CUETITEK TO BE ENFORCED

One man's Credit, To Be Forfeited to All Who Cut Classes

All classes in the university will be suspended Thursday, November 11th, according to an announcement by the Registrar’s office.

The ruling regarding the absence from the last class before vacation by one female student who took this class this session will have the effect of credit for that last attendance at the classes.

ALUMNIUM TO BE OUT THURSDAY

Announcing Edition Will Review Past and Present Stars and Athletes in 36 Pages

Athletic and the Homecoming page will present the second annual edition of the Alumni which will be on sale Thursday night.

Features of athletic event in the past six years will have an important place in the 1889.

Other athletic stories have been contributed by E. L. Balser '22 of La Crescent, Minn., and E. C. Ewan '21 of Minneapolis, and fomf our alumni are formal football players.

Mr. W. L. Law 94 of Watertown, Wis., is the only one of response our concern.

Our annual feature will be devoted to present day activity. Harry E. R. (The Daily Iowa), has written an article on mft's uptight.

Dorothy M. Longhish A, of St. Petersburg, Fla., managing editor of the Daily Iowa, has contributed a short story on women's athletics and public relations.

The following members of O. L. C. will serve: Margaret Hilans, Hilzma Haye, Frances Tave, Florence Ing, Vivian Kline, Frances Dava, Patricia Murrin, Betty Bellof, Margaret Rosell, Beatrice Rose, Ruth Wilson and Martha Sturke.

The Iowa will win from Minnesota next Saturday. There is no question that if Iowa wanted to, it could beat Minnesota.

There is no question that if Iowa wanted to, it could beat Minnesota. The game next Saturday will be at least as close as the game on Saturday.
