STEINER SEES AMERICA YET IN ITS YOUTH

University Lecturer Compares New Country With Dying Empires Of The Old World

AMERICA DEATHLESS HE SAYS

Immigration Authority Holds That Western Civilization Must Develop Sources of Youth — Should Not Fear Adventures of Spirit—Economic Security for Masses Needed

Youthfulness in American society was accounted for and compared with the age of Europe in a lecture on "The Elements of Youth in American Life", by Prof. Edward A. Steiner, sociologist and immigration authority, at the natural science auditorium last evening.

Professor Steiner said, "In comparison with the dying empires of Europe, America is young in body and mind. Its youth is due, first of all to the fact that here mankind is nearer the point of universal well being than anywhere else. Secondly, because we are the children of the pioneers, who moved to the frontier line and created and recreated new social units.

Leisure Class a Danger

"Thirdly, because we are not too far removed from the steerage, which brought us here, crude, half-barbaric material, which retarded progress, and also kept us from decay. Fourthly because America is religiously minded and therefore improvable."

The lecturer enlarged upon the fact that no nation is safe, unless there is great economic security for the masses. Bolshevism, he holds, is humanity in despair, having lost faith in laws and government. It is a moral insanity due to the brooding of mankind over its hopelessness.

The danger in America from the loss of the pioneer spirit and the growth of a leisure class, he believes to be great and the maintenance of a democratic spirit in industry and education was stressed.

Need Freedom From Materialism

"Religion must be something more than nationalism. It is the spirit carried beyond national boundaries. It is the expansion of loyalty. It must preach and practice the sacredness of personality, and the supreme value of life. It must combat ruthless industrialism as well as imperialism at the expense of personality," Professor Steiner said.

"America is deathless if it will develop its sources of youth and not be afraid of the adventure of the spirit," he said. "America needs to be liberated both from the materialism of capital and the materialism of labor. Above all it must integrate all its human forces and learn how to practice the doctrine of the brotherhood of men."

WOMEN SHOW HOW TO WALK

W. A. A. and Y. W. To Bring Comic Film to Strand Theater

Films on "How to Walk" will be shown at the Strand theater December 6, 7, and 8, under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. and W. A. A., according to Mary McCord A3 of Des Moines, Y. W. C. A. business manager.

The films are for educational purposes and will be shown with the regular pictures scheduled for those days. Tickets will be sold for 35 cents by the members of the two organizations, and twenty-five per cent of the proceeds will go to the Y. W. C. A. and W. A. A. evenly, according to the decision of the joint committee.

"I have seen the picture and it shows how to improve the feet of the whole family in a story that is as funny as any comedy," said Jean Spiers A4 of Reinbeck, president of W. A. A.

WATSON IS MADE BIG OFFER SAYS MADAME RUMOR

Rumors are abroad that Coach Jack Watson, Iowa's veteran trainer and track coach is to leave Iowa with the expiration of his present contract with the athletic board on June next. It seems that Dartmouth which has long been aching to attach "Jack" to their coaching staff, has made Dr. Watson such a flattering offer that it is causing him to think it over.

When interviewed on the rumor, Dr. Watson refused to commit himself but jokingly stated that he was still here. Iowa athletes, however, are very much disturbed over the rumor and several are already circulating petitions to the athletic board urging them that no stone be left unturned to keep "Jack" at Iowa.

SPECIAL TRAIN TO CARRY FANS

Railroad Company Asks Guarantee of 125 Passengers To Ames For Saturday's Game

Arrangements for a football game between Cedar Rapids and Sioux City high schools to be played at Ames as a curtain raiser for the Iowa-Ames football game next Saturday has increased the possibility of a special train being provided by the Chicago and Northwestern railway from Cedar Rapids Saturday.

A guarantee of 125 passengers is required by the railroad company. A canvass of Cedar Rapids was made yesterday to determine whether or not the required number would be furnished from there, but no report of the result has been received. If the required number is not guaranteed there, it is expected that the number of Iowa students who make the trip will more than make up for the difference.

If a special is used it will probably leave Cedar Rapids at about eight o'clock Saturday morning and will arrive in time for the Cedar Rapids-Sioux City game which is scheduled to start at twelve o'clock. It will leave Ames after the game and arrive at Cedar Rapids in time to catch the last interurban for Iowa City.

Provision for the transportation of the students from here to Cedar Rapids in time to catch either the special or the regular train, which leaves at about 8:25 a. m., will be made.

PROFESSOR HAYS' SOLOS PLEASED WEBSTER CITY

Professor William E. Hays of the department of music has received very high praise for his singing in the cantata "Hiawatha's Wedding Feast," given by the Choral society of the Congregational church of Webster City last Wednesday evening. Professor Hays sang the solo, "On-aw-ay! Awake, Beloved!"

The Daily Freeman-Journal of Webster City has stated: Professor Hays' voice is a true, clear, mellow tenor of vibrant quality and his singing is without effort and free from affectation.

Professor Hays also sang a group of four songs from the "Wigwam and Teepee" by Cadman. They were: "The Place of Breaking Light", "From the Long Rom of the Sea," "Ho, Ye Warriors on the Warpath," and "The Thunderbolts Come from the Cedars."

FOREIGN STUDENTS WILL BE ENTERTAINED BY Y. CABINET

All men foreign students of the University have been invited to attend a social mixer given by the Y. M. C. A. council at the Y. M. C. A. building this evening at 7:30 p. m.

It is expected that about fifty will attend. The purpose of the mixer is to get the foreign students and the members of the Y. M. C. A. council acquainted with each other. It is planned to have the entire cabinet and council of fifty members present.

CANDIDATES TO FILE PETITIONS IN IOWAN ROOM

Social Committee Aspirants Names to Be Printed in Student Daily One Week Before Election

SIX TONIGHT IS THE DEADLINE

Each Petition Must Have Thirty-five Names—Must Be Approved by Entrant—Six Winners to Share Expenses of the Election—Voter May Vote for Six Names on Ballot

Petitions of candidates for the University social committee must be left at the Daily Iowan office, room 14 L. A., not later than 6 o'clock tonight, according to Vern M. Myers, chairman of the committee in charge of the election of the six members to the University social committee. "It is necessary, according to the constitution on social organizations and affairs, to publish the names of the candidates in the Daily Iowan at least a week previous to the election," said Myers, "so it is imperative that the petitions be turned in as soon as possible in order that there will be no delay in holding the election."

The following form is required for each petition: "We the undersigned hereby present (name) (college) as a senior or junior candidate for election to the social committee." Signatures of thirty-five people are required and the petition must be signed and approved by the candidate.

A student is entitled to vote for six candidates or any lesser number, provided that he does not vote for more than three candidates from the same class. Thus, a student could not vote for four seniors and two juniors or vice-versa. Failure to observe this rule will make all such ballots absolutely void. "The six candidates who are elected will share equally the expenses of the election," said Myers, "however the expenses will not be very heavy."

Members of the committee in charge of the election are: Vern M. Myers L3 of Fort Dodge, chairman; Edgar P. Hoffman A4 of Ida Grove; Robert L. Luscumbe S4 of Iowa City; William A. McNichols M4 of Rockwell City.

According to the constitution on social organizations and affairs, the chairmanship of committee in charge of the election shall rotate each year in accordance with the seniority of the colleges. Liberal arts, being the first college founded, had the chairmanship last year. This year the representative from the law college is chairman and next year the representative from the college of medicine will be chairman.

SEVENTY MEN ON MAT SQUAD

Schroeder Gives Second Call for Mat Team Material

Over seventy men reported to Ralph Parcaut, Iowa's new wrestling coach, for preliminary instruction in response to the second call for wrestlers given out by Ernest G. Schroeder, director of physical education for men.

Coach Parcaut was very well pleased with the interest that is being manifested and said, "If the interest continues, we'll have a winning team this year that will make a conference record."

Classes Will Be Arranged

Classes will be arranged for practically every hour of the day to enable all men to get Mr. Parcaut's personal instruction. The freshman and varsity teams will be coached separately.

Any man who wishes to make either the varsity or freshman teams should report to E. G. Schroeder, director of the department of physical training.

Coach Parcaut, will meet Walter O'Connor of Carroll, Iowa, here this evening in a finish match. The contest will take place at the Englert theatre and will be the best two out of three falls.

NEW MAT COACH

Ralph Parcaut, the world's middle weight champion, who will attempt to mold a champion wrestling squad at Iowa this year.

PARNHAM HEADS SOPH COTILLION

Eleven Men of Five Colleges Are Appointed On Committee By Locke

George L. Parnham of Des Moines has been appointed chairman of the sophomore cotillion party by Gordon C. Locke of Denison, president of the sophomore class. Eleven men representing five colleges of the University have been named on the committee.

"Great care and consideration has been taken to secure a representative committee," said Locke. The first arrangements as to the time and place of the cotillion will be decided at a meeting of the committee to be held tonight, according to Locke.

The following persons were named on the committee: George L. Parnham of Des Moines, William J. Wheelan of Rock Island, Ill., Robert Pettit of Osage, Fred M. Lorenz of Des Moines, Robert J. Nelson of Clinton, James L. Byrnes of Canton, S. Dak., Murray D. Smith of Winterset, Arnold C. Naeckel of Davenport, Gale B. Esslinger, engineer of Sheffield, Max Kadesky dentist, of Dubuque, Emmett V. Kenefick, medicine of Eagle Grove, and Harry A. Grant, law, of Sioux Falls, S. Dak.

SWIMMERS ARE TAKING DAILY WORKOUT UNDER ARMBRUSTER

Varsity and freshmen swimmers are having daily workouts under the coaching of David A. Armbruster. Keen competition for positions on the varsity team is anticipated because of the material that is turning out. Thirty-five men are reporting for varsity; but there is still a need of men for the back-stroke according to Coach Armbruster. "There is also a chance for a number of men on the water basketball team. Any man who comes out for the team will be eligible to vote for a captain who must be elected soon." There will be both a varsity team and a frosh squad.

The following last years varsity men are out: Capt. W. A. Anneberg, I. F. Weidlein, Illif Shepherd, E. Rademacher, L. Smith, P. O. D. Vedova, J. P. Mills, R. R. Forney, and Albert D. Cannon, W. Bond.

Twenty men are practicing regularly on the first year team. Some of these men are of the best material and look to be point winners according to Armbruster. Those men who have proven exceptional abilities in the swimming game are: L. R. Stover, W. A. McCullough, J. T. Goltman, J. E. Patrick, F. M. Sorenson, W. F. Speer, and F. M. Lazell.

FOOTBALL GAME CANCELLED

Because of lack of available substitutes for injured men, the football game between the University high school and Iowa City high school team scheduled for Thanksgiving day has been cancelled, according to information given out by Elmer Ritter, principle of the University high school.

LIGHT WORK FOR VARSITY ON EVE OF AGGIE GAME

After Short Scrimmage With Frosh Hawkeys Are Called Off To Run Signals

SECONDS CLASH WITH FROSH

First Team Employs Ames Plays With Some Success—Reports That Cyclones Are Using Ghost Ball Nightly in Practice for Saturday's Game

The Hawks held a short scrimmage with the frosh last night, each team carrying the ball part of the time.

Kinney kicked off to A. Devine who returned 40 yards to the center of the field and from there on all of the backs had a hand in carrying the pigskin over for a touchdown. Ty Smith was at right, Shuttleworth at left and Locke at full.

There was but one kickoff and one touchdown. The teams were then reversed and on the next play a flip from Aubrey to Belding sent the later sprinting to the shadow of the opposite goal where Lovrien overtook him.

Coach Jones then called the varsity off to run signals and lined the second string against the first year men who made a demonstration of much the same caliber as the varsity, tearing off long end runs and deep smashes.

Ty Smith, Jaqua, Rich and Bill Kelly carried the ball down for one touchdown which ended the rough work of the evening. There may be a short scrimmage tonight.

Using Ames plays, the first year team made an occasional gain from the Aggie trick formations against the varsity. Once Miller got free and galloped for a 20 yard gain on a wide end run.

Ames is using the ghost ball nightly in a week of practice that is one of the most severe Doc Paine has handed his athletes this year. All the team is in good condition. Birch, the lineman has an injured knee but will be back in good shape for the game Saturday.

The week for the Aggies is being spent in the development of finer points and some new plays which have been kept under cover so far for especial use against Old Gold.

GRADUATION ROLE SOUGHT

Registrar Hopes to Get Complete List of June Graduates

An attempt to compile a list of June graduates is being made now by H. C. Dorcas, University registrar. The purpose of the early drive for the June graduation role is to check records and determine eligibility to honor societies, according to an announcement from the office of the registrar yesterday. The announcement reads:

All students in the University expecting to receive a degree, or a certificate of the college of education, are requested to call at the registrar's office immediately in order to fill out a card of application for the degree or certificate expected and to spell their names exactly as they wish them printed in their diplomas.

It is necessary that we know immediately the names of all these candidates for degrees and certificates in order:

1. That we may check the records for the purpose of determining the second semester registration.
2. That we may know who are eligible for membership in the various honorary fraternities.
3. That a number of other useful purposes may be served.

FOR STUDENTS

Back in the East where colleges were doing a good business before Iowa was out of the wilderness stage of its development, a certain amount of criticism is thrown at the students of western Universities and colleges for their passive willingness to let administrative officers and faculty members figure in what might be purely student affairs.

Ames in pledging $317,000, has tossed its glove into the arena in the matter of raising money. If Ames has tossed in a glove Purdue has thrown in a carton of mittens.

Why not do something ourselves? We have a Howling 300. We have an O. I. C. We have a Staff and Circle, an A. F. I., Young Men's and Young Women's Christian Associations.

After watching Iowa play against Minnesota one wishes that the team were going to play Illinois or Chicago instead of Ames this week.

The sight of a man wearing an army overcoat is no proof that he served during the war as a soldier.

The fan who mourns the termination of the football season can find some consolation with the thought that the basketball tossers will soon be with us.

About the time a good well meaning snow covers the walks the weather begins to indulge in a springtime reminiscence.

The little pledgee who spent last Friday, Saturday and Sunday sleeping downstairs on the davenport probably is in no particular hurry for another homecoming.

Vanity

I went into a barber shop And sank down in a chair. I had them clip my autumn crop, And "Tonic on the hair."

I felt a glow of gentle pride; My neck was smooth and clean; I loved all mankind, far and wide, And smelled of Danderine.

But while I nursed this vanity, I saw a frownsled neck: A best-dressed youth went breezing by— I want my four bits back.

De Profundis

We have just been figuring how much it costs us to write this column and have come to these conclusions, viz: that we have missed 15 dates; that we had to forgo the pleasure of 46 afternoon movies; that we have given away 156 Camels which, had we not been inside working on the said column, we might have smoked ourselves; that the infinite delight of beating the editor of Frivol a game of pool every afternoon has been sacrificed for the good of the column; that we have been forced to cut 19 classes; that the pleasure of writing an editorial every day has been passed over; and above all we no longer can indulge in our favorite pleasure—doing absolutely nothing.... But you ask: "If the column does you no good why write it?"

COLLEGE PRESS

University of Kansas—Homecomers at the University of Kansas were informed as to points of interest on the campus by a four page pamphlet entitled "K. U. High Lights". A map of the campus was also included.

Colorado Agriculture College—Two vocational students at the Colorado agriculture college were arrested recently for chasing a grasshopper down a main thoroughfare. The insect crossed the path of the students while on their way to class and was pursued. An automobile in which an officer of the law was riding was nearly overturned in the chase and the offenders were taken in charge on a complaint of criminal mischievousness.

McGill University — Twenty-five men turned out for the fencing team at the Canadian school.

Arizona—The freshmen at the University of Arizona are organizing a council which is to train them for work as upperclassmen, and to conserve the spirit they brought from their high schools.

MISS BERTHA CONDE SPEAKS ON "STUDENTS OF THE WORLD"

Miss Bertha Conde of the national board of Y. W. C. A. spoke to the University women and women of Iowa City in the natural science auditorium last night at 4 o'clock on the subject of "Students of the World."

Miss Conde had a good opportunity to study the students of the world this summer when she attended a conference of the World's Student Christian Federation at Geneva, Switzerland. Delegates from thirty-seven nations of the world were present at this meeting to decide upon a standard for students of the world. They decided to adopt the principle of helping others.

Miss Conde says that the most part of the Christian world is extremely pale and anaemic and, in comparison the Americans looked outrageously well. In Switzerland the students are wondering where their food is coming from. "It is a weary half-starved world as far as the students are concerned," said Miss Conde. The colleges and universities are filled with maimed men and the universities of France are made up mostly of cripples. Even Oxford and Cambridge are suffering.

Compared to the students of America the students of Europe are tremendously earnest intellectually. Miss Conde believes that right now America is the most envied nation in the world on account of our wonderful opportunities. She said that without a doubt the students of Austria are in the most deplorable condition of those of any nation in the world.

Miss Conde has traveled extensively in America, Europe and the Orient, in behalf of social service. She is the author of several books among which are "The Business of Being a Friend" and "The Human Element in the Making of a Christian."

Miss Conde spoke before the members of the Y. M. and Y. W. cabinets at a dinner at the Pagoda last night, and also spoke to the nurses of the University hospital.

Miss Conde left late in the evening for Cornell where she will speak tomorrow. Saturday she will speak at Coe and Tuesday before the members of the City Association in Cedar Rapids. After this she will return to her home in New York. Miss Conde spoke at the University once years ago at a convocation meeting.

COAL SHORTAGE NOT PROBABLE

University Bins Are Well Filled — No Classes to Close

A coal shortage will not be feared by the University this year, according to J. M. Fisk, superintendent of buildings and grounds, as the University bins are well filled at the present time and coal is easier to obtain every day.

Even if there is a shortage similar to the one experienced last year when certain buildings had to be closed, the University will continue to run without trouble, and there is no danger of the faculty having to dismiss classes this winter, said Mr. Fisk.

NEW MEMBERS ARE INITIATED

New members were initiated into the women's athletic association last night at the women's gymnasium. A mock initiation was followed by a stunt program in which two stunts were contributed by new members from each class.

Mary R. Lyons head of the department of physical education for women gave a talk about the advantages of belonging to W. A. A. After an oral quiz given by the officers of the association over the constitution, the new members were formally pledged.

SIGMA TAU SIGMA ADDED THREE CHARTER MEMBERS

F. T. Gilbert A2 of Estherville, Charles S. Roller A2 of North English, and T. D. Peterson have been made charter members of Sigma Tau Sigma, the salesman's fraternity.

The requirements for admission to this fraternity are to sell an amount of merchandise during the summer which nets $1000 or more commission. The insignia of the new fraternity is a key interlocked with a pyramid, and is to be worn on the watch chain.

DEAN TO ENTERTAIN

The office of the dean of women will entertain the chaperones of all the sororities, women's clubs and dormitories of the University at a 6 o'clock dinner, Tuesday, November 23, at Currier hall.
