Alumni Organizations To Finance Entertainments To Be Held Throughout States

A. F. I. IS BACKING MOVEMENT

First Meeting to be Held at Waterloo Next Thursday — Aubrey Devine and Coach Jones to Attend all Banquets—Kaufmann, Belding, and Rath Will Each Attend One

The first of a series of banquets to be given to high school athletes throughout the state under the auspices of A. F. I., honorary senior men's society, will be held at the Russell Lamson hotel in Waterloo, Thursday, December 9, according to Harold Chamberlain, A. F. I. 1917, who has had charge of the arrangements for the banquets.

Similar entertainments will be held at Cedar Rapids December 10, at Mason City December 15, at Fort Dodge December 27 or 28 and possibly at Davenport and Sioux City later in the year.

Arrangements have been made to have the alumni organizations of the different cities give the banquets to the athletes of their cities for the purpose of interesting them in attending the University of Iowa. Speakers from the University will attend all of the meetings. The plans are to have Coach Howard H. Jones and Captain-elect Aubrey A. Devine of the football team attend all of the banquets. Captain Robert J. Kaufmann of the basketball team will attend the Cedar Rapids banquet and will speak to the men there. Gordon B. Rath who won an I in football this year will attend the Waterloo meeting and Lester E. Belding, end on the football team will attend the banquet at Mason City.

A set of pictures of the football team will be exhibited at all of the banquets and in the store windows of the towns where the banquets are held. A collection of footballs and basketballs with the scores of the Iowa football and basketball victories painted on them will also be exhibited in the various cities.

ATMOSPHERE OF ORIENT TO MARK CHINESE TEA

The Chinese women of the University will give a tea this afternoon in the liberal arts drawing room from 3 to 6 o'clock for the benefit of the famine relief in China.

The entertainment will consist of Chinese music and singing. Cakes and liches will be served in Chinese fashion. Jasmine and Rose tea will be served by Sioh-Ging Sarah Fong, Ngai-Chen Kih, Wen-Ying Kwan, Teh-Fang Djou, and Willa Sang.

The fancy fans, embroidered articles, slippers, and packages of tea which will be on exhibit will be for sale. These articles will make unique Christmas gifts. Elaborate Chinese wearing apparel will also be on exhibit.

The Chinese women are giving this tea to raise funds to assist in the relief of the 40,000,000 Chinese people who are starving owing to a failure of crops through the lack of rain. Some 1000 persons are dieting every day.
The existing living conditions are deplorable. A flood has swept over the two southern provinces while in the north, winter has set in. Many of the sources of drinking water has been contaminated by the starving victims drowning themselves in the rivers.

According to Chiang Lui G. 125 tickets have been sold for the tea.

WEATHER FORECAST

Unsettled weather.

FIRE RESULTS IN BIG LOSS TO CITY MERCHANTS

Fire starting in the back of L. J.
Benda's grocery, 129 S. Dubuque, last night at 7:20, and barely under control at 9:30 last night, damaged merchandise estimated at $25,000 or more, in the Odd Fellows building. Principal damage was from smoke.

Smoke was detected by a pasersby, Ben Whitebook, an employee of Glass-man's grocery, who turned in the alarm from the Glassman store. The fire department arrived at the building in a few minutes.

Firemen were handicapped in fighting the fire because there was no opening at the rear of the Benda store. Smoke soon spread to adjacent stores, Henry Louis' Pharmacy at 124 E. College, the Women's Exchange north of Benda's, and the Citizens' Savings and Trust Company.

Upper floors of the three story Odd Fellows building were badly affected by the smoke. The second floor is the Odd Fellows' club room.

On the third floor is the Odd Fellows' hall. Office rooms compose the rest of the building. They are those of the Boston Piano and Music Co., and Hartman's Abstract Co.

Mr. Benda estimated his stock and fixtures to amount to $16,000 with insurance of $11,000. Mr. Louis estimated his loss through smoke at $7,- 000, early last night.

Robert Gill, the janitor and custodian of the building was at lunch at the time the alarm was sent in.
When he left the building in the early evening he said that he had detected no smoke.

ACTORS PLAY IN BOONE TONIGHT

University Players Will Make Second Appearance in Newton On Saturday

Cancellation of the production of "Her Husband's Wife" in Cedar Rapids Wednesday night has been accompanied by assurance of success in both Boone and Newton where the Players expect to appear.

Ruth Rogers, field secretary of the Memorial Union, has been in Boone organizing the alumni there in order to make the presentation a success and to gain support for the Memorial Union campaign. She reports that the situation there is very favorable and points to a strong support of the production.

The cast for the play left yestreday afternoon for Boone where the play will be presented tonight. Arrangements have been made for a dinner, preceding the play, for the members of the cast and the Alumni Association at which speeches will be made in the interests of the Memorial Union.

Ralph G. Grassfield, director of the Iowa Memorial Union campaign, went to Boone from Cedar Rapids, after completing the cancellation of the production there Wednesday, in order that he might be able to have all necessary arrangements for the production completing the cancellation of the that the situation in Newton, where the Players will appear Thursday night, December 9, is very favorable and warrants high hopes of success.

JUNIOR ENGINEERS WILL SPEAK AT MEETING TODAY

The Iowa State University chapter of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers will hold a meeting at 7 p. m. Friday, December 6, in room 21 physics building. The program will consist of three speeches by members of the junior class of electrical engineers. Marcus S. Carlson of Belle Plaine will give a talk on "Air Craft Radio," Willis L. Hogan of Iowa City will discuss "The Oxy-acetylene Process in Cutting Steel," and Everett H. Hart of Stanwood will talk on "The New Canadian Niagara Power Project."

MURPHY MADE PRESIDENT OF SENIOR CLASS

Head of All-University Seniors Elected at Meeting of College Class Presidents

YEAR'S WORK IS STARTED

First Meeting of Executives Held Last Night — Hoffman Named Vice President — Cannon Secretary and Treasurer — Hop Committee Not Appointed

Wier M. Murphy L3 of Sioux City was elected president of the association of senior presidents at a meeting held in Old Capitol committee room last night.

Edgar P. Hoffman A4 of Ida Grove was elected vice president, and William W. Cannon D4 of Elma, secretary and treasurer.

The presidents discussed the constitution of the association and made plans for the future meetings of the organization. This association will select the senior hop committee and the various senior graduation committees, but took no action on the appointments last night. The date for the next meeting was not decided upon but it will be some time during the next two weeks.

The president of the all-senior association for last year was Edward L.
O'Connor who was graduated from the college of law and is now a practicing attorney in Iowa City.

The association was formed last year, for the purpose of making possible a closer cooperation between the seniors of the University from the various colleges.

CHRISTMAS SEAL SALE IN CHARGE OF Y. W. C. A.

Women of the Y. W. C. A. are to have charge of the Iowa Tuberculosis association Christmas seal sale which begins Wednesday, December 8, in the halls of the various colleges of the University. Last year the seals were sold in connection with organizations, sororities, fraternities, Currier Hall and the Quadrangle. Only $65 was raised in the University last year, $.57 of which was raised at the Quadrangle. Dr. Mary K. Heard of the committee in charge of the University sales, says this was the result of poor campaign organization.

Sixteen women will be stationed in the liberal arts building and four each in the colleges of dentistry, law, medicine, and engineering. "If every student," says Dr. Hurd, "would buy twenty-five seals, at the price of a movie or a package of cigarette, the University could raise over $1000.

In previous years these seals have been sold in connection with the Red Cross but this year they have turned over the entire sale to the Iowa Tuberculosis Association. Last year the net proceeds in Johnson County were $1030.98. The Social Service League of Iowa City under the direction of Mrs. O. I. Chaffee received $434.43 to fight tuberculosis in the county and the remaining sum was turned over to the Iowa Tuberculosis Association for work in the state at large.

WORK ON NEW ARMORY STOPS UNTIL SPRING

Work has been abandoned on the new armory across the river until next spring. Lack of funds makes the completion of the building impossible before that time. The exterior is now nearly complete, except part of the roofing on the towers along the sides.
Nearly all the windows are in and the main court is entirely enclosed.
The heating equipment will not be installed this fall, and the building will not be used until spring.

Unless further funds are granted by the state legislature, the building will not be completed as planned and the front will be left off. An appropriation of $125,000 was made by the legislature for the construction of the building, but owing to increased wages and higher prices of materials, this amount has proven inadequate.

Lieut. Col. Morton C. Mumma, head of the military department, said that the armory will not be used this winter for military purposes.
Without heat the center court cannot be used for drill, and the store rooms cannot be used as the roofs over them are not finished.

If sufficient funds are appropriated by the legislature during the winter, work will be resumed early in the spring and the two story front will be constructed as previously planned. J. M. Fisk, superintendent of grounds and buildings, who is in charge of the construction of the armory, recently said that he expected and hoped for an extension of the funds already appropriated, and that he is pushing the work as fast as possible with the limited funds available.

TENOR TO SING GERMAN SONGS

Meader Has Own Ideas On Effective Translations—To Appear Here
Tuesday Evening

In spite of the difficulty of securing translations for songs, George Meader who gives a recital here in the natural science auditorium Tuesday evening, December 7, at 8.15 has decided to sing on his program a few of the songs for which he has found suitable translations. While in Europe Mr. Meader made a reputation as a singer of German lieder and particularly as an interpreter of the songs of Brahms. He will include four of these German songs on his program here next week.

Mr. Meader believes that translations require a certain combination of musical and poetic gifts which are many times lacking in English translations. However, he has at last found a few English arrangements for several of the songs which he feels that he ought to sing, says Mrs.
Philip G. Clapp.

Besides these translations Mr.
Meader's program will include both modern and classical songs. Also one of his numbers will be a song by Dent Mowry which is dedicated to Mr.
Meader. This will be the first time that the selection has ever been sung.

Mr. Meader, although an American, did not make his first appearance in this country until last spring, when a New York recital placed him in the columns of the metropolitan critics. The present, therefore is the singer's first recital tour in his native country, although he has had seasons of successful work abroad.

FOUR CROSS COUNTRY MEN ELIGIBLE FOR CAPTAINCY

The cross country team has not yet elected a captain for the season of 1921. Of this year's team, Peterman, Ristine, Miller and Benjegerdes are eligible for the honor.

Although Iowa did not win either of her dual runs this fall the season is not considered a failure.

BIG TEN COACHES TO MAKE PLANS AT CONVENTION

Games With Minnesota, Indiana And Illinois Are Certain—But Dates Are Uncertain

JONES TO MEETING SATURDAY

Meeting in Chicago To Settle Main Points of Differences Which is How Many Games Shall Each Team Play —Williams and Stagg Favor Seven—Yost of Michigan Favors Eight

What games will be scheduled for the University of Iowa when conference coaches convene at the Auditorium hotel in Chicago, December 4, is still something of a conjecture.

Games with Minnesota, Indiana, and Illinois are already scheduled although dates are still tentative. Indiana and Illinois will play here and Iowa will go to Minneapolis for the Minnesota game.

There is a possibility of eight games next fall and it is understood that Coach Jones, who represents Iowa at the conference, favors the addition of a game. Opinions of coaches from the various universities differ. Stagg of Chicago, it is understood, favors the seven game schedule as does Williams of Minnesota, while Yost of Michigan wants an extra game.

To Decide Homecoming Game

There is a great deal of discussion among students and alumni as to the advisability of continuing the Iowa-Ames game as the homecoming game.

Coach James N. Ashmore expressed no opinion on the subject but admitted there was a tendency to split the spirit of Iowa between the two universities at this football classic.

Prof. Rudolph A. Kuever of the University faculty said that he favored the discontinuance of the game as the homecoming game. "Ames points her season to the Missouri Valley conference and Iowa toward the Big Ten.
If the game is made the homecoming game both teams will detract from their conference interests for the intrastate contest. Also the homecoming games of both universities should

Y. W. C. A. HOLDS FIRST LECTURE ON AMERICANISM

The first of a series of lectures on "Americanism" was held by the Y.
W. C. A. at their regular meeting last night in the liberal arts drawing room.

Miss Clara M. Dahley, assistant professor of history, spoke to the members on the subject, "As They See Us". Her topic dealt with the impression the immigrants receive of Americans, upon first arriving here.
Miss Dahley believes we should learn to see ourselves as others see us. She believes the chief faults of Americans are egotism, provincialism and commercialism. She says that some day the greatest nation will be the one giving the greatest service.

The second lecture of the series will be given next Wednesday by Prof.
Gilbert G. Benjamin of the history department. His subject will be "Worker or Worked." This deals with the attitude the Americans take towards the foreigner when he comes to this country.

The last of the series will be given the Wednesday before Christmas vacation, by Prof. Forest C. Ensign of the department of education. "E Pluribus Unum" will be his subject, and will treat of the facilities of the Americans which help to Americanize the immigrants.

The Y. W. C. A. is having these lectures given in order to show the real meaning of what is now generally termed "Americanism."

SELLING SMILES

If you are looking for a job it may interest you to hear what is the one quality which employers the world over want most. It is agreeableness. Agreeableness is the diamond among virtues for it is the most precious and the rarest of all. It is worth money; for it sells more real estate, cigars, groceries, automobiles and life insurance than any amount of smooth talk and arguments.

Just be pleasant and you can walk away with a contract right under the nose of the man who knows it all.

Be agreeable! And you will be in demand. For in every profession they are looking for the agreeable person; every wife wants that kind of a husband, husbands that kind of a wife; children want agreeable parents; the workman an agreeable boss and the boss an agreeable workman; and everyone wants agreeable relatives.

We want agreeable night editors, reporters, policemen, janitors, landlords, and instructors. The agreeable people in the world today have but little competition and are sure to succeed. Even a cub reporter gets along better if he is agreeable, and works hard to please his superiors in the office.

Life is a mixup, anyway, that none of us understand. There are all sorts of inexplicable thorns and tragedies, buffets and chagrins, and most people are sorry for themselves—hence ugly.

But you—you be agreeable. Try it and see what happens.

SOMETHING WRONG

Lack of enough local interest to insure a successful appearance of the University Players' production, "Her Husband's Wife," at Cedar Rapids, exposes an apathy on the part of backers there which appears in strong contrast to the enthusiasm shown for the expanding programs of organizations in other universities.

The Columbia University debating team is completing plans for a trans-continental debating trip during the Easter recess. The Triangle club, a Princeton dramatic association, has a booking starting December 18, and including appearances in New York, Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Minneapolis, St. Paul, Chicago, and Cleveland.

When an undergraduate dramatic club from a New Jersey university can play in Omaha, Kansas City, and Minneapolis, it seems deplorable that an Iowa dramatic club, with a good production, should have to give up an engagement in a neighboring city, forty miles away, because of the probability of playing to empty seats.

The "front row" habitue who thinks he has an accurate idea of oriental music, will have an opportunity to see how wrong he is by attending the Chinese entertainment this afternoon.

The enthusiastic follower of sports is anxiously awaiting the date of Iowa's first basketball game.

Since New Year is but a short time away, now is a good time to write out your list of good resolutions.

CONTRIBUTORS' COLUMN

ON THE OTHER SIDE

China is now suffering from its greatest famine. In the north drought reigned for half a year, covering a region of five provinces, as big as ten or eleven states in this country. All crops failed. 40,000,000 persons are affected. Deaths number thousands every day. Some women sell their babies to barren wives for a few pieces of money in order to live a few days longer; others commit suicide by poisoning, or drowning in the rivers, and the water, before it was frozen, was undrinkable. Many lived for a

INDIAN GAEKWAR EXPECTS TO SEND SOME STUDENTS TO IOWA

Dr. Sudhindra Bose, former lecturer in the department of political science at Iowa is now touring the world in a study of current problems in world politics. In a letter to Prof. Benjamin F. Shambaugh, head of the department of political science, Doctor Bose mentions a visit to Eton College which was founded in 1440 by King Henry VI of England. Here the aristocracy of England receive their schooling. While at Eton Doctor Bose was the guest of one of the masters, the Reverend G. J. Chitty. During his visit to London Doctor Bose mentions meeting many famous statesmen and diplomats among whom was his highness Sayaji Rao III, Gaekwar of Baroda, India.

"The Gaekwar is among the most progressive Hindu rulers of India," says Doctor Bose in his letter. "He has visited America a number of times and asked me many questions about the State University of Iowa, and especially about the departments which teach the political and social sciences."

"I have sent some of my State scholars to Harvard and Columbia," remarked the ruler of Baroda. "They have given good account of themselves. I must now send a few to Iowa."

The Gaekwar is a great believer in time on tree roots, bark, and leaves. Willow branches were made into soup. But now the ground is bare; there is nothing but snow; they simply wait for the last.

In the South flood has done considerable damage in the provinces of Kwangtung and Kwangsi. Houses and crops were destroyed, and men and women as well as cattle were drowned.

GRADUATE COLLEGE GAINS

Report Shows Increased Enrollment In The Graduate College

"The graduate college of this University has an increase of 17 per cent over last year," said Carl E. Seashore, dean of the graduate college, "For the last five or six years Iowa has stood near the top among the universities of the country in the proportion of graduate students to its total registration, and the record of published contributions from our University compares favorably with universities of the same size."

A report of the institute for public service to the association of American universities shows that the graduate college of this University registered 482 in 1920, or a gain of 208 students since 1914, Dean Seashore said.

The report says, "Of the ten largest graduate schools which reported for last year, Columbia alone lost and nine others gained 2794, or a net gain for the group over 1914 of 2316 or 31.1 per cent. Of these, six decreased 483 and four, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Iowa and Cornell, increased 305 between 1917 and 1920, a net decrease of 178." This decrease was caused by war conditions, according to Dean Seashore.

internationalism, according to Doctor Bose. He rules over a principality which is over 8000 square miles in area and is inhabited by 2,000,000 people. "There must be peace between the Orient and the Occident, but peace there cannot be unless each has outgrown its narrow creeds and prejudices," said the Gaekwar in his visit with Doctor Bose.

Doctor Bose describes the Englishman as a conversationalist, earnest and fluent, though not always convincing. His accents are so peculiar, and his habit of slurring over certain letters is so common that a newly arrived American is not always sure as to what his English cousin is talking about.

The English are not haughty and arrogant according to Doctor Bose. "The average Englishman is polite, and instances of touching politeness are to be met with every day, almost everywhere. The London policeman is a marvel as a street directory. He knows the names and locations of every street and alley in London. I remember policemen who even went out of their way to hunt hotels and boarding places," continued Doctor Bose.

Doctor Bose is acting as special correspondent to the Des Moines Register during his world tour.

Home Economics Tea

The birthday of Ellen H. Richards will be the occasion of a tea to be given this afternoon at 4:15 in the sewing laboratory by the Home Economics Club.

For many years Miss Richards was the only woman instructor in the Massachusetts Institute of Technology where she taught sanitary chemistry. She has had more to do with home economics as a study than any one woman.

Home Economics departments of other schools celebrate the anniversary of her birth, but this is the first year that anything of this sort has been done here.

Miss Wilma Davis of Newton and Mr. Harry L. Gross B. A. '19 of Des Moines were married on Thanksgiving at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's gown was of orchid colored metal cloth trimmed in cream lace. She carried a shower bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Gross left for a wedding trip.

Mr. Gross is a member of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity. He enlisted during the war, and served as a lieutenant at Camp Dodge. At the close of the war he was stationed at Camp Funston in Kansas. At present he is a cashier in Drake Park bank in Des Moines.

Mr. and Mrs. Gross will make their home in Des Moines.

ANNOUNCEMENT

All those who desire teaching positions for next year, are urged to be present at a meeting in the liberal arts assembly room on second floor Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock.

be as state against state thus giving the backers an opportunity to be behind the teams as representatives of the entire state."

Intrastate Game in Disfavor

"I am heartily in favor of the discontinuance of an intrastate homecoming game" said Archie R. Kirk, A15. "The homecoming game of each institution should be played in their respective conferences as state against state."

The date of the Ames game is not positive until the outcome of the conference at Chicago is known. but the traditional game will doubtlessly be played.

Eligibility of players in connection with the year spent in the S. A. T. C. may be brought up although the original plan was to discuss this matter for players both individually and collectively at a conference of the chairmen of the boards in control of athletics at the respective conference universities.
