IOWA MEN MAY NOT DEBATE PRINCETON

The latest indications are that Iowa will not debate Princeton University at Des Moines during the Christmas holidays. "The forensic council were considering the debate and thought it a good plan, until Princeton stated that Iowa would be required to guarantee $300 to the eastern university debaters," said Prof. Edward C. Mable acting head of the public speaking department. "This made their proposition unfavorable and unless Princeton will make more agreeable terms, Iowa will not meet the Princeton team."

PUBLICATION OF COMMERCE CLUB HAS NEW NAME

Lawrence Hertlein A4 of Waverly was chosen editor for the publication edited by the Commerce Club, at a meeting held Wednesday night at 8 o'clock in the Iowa City Commercial Club rooms.

A new name for the publication will be decided upon in the near future according to Clarence W. Griebeling A4 of Newton, president of the Commerce club.

The complete staff is as follows: Lawrence Hertlein, editor; Robert G. Paramore A4 of Hawarden assistant editor; Warren P. Lawrence A4 of Anamosa, business manager; Raymond Peterson, A2 of Kanawha, assistant business manager.

FIELDBALL WON BY SOPHOMORES

Second Year Women Claim Championship Over Freshman In Score 6-3

The sophomore women claim the title of the champion fieldball team of the University when they defeated the upperclass team with a score of 6 to 3 last night.

The game, which was played in the gymnasium on account of the condition of the outdoor field, was divided into 8 minute thirds with the basket ball basket at goal.

C. Pauline Spencer A2 of Des Moines is captain of the winning team. The other members of the team are Frances Dolliver, Callie Buser, Ruth Zorn, Almeda Cutting, Josephine Daus Gladys Taggart, Beatrice McGarvey, Mildred Cotman, Frances Carpenter, and Jeanne Shinabarger.

The members of the upperclass team are Grace Emery A4 captain, Reba Kelly, A3, Anna Carmody A3, Lorna L. Ludwig A3, Helen Hayes A3, Blanche Davis A3, Dorothy O'Donoghue A3, Mary Freeman A3, Jean Spiers A3, Jean Hicklin A4, Frances C. Hungerford A3, and Cecelia M. and Lorena M. Bowen A4.

Josephine Daus made four of the six points for the sophomores and Pauline Spencer made the other two. Anna Carmody made two and Lorena Bowen one of the three for the upperclass women. The game was very even. At the end of the second third the score stood 3 to 3, but the upperclass women failed to score in the last third.

The sophomore-upperclass soccer game which was to have been played last night also, was postponed until sometime next week.

The contest last Monday between the freshmen and sophomore fieldball second teams ended in a score of 11 to 4 in favor of the freshmen, while the sophomore second team beat the freshmen 5 to 2.

During Homecoming the freshmen first team in soccer won the game with a score of 3 to 2, and the sophomore fieldball first team got the long end of a 15 to 8 score.

FRESHMEN AND SOPHOMORE WOMEN START INDOOR WORK

Freshman and sophomore classes in physical education will start their regular in-door work next Monday, November 29. Previous to this the young women have played soccer and fieldball on the athletic field. The in-door floor work and electives, such as basketball, swimming, and heavy apparatus work, will continue until fair weather next spring.

Freshman and sophomore women are required to take three hours of physical training each week, the second year women have the privilege, however, of having one of the electives count for one hour's work. If the freshman chooses to take an elective she must carry it along with her required hours' work, says Miss Marion R. Lyon, head of that department.

DEAN HITS AT COMEDIES AND CHEEK DANCES

Mrs. Aurner Says That Managers Lower Tone of Production for Local Audiences

"CHEEK-TO-CHEEK MUST GO"

Last Appeal Made to Stop Careless Dancing—Popular Dance Will Not Be Tolerated by Social Authorities—Objections are Received—Depends on Students

Cheek to cheek dancing and musical comedies were disapproved by Mrs. Nellie S. Aurner, dean of women in an interview yesterday afternoon.

Dean Aurner appeals again to the student judgement concerning cheek-to-cheek dancing. She said that she had received many complaints against the dancing at Varsity and stated, "If the students will not stop such dancing they will be forced to do so."

Effect Hard to Exaggerate

The Women's Association, in order to establish a proper social standard at its dances, has published and distributed cards asking the cooperation of the dancers in making Varsity above reproach. The cards state that they expect no cheek-to-cheek, and only erect positions in dancing.

Concerning musical comedy, Mrs. Aurner said, "The type of musical comedy at the Englert last year and this year has lowered our moral tone to an extent that it would be hard to exaggerate. I am constantly meeting concrete evidences of this fact. This is one of the great University problems."

Depends on Sentiment

The women of the University could not be prohibited to attend these shows before 10 o'clock, but late leave will be granted for only the plays recommended as being above the average. A list will be posted on the bulletin board at the dean of women's office.

Mrs. Aurner asked the chaperones to explain this situation at the various houses and ask for the cooperation of every University woman. When the time comes that these comedies are not attended by the University students they will not be billed in Iowa City, she believes.

Company managers defend themselves by saying, "Iowa City craves suggestive shows and it will get them," according to Mrs. Aurner. It has been proved that the same show playing in Cedar Rapids the night before appearing here will in all respects pass rigid censorship, but as soon as it comes to Iowa City, it has an entirely different aspect, she said.

WEATHER REPORT

Saturday, November 27—Unsettled to-day. Probably rain or snow.

TWO TEAMS OF MEN PRACTICE IN BASKETBALL

Two sets of teams picked hit-and-miss out of a squad of twenty-eight scrimmaged in basketball at practice in the men's gymnasium last night.

Coach Ashmore has made no attempt to pick a possible varsity team and squad yet. A great many of the aspirants are new material and several who are expected out have not shown up as yet.

So far the squad has not numbered over thirty-five and the athletic department is hopeful of a larger delegation, especially since the coaches say that some of the best material is not out.

The University of Illinois reports a squad of seventy-five practicing nightly. It is the belief of the coaches that Iowa should at least have a squad of fifty considering the relative sizes of the two universities.

MEN AWARDED I-2 NUMERALS

Twenty-three Freshmen on the Football Squad Will Receive 1924 Numerals

Paul X. Smith, A3 of Cherokee; Edmund R. Rich, S2 of Maquoketa; Leland C. White, L1 of Harlan; and John Ty Smith A2 of Marshalltown were awarded the athletic I-2 at a meeting of the athletic board Wednesday night, for football this fall.

Freshmen who will receive numerals for football are: Clifford Anderson A1 of West Branch, Meredith Barrett A1 of Newton, Charles E. Boydston A1 of Knoxville, Ralph W. Berg A1 of Atlantic, Evan Baily P1 of Lewiston, Ill., Fred Colby A2 of Des Moines, Davenport I. Day A1 of Davenport, Herberg Halweg S1 of Lime Springs, Leo J. Kriz A1 of Garner, Leroy E. Kinney S1 of Yankton, S. D.

Reese F. Kiner A1 of Ida Grove, Howard H. Loverien A1 of Humboldt, Alex Lindsay S1 of Davenport, Glen W. Miller A1 of Waterloo, Clarence A. Pangborn S1 of Des Moines, Edward Saggua A1 of Denison, John C. Sammons A1 of Brady, Texas, John P. Tinley A1 of Council Bluffs, Francis A. White A2 of Rolfe, Lawrence J. Williams A2 of Clinton, Joseph Flinn A1 of Denison, Harold Moody S1 of Seattle, Wash and John D. Morrison A1.

The athletic board also announced that sweaters would be given for service in wrestling subject to the recommendation of the coach and consideration of the board.

SNOW AND COLD BRING HOLIDAYS AND CHRISTMAS

A real and constant flurry of snowflakes yesterday seemed to bring the welcome Christmas holiday season easily within that very close three weeks goal point. The moist flakes made the proud fur-garbed co-ed snugly her attractive fur collar. Perhaps as she hurried along scuffing the fast assembling flakes, pleasant thoughts of last year's discarded golashes came drifting to her. And we wonder—will her golashes return as have their last season's companions, the woolen gauntlets and hose?

Janitors at the Old Capitol taking heed of the general snow-storm started the annual erection last night of the old wooden steps at the front of the capitol building. Perhaps the busy student in passing seeing the ominous wooden front began to think of sleigh bells, oyster stews, mistletoe, pretty girls at home and holly. Last week little boys were skating on the ponds, next week we may see them with skis and sleds happy with the diversions offered by the ever whimsical elements.

SOCIAL BALLOT IS LIGHTEST IN VOTING RECORD

With Only Seven Candidates for the Six Positions Competition is Slight

DELAY IN THE L. A. ELECTION

Egan, Nixon, Dean, Teegan, Dethlefs, and Hamilton Get Committee Positions—Hoffman's Illness Slows Liberal Arts Vote—Election Hours 9 to 5 for Others

The student members of the University social committee were elected yesterday in one of the lightest ballots ever cast in an all-University election. The lack of interest was accounted for by the fact that there was very little competition for the six places. Only seven candidates were in the places.

Those elected and the number of votes received were: Juniors, Fred E. Egan L2 of Missouri Valley, 238, Edwin A. Nixon P3 of Burlington 205, Joseph M. Dean S3 of Sioux City 280, seniors, William G. Teegan D4 of Davenport, Robert Dethlefs S4 of Iowa City, and Clarence E. Hamilton L3 of Winterset. Votes were not counted for the seniors since there was no contest.

Ballots were open in the professional colleges from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., but the voting in the college of liberal arts did not start until 2 yesterday afternoon. The delay was caused by the illness of Edgar P. Hoffman A4 of Ida Grove, who was in charge of the liberal arts voting. In the absence of Hoffman, Dean George F. Kay appointed Guerdon D. Parker of Des Moines, junior class president to take charge of the liberal arts voting. Parker said that very little interest was taken by the students, and that only about 75 votes were cast by the college of liberal arts.

Florence V. Beirring A3 of Des Moines, the only liberal arts candidate, ran high until the ballots from the engineering college were counted. She received only nine votes from that college.

The student members elected yesterday will take their offices immediately with the six faculty members of the social committee. The election was made necessary by the declaration that the election held last fall was void.

KEEPING OUT OF PRINT

Chief among little heathens who plant the idol of smartness higher than the god of good sense, is the youth or maid who seems to believe that driving a motor car at top speed over any road or around any curve is the acme of accomplishment.

That they are playing with human life and defying honest laws does not seem to make a jot of difference to these young d'Artagnans of the gas tank who swagger about the drawing room next day telling how they "Opened her up."

But d'Artagnan was not given to rashness just to be counted bold by a cooing young lady, and he normally took chances with himself alone. It might spoil some page one newspaper stories of fatal accidents if these young ladies would discourage rather than applaud unaccountable recklessness.

SOMETHING TO DO

In taking the position of director of the Iowa Memorial Union, Ralph G. Grassfield said that he expected the Union to bear the same relation to the University as a community center does to the city.

To persons interested in University problems this is a cheerful outlook. It is believed that one of the causes of the accused foolishness of college students, and of their certain feeling of unrest at times, is the lack of some constructive work. Acquiring an education often entails the rather irksome duty of blotting up information and theories.

With a Memorial Union putting in practice community policies and encouraging activity of campus organizations, a chance for something concrete to do seems hopefully certain and one cause of undergraduate unrest can expect to lessen.

THE UPKEEP

I stride into a barber shop
And thought to spend a dime.
A negro lightly taped my feet:
I said, "I'll have a shine."

He went to work all all the while
I studied his attire,
His tie and shirt were both of silk-
(The tie as red as fire.)

With army hob-nail I was shod
He wore the nifty brogan.
In truth his pants were tailor made
Patched were the one's I strode in.

But when he lit a Garcia Grande
I puffed my hod in sorrow.
I said to-day he gives the Tip
For I'll shine mine tomorrow!

After unsuccessfully attempting to get his hair cut just as he wanted it, our editor waxes critical and makes a few speculations regarding the boyhood of all barbers. "As children," he says, "they were very nice but could never learn to do as they were told."

STUDENT MAIL KEEPS LOCAL OFFICE BUSY WITH DELIVERY

Student mail in Iowa City averages as high as 10,000 pieces a day. This number does not include the special delivery letters received, nor the enormous number of parcel post packages, both incoming and outgoing. These are many because of the student laundry and boxes of "eats". Over half of the work at the Iowa City post office is directly or indirectly on account of students.

Every Sunday morning 250 special delivery letters are delivered to students in Iowa City. Three messenger boys are kept busy all morning delivering them. An average of ninety are delivered every day. Of all the specials received at Iowa City two-thirds are for students.

Besides the specials received, every student gets an average of two pieces of mail every day. These include letters, circulars, post cards, papers, and magazines. William J. Bailey, superintendent of mail in Iowa City, said, "About five or ten carriers are kept busy delivering student mail. Approximately 10,000 pieces of student mail are delivered in Iowa City every day."

In addition to the mail received, there are about 3,000 parcel post packages incoming every day. About one-seventh of this is laundry. A great deal of it is flowers and candy. In case the person to whom perishable parcel post is addressed can not be found, it is sent to the University hospital. The biggest bulk of the outgoing parcel post packages is laundry. There are fifteen hundred students who send their laundry home every week. Most of these packages go out Friday or Saturday so that on those days the post office must have extra help to handle what they call the "Laundry rush."

Very few C. O. D. packages are received for the students. When they do come, few are accepted. One student answered a fake advertisement which read "Write for our full sized jar of freckle cream and it will be sent immediately. Send no money." When it came C. O. D. she sent it back.

As to the effect students have on mail in Iowa City. Mr. Bailey said, "The students increase our work fifty percent. The fact that most of them are away from home, makes their mail heavier than it would otherwise. Also they increase the town mail. They speed up business. The people have more money to spend when students are here and consequently write more letters."

One thousand students never leave their addresses at the post office. As a result forty unclaimed letters go to the dead letter office and 120 are returned to the sender every week. Many letters are simply addresses to some person "In care of the State University of Iowa." Many others are incorrectly addressed. A special delivery letter was received addressed to a certain person at a certain street and number. When delivered there, the right person could not be found. He had not left his address at the post office so his letter was returned. Three days later it came back with a slight change in the address and was finally delivered. The carrier who delivered it said, "If that man had taken two minutes to leave his address at the post office he would have received his letter three days earlier." Mr. Chas. S. Wieneke, assistant postmaster, urges everyone who wants his mail delivered to notify the post office as to his correct address. "I don't know why it is that students refuse to do this," he said, "Perhaps it is because they think that they are so important that we know where they live. We send out slips the first of every school year and make every effort to get everyone's address, but there are always a large number which we do not get."

Human Interest Material

For the 1922 HAWKEYE

While the spring of the year rolls around again and you think of good old vacation days—no more studying, no more cramming for exams,—there is one day, and that day finally comes, when the HAWKEYE is distributed. That is the time when you are going to get a..... shock.

You will see people looking through the pages of the 1922 HAWKEYE with the breathless interest of relatives listening to the reading of a will, or the interest of the fan with the bags full and Babe Ruth at bat,—with the interest with which everyone reads that which deeply concerns him.

The numerous features will not be the product of one person, but the keen, clever, inside material gathered by everyone at this school. Athletic dope will be real peppery stuff written by those who know the art. And that Scene Section—"Different?—Well, we'll say as different as a ham actress compared with the American Beauty—Norma Talmadge—as refined in its treatment as a painting by Corot, and with the touch of real sentiment that tugs at the heart-strings, and makes one wish that college days never ended.

Thought, skill, and refined tastes are working hand in hand in the planning of this wonderful book. If you are halting back any human interest material, come over and whisper it to us. A great HAWKEYE can only be built by everyone putting their shoulder to the wheel.

QUAD LECTURES CHOSEN

Yceum Course at Men's Dormitory to Start Sunday

The list of lectures and subjects for the Quadrangle lyceum course, which will start this Sunday, is now complete, according to Ben W. Robinson, president of the Quadrangle association. The program is as follows: November 28, "What Is Success?" by Prof. C. W. Wassam; December 5, "The Effect of Betting on School Spirit," by Prof. Edward H. Lauer; "Work," by Prof. George W. Stewart, January 9, "The Outlet of Religious Ideals," by Prof. George W. Stewart; January 16, "The Choice of a Life Work," by Prof. C. O. Ruggles; January 30, "A Budget of Expenditures," by Prof. Arthur C. Trowbridge; February 13, "How to Use Sunday," by Prof. Robert B. Wylie; January 20, "The Value of Intimate Friendships," by Prof. Bohumil Shimek; January 27, "What a Man May Expect From the University," by Dean George F. Kay; and March 6, "A Budget of Time," by President Walter A. Jesup.

The plans for the Quadrangle discussion groups have also been finished according to Mr. Robinson. There will be about nine groups of ten or twelve men each, the purpose of which will be to discuss the talks of the previous Sunday.

The Sunday group meetings will be under the direction of leaders from among the older men. The leaders, as announced by Mr. Robinson, are as follows: Harley W. Chandler, G of Athen, Pa.; Floyd S. Harper, G of Newberry, Mich.; H. A. Idles, G; Paul McKee, G of Canton, Ill.; Ralph Noyer, G of Kearney, Nebr.; James V. O'Leary, G of Appleton, Wis.; Robert Preston, M1 of Cedar Rapids; Ben W. Robinson, G of Cedar Falls; and Frank E. Thomson, S1 of Davenport.

SIX WOMEN RIDE FREE

University Students Elude the Train Detectives, Going to Chi

Columbus, O.: The co-ed hobo! From observations made on the special train to Chicago, woman excelleth in this new role as she is said to excell in all things. Six co-ed stow-aways made the trip, five of them without detection. The sixth was enabled to make the trip through the contributions of the gentleman passengers.

Smuggled beneath the Pulman seats with cuspidors and traveling bags piled around the openings by their obliging friends, the five co-eds held their breath while the train detectives searched the cars. And when they had passed by, they wiggled nimbly out, pulled tiny vanity cases from somewhere and powdered their noses gave their hair a few pats, smoothed out their dresses and calmly settled down to enjoy their free ride.

The male "bums" were not so fortunate on their way to the Windy City. The detectives pulled them out by tens from beneath the seats, but always behind them were some spirited students taking up a collection to pay their fare. Those who successfully eluded the detectives were those hidden in the baggage racks in the day coaches.
