations as a majority were tending towards improvement in government. The indications given were the abandonment of the liquor traffic during the war, the granting of the right of suffrage to women, and the general moral cleanup as a result of the recent war.

Reverend Willett also touched upon the league of nations. He emphasized the fact that it is the duty of this country to take an interest in preserving the peace that we have recently won, and although he did not definitely state whether or not he favored the league, he conveyed the idea that we should take an active part in an association of nations aimed to preserve the peace and brotherhood of man.

ENGINEERS SAY "KNOCK THE STERN OFF NORTHWESTERN"

"Knock the stern off Northwestern" is the new slogan which the junior engineers have chosen for the game next Saturday. The slogan will make its appearance on the engineering building sometime today, according to Rufus V. Morris S3 of Belmond.

"Oh Min", the slogan for the Minnesota game will be erected on next Monday, according to the plans of the committee in charge.

The slogan which has been chosen for the Ames game is "Wreck Ames' aims".

VARSITY BACKED IN EARLY DRIVE

Smash and Long Pass Land Second Team Yard from Goal —
Fail to Cross

The second string carried the ball from the 50 yard line to within a yard of the varsity goal via a long smash by Jaqua and a forward flip from Kelly to Shuttleworth in scrimmage last night.

They were unable to drive through for the last yard however, and A. Devine punted down the field when the varsity got the ball. The second string lost the ball on their first down by Locke intercepting a pass and the first team was able to score for the first time within a few minutes by smashing and end running tactics.

G. Devine spent the entire evening on the second string at right half along with Kelly at quarter and Shuttleworth at left, Jaqua and Sykes and Paul Smith at ends. Longley appeared in uniform for action again and worked at tackle on the seconds. Rich got in the last part of the melee in place of Shuttleworth.

It was a hot scrimmage and some of the men showed that the holiday had not benefited their physical condition any. The evening was cold and perfect for football. The scrimmage lasted until too dark to see.

Varsity scored three times by the seconds held them down well and frequently forced the big time force to do some booting and the subs also gained with fair consistency.

Hard scrimmage will be the order of the remainder of the week. The Purple's game with Indiana leaves no doubt that Iowa is running up against a hard battle and the Minnesota game is also looming up. That Minnesota is already looking towards Iowa is shown by the fact that Hauser, ex-star lineman of Minnesota told Col. Muma Saturday that no team had ever beaten Minnesota three times in succession and that no team would.

LITERARY PROGRAMS TO BE HELD AT CLOSE HALL TONIGHT

Four of the six women's literary societies will hold meetings tonight. The Erodelphian and Irving societies will hold a joint meeting in the Ero-Irving room at Close hall. Helen Hayes A3, and Eleanor Mulroney A2 are in charge of the program which will consist of a piano solo by Marion Brierly; a solo dance by Bidy Prentiss; reading by Marion Edmund, and two interpretative dances by Miss Anne Boillon of the department of physical education for women. The program will be concluded by a piano solo by Mr. Baker.

WELLS TO GO TO OKLAHOMA

Sigma Delta Chi, journalistic fraternity, elected Earl W. Wells as the representative of the local chapter to attend the national convention this year. The convention will be held at the University of Oklahoma November 18, 19, and 20, and each chapter will send one representative.

IOWA CAN LOOK FOR VICTORY IN CLOSING GAMES

Results of Saturday's Contests Favor
Hawkeyes in the Three Contests to Come

BIG TEN VICTOR UNCERTAIN

Ohio and Illinois Still Boast Clear
Records — Many Blocks Remain in Paths of Both — Michigan and Wisconsin Still in Running — Chicago Still Has a Slight Chance

By M. F. Carpenter

Saturday's games were the first of the season to fit in with advance notices. Chicago and Ohio were practically on a level, the break of luck deciding the game. So too were Indiana and Northwestern. Illinois was better than Minnesota, but Minnesota showed better form than ever before this season. Michigan beat Tulane easily, and Purdue had about as much trouble with Wabash as the previous record of the teams indicated.

As a result there are two unbeaten teams, Illinois and Ohio. These two teams meet each other in the final game of the season, and, if they can keep their record clear in the next two weeks, the winner of that game will be the Conference champion, with no question about the matter. Last week, however, it seemed hardly possible that any team could finish the year without losing at least one game. Saturday's games make the chance no better.

Ohio Plays Spectacular

Neither Illinois nor Ohio looks at present like a winner of all of the remaining games. Illinois has shown the stronger team of the two in those already played. But Illinois did not play as well against Minnesota or against Michigan as it did against Iowa. It is true that every team has its off-days. It is also true that a team may round into form too soon in the season. Illinois has a hard schedule ahead of it. Chicago, Wisconsin, and Ohio will give any team trouble this fall. Worse than this, from the Illinois point of view, each one of these three teams has a special reason for wishing to win from Illinois this fall.

Ohio has a better schedule ahead of it than Illinois. It plays Michigan on November 6 and Illinois on November 20. Ohio has accordingly but two games to play to Illinois' three and has a week's rest between. But Ohio has not yet shown like a championship eleven. Its last two games have been won in the last few minutes of play. This way of winning a game is very exciting and shows a fine fighting spirit, but it does not leave the impartial spectators very firmly convinced that the successful team is really the better one.

Five Teams May Be in Running

It is foolish at this stage of the game to regard any team as eliminated simply because it has lost one game. Chicago is probably out of it, not because of Saturday's defeat, but because of injuries to valuable men in the backfield. If Chicago goes through without another defeat, it will be by a combination of splendid fighting and remarkable luck. No team in the Conference will fail to fight but no team can have luck on demand.

Indiana is also hardly to be counted in the championship race, not because of its defeat by Iowa but because of the fact that it plays but four Conference games, and two of those against teams that have been among the weaker ones in the past. But Michigan and Wisconsin have as much right to be counted in the running as Illinois and Ohio. And, if Chicago can stall along until its men get back it must be counted.

Iowa at Disadvantage

Iowa looks better than any team it has yet to play. Ames and Minnesota

A SANE ELECTION

Almost everybody in the University can remember election days that were riots of banners, parades, speeches, button-holing and intoxication. It is a safe prophecy that today's demonstrations, if any demonstrations at all mark the balloting, will be of a more quiet order.

This seems encouraging. It indicates a more sober consideration of the occasion. The Italian minister of education, Benedetto Croce, something of a poet and art critic, is reported to have recommended that the six hundredth anniversary of the death of Dante be observed by careful reading and reflection on the works of the great poet. This, in a time of some economic stress, seemed an idea that had a general sprinkling of good sense.

In the same way, celebration of the day on which a man is elected to the chief executive position of the United States, seems more sensible without the old fashioned decorations. A sane election day is a saving of money and appears to be conducive to better judgment on the question.

DUTCH

More holiday spirit flutters around a circus parade than around an opera. Perhaps it is because at the parade every one stands on the same financial footing. The man in the limousine and the one with the street brush have the same advantage.

Naturally there is no possible comparison between the two institutions, the parade and the opera, except on these grounds. With the holiday idea in mind the "Go it Dutch" recommendation of the Homecoming committee, with regard to admission to the barbecue planned for Friday evening, November 12, seems to be a good one.

A Dutch treat bids fair to produce an atmosphere of unrestraint and general good feeling. The barbecue is not a purely social occasion, it is a holiday. Make it a holiday. Go it Dutch.

300 YEARS FROM PLYMOUTH

Centenary celebrations and observations are not too common a thing in our western country. There are not a great many institutions among us whose ages reach beyond the two digit mark.

On December 21 America will be reminded of the landing of a little group of sober-minded religious folk from the Mayflower, off the coast of Massachusetts. That was 300 years ago.

The landing of the Pilgrims seems to be of particular significance to college and university circles. President Wilson in his proclamation of Pilgrim's Day, says:

"Especially do I recommend that the day be fittingly observed in the universities, colleges, and schools of our country, to the end that salutary and patriotic lessons from the fortitude and perseverance and the ideals of this little band of church men and women who established on this continent the first self-determined government based on the great principle of just law and its equal application to all, and thus planted the seeds from which has sprung the mighty nation."

December 21 is only a few weeks in the future, and it seems not too soon to begin to think at least casually of some fitting observance of Pilgrim's Day.

Now that cold weather passes a clammy palm down one's spine and sends one shivering down the street humped up like an animated question mark, one looks for the disappearance of ladies' furs.

The name given the general subject for this year is "Goat Feathers," a phrase taken from an article in the American magazine by Ellis Parker Butler. The name signifies the things with which people adorn themselves and have no practical value, such as honorary offices with no duties attached.

Last year these groups discussed campus problems with such definite results that their findings were recommended to the presidents of the other campus organizations and helped to bring about the establishment of the new point system, and suggested other important changes.

ERO-IRVING JOINT TONIGHT Erodelphian and Irving literary societies will have a joint program tonight at 7:30 p. m. in Close hall. The program will include: piano solo by Marion Briery A4, dance by Miss Anne Boillin, instructor in the department of physical education for women, reading by Marian Edman A2, fancy dance by Lue Pjrentiss A3 and James Barton A2. The Best Amusement Organization Ever on Tour

Coming to the Englert Theatre

Iowa City -- 1 Night

Monday, November 15

In announcing Guy Bates Post and his excellent company as the best amusement organization ever placed on tour I am only repeating the opinion expressed by every theater manager where this matchless attraction has been presented.

When negotiations began to have Mr. Post REMAIN in the United States during the present season, his Manager, Richard Walton Tully, had already completed arrangements to have Mr. Post and his unusually excellent company appear in Mr. Tully's theater in London in both "Omar the Tent Maker" (his former success) and "The Masquerader," in which Mr. Post has been so phenomenally successful the past four seasons.

The Associated Theater Managers of the United States did not relish the plan of having the two leading Dramatic Attractions, Guy Bates Post and Southern and Marlowe, both absent from America at the same time, and as Mr. Post had but recently toured Australia, it was deemed best to have him tour the United States before making a prolonged run in London and the English Provinces.

The same excellent company that was to have visited London will this season visit the leading cities of the United States, and, excepting for a few minor roles, it is the same company that has presented this unusual success for almost for consecutive and continuous seasons—the same wonderful scenic equipment—with its massive double revolving stages, its two mechanical crews—its triple electrical equipment and inimitable resources that require three mammoth cars to transport, will visit Iowa City, Monday, November 15.

The stage of the ENGLERT THEATRE is large enough to accommodate any attraction that has ever visited this city, BUT THE STAGE MUST BE CLEARED OF EVERY VESTIGE OF HOUSE SCENERY AND PROPERTIES, TO ACCOMMODATE MR. POST'S MASSIVE PRODUCTION.

THE BOX OFFICE WILL BE OPEN FOR REGULAR SALE OF SEATS, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 13.

MAIL ORDERS will be filled in order received now, when accommodated by check or Postoffice money order, together with self-addressed stamped envelope (to avoid error)—add amusement tax of 10 per cent.

The mail orders and advance sale of this unusual attraction will undoubtedly be the largest in the history of the theater and we earnestly suggest early application for seats. Prices are—Boxes $3.50; Main Floor, 21 rows at $3.00; Balance Main Floor $2.50; First 2 rows of Balcony $3.00; Next 3 rows $2.50; Next 5 rows $2.00; Last 2 rows $1.00.

have shown improvement over their work earlier in the season. Both will give Iowa a hard battle, but neither looks like a good team as yet. Northwestern has shown that it could fight and that it has a better team than was expected at the first of the season. But it is not as good as Indiana, and Iowa has beaten Indiana. Furthermore Northwestern has shown no improvement since its unexpected victory over Minnesota. It seems to have played its best then and to have nothing better left.

Iowa is likely, therefore, to finish the season without further defeats. It is but fair to remember, however, that Iowa is at a disadvantage in that it has been compelled to show its strength earlier in the season than either Minnesota or Ames, who were forced by early disasters to go slowly.

Two interesting upsets occurred in the Missouri Valley Conference, one of them involving Iowa teams. Drake was held to a seven to seven tie by Grinnell, in what must be regarded as a moral victory for the smaller team. Missouri went down in defeat to Oklahoma after the former had been looked on as an almost uncertain champion.

MEN MORE CARELESS VOTERS

Fewer Women Spoil Absent Ballots By Filling Them Out

More spoiled ballots, those filled before being presented to a notary, have been handed in by men than by women according to a report from Della Grizel, notary public and secretary to Robert E. Rienow, dean of men, who has been handling student ballots.

Voters are instructed to return the ballots to the county auditor even though misunderstanding of the provisions has led to their being dead through lack of a notary seal. Voters are advised of a provision of the absent voters' law:

"If any person who, having procured an official ballot or ballots as heretofore provided, shall willfully neglect or refuse to cast or return same in the manner heretofore provided or shall willfully violate any provision of this act, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not to exceed $100, or be imprisoned in the county jail not to exceed thirty days.

"If any county auditor, city or town clerk, or any election officer, shall refuse or neglect to perform any of the duties prescribed by this act, or shall violate any of the provisions thereof, he shall upon conviction be fined not less than $100 nor more than $1000, or imprisoned in the county jail not to exceed ninety days."

LEGION TO GIVE "OH, OH, CINDY"

Musical Comedy Refused by Board Last Year for Y. W. C. A. Will be Presented Nov. 10-11

"Oh, Oh, Cindy", musical comedy which was tabooed by the senate board on dramatics for production by the Y. W. C. A. last year will be given by the Iowa City division of the American Legion at the Engbert theatre, November 10 and 11, according to present plans of the legion.

Last year's objection was on the ground that the comedy was not well suited to production by women. Several men of the University, will be included in the cast and chorus which is expected to total a personnel of 150, it is announced.

Work on the production has begun but the play committee is not yet ready to publish the complete cast of characters.
