A REASON FOR SAVING

What do you want most: work, home? An education? An ability to see yourself next vacation? A winter of travel? Whatever it is you want most—that is a good reason for saving. Make it your goal. Save for its attainment.

Begin now. If you haven’t an account, we will be pleased to have you open one at this bank. Call it your “home account,” “educational account,” “travel account,” or “vacation account” but remember the main thing to keep in mind is to deposit regularly, consistently. Stick to it and win.

Personal Attractiveness

A NON-ELECTIVE COURSE

Just as you strive for the finest expression in art, poetry, art, etc., you want in reality your finest expression in personal attractiveness. That you want to be charming, pleasing, and loved by those around you.

But while you are acquiring an education do not overlook that all-important subject which every woman must know. Whatever her social status, every woman should have an education in coo...

COURSES AND GRIDIRON MIXED

Preceding week's issue of the Frivol, the Saturday evening program at the University's homecoming game will be presented by a Homecoming committee staff. The magazine also contains many humorous features.

FRESHMEN AND SOPHOMORE GIRLS BOTH WIN GAMES

Two honors went to the women on the freshman and sophomore classes at the games between the two classes during the season. The two scores for the freshmen and sophomores close the season when the freshman soccer team and the sophomore field hockey team played off with the highest scores at the games between the two classes in the women's athletic field.

The lineup for the freshman soccer team was: Claire Appleton of Lost Nation, Freda Allard of Waterloo, Josephine Daws of Council Bluffs, Ruth Dale of Decorah, and Grace Baldy of Earlham.

The lineup for the sophomore field hockey team was: Pearl Spence of Des Moines, captain; Eleanor Huntley of Yankee, Lois Burns of Hartley, Lois Stake of Urbana, Lois Conover of Montezuma, Almeda Watkins of Columbus Junction, Helen Copeland of Ankeny, and Helen Starbuck.
