GOPHERS DODGE ZERO BY DRAW; SCORE 39 TO 3

Iowa Wrestlers Win Second Big Ten Match By One- Sided Score

SWEENEY GETS TWO FALLS

Draw Between Gallass of Minnesota and Albers of Iowa in 125 Pound Class—Howrey of Iowa and Bailey of Gophers Have Scrappy Match in 158 Pound Class—Crowd Large

Iowa put a second mark in the credit column of Big Ten Conference wrestling by defeating Minnesota by a score of 39 to 3, before a large crowd of mat fans at the armory yesterday afternoon.

Although, as the score would indicate, Iowa had the decided advantage in the meet, the matches were full of scrap. Minnesota was outclassed in every weight except the 125 pound class. Albers of Iowa and Gallass of Minnesota wrestled for three seven-minute periods and two extra three-minute periods to a draw.

Sweeney in Good Form

Sweeney in the 135 pound class fulfilled the expectations of the fans by throwing Paulisich twice in quick succession. The first fall came in 3 minutes and 55 seconds with a head scissors and a double wrist lock. The second fall was done with the same hold in 2 minutes and 35 seconds.

"Bob" Smith, Iowa's representative in the 145 pound class won his match by getting two quick decisions in the last two periods after the first had been called a draw. Smith was on the offensive the greater part of the time but could not manage to put the northener's shoulders to the mat.

The scrappiest exhibition of the afternoon took place in the 158 pound class when Howrey of Iowa met Bailey of the Gopher squad. The match started with the whistle and finished only when the period came to an end. Howrey won the match by a decision in the first two seven-minute periods. This is Howrey's second appearance with the varsity squad.

Captain White Wins Fall

Captain White counted eight more points for Iowa by winning his match with Cooper. The first seven-minute period went to the Iowa captain by decision and the second went the same route when White threw his opponent in 5 minutes and 55 seconds. Hunter of the heavyweight class had no trouble in throwing Brown in two periods.

Summary:

125 pound: Albers of Iowa and Gallass of Minnesota go three seven minute periods and two extra three-minute periods to a draw.

135 pound: Two falls won by Sweeney of Iowa over Paulisich of Minnesota. First: Time—3:55. Hold—Head Scissors and wrist lock. Second: Time—2:35. Hold—Head scissors and wrist lock.

145 pound: Decision to Smith of Iowa over Stoner of Minnesota.

158 pound: Decision to Howrey of Iowa over Bailey of Minnesota.

175 pound: Fall and decision to White of Iowa over Cooper of Minnesota.

Heavyweight: Fall and decision to Hunter of Iowa over Brown of Minnesota.

REST PRECEDES CHICAGO GAME

Basketball Team Has Light Workout—Maroons To Come Tomorrow

Preparation for the second game of basketball with the University of Chicago to be played here tomorrow night, has been little more than a good rest for the Iowa team. One night was spent at scrimmage and the rest of the practice periods were devoted to basket shooting, development of the offensive and defensive systems, and lectures.

Whether Iowa is better than when they met the Maroons on their home floor is impossible to judge until they are seen in action. Certainly the logic of the situation points out that they are better. A week of rest following a hard trip should put them in the best of physical condition, and a good rest is considered the best of jinx breakers.

Basket Shooting Weak

Chicago on the other hand had a game last night, and although with a comparatively easy team, will realize some weakening effects as a result, and they have the disadvantage of playing on a foreign floor, and of taking a trip. University of Chicago teams would rather play at any other city in the conference than in Iowa City. Their many defeats here have brought the Maroons to coming to Iowa with a hard-luck feeling from the start.

Probably Iowa's most outstanding weakness has been in lack of basket shooting ability, or, possibly, the luck that makes the ball fall the right way. A week of practice at this point of the game will at least develop the ability to shoot, and again the rest cure for the jinx will be valuable.

Devine Now Running Guard

As far as records go there is no chance for comparison between Chicago and Iowa. Chicago stands second in the conference while Iowa is in last place with three defeats. Previous to last night's game Chicago's basket average per game was thirteen and three-fourths, while Iowa's is six and one-third.

Chicago will come to Iowa in first-class condition, barring possible accidents in the Michigan game last night. Devine's shift to the running guard position may make a better defensive combination to cope with the powerful Vollmer-Birkoff forward combination.

Maroon Lineup Same

Iowa will probably open with the lineup of Lohman and Shimek at forward, Frohwein at center, and Captain Kaufmann and Devine at guards, with McGovney and Ehresman getting in for a part of the game. Kamer may play at center a part of the evening.

Chicago's lineup will be the same as confronted the Iowa team at Bartlett gymnasium January 22, Birkoff and Vollmer, forwards, Halladay, center, and Crisler and McGuire, guards. The game will be called at 7:15 Monday evening. Admission is by year book number seven or one dollar.

CONTEST DATE POSTPONED

Date for Submitting Sophomore Orations Postponed

The date for the submitting of orations for the sophomore oratorical contest has been postponed from January 31 to February 10. The date for the final contest has been postponed to February 22, according to Harold D. Keeley L1 of Maquoketa, president of the men's forensic council.

The orations are limited to 1000 words and they must be handed in at Prof. E. C. Mable's office on the above date. The winner of the final contest will be awarded the Egan prize of $20.00.

A STRAW TO GRASP

Doolittle Says Examinations More Trying Than Law-Making

Here is some consolation for the "quiz" haunted undergraduate.

Clyde H. Doolittle L3 of Delhi, representative of Delaware county in the state legislature who is here for semester examinations in the college of law, says that examinations are more trying than attendance at sessions of the legislature.

HARVEY INGHAM TO SPEAK HERE

Editor of Des Moines Register Will Give Address at Convocation

The convocation address Tuesday, February 8, will be delivered by Harvey Ingham, editor of the Des Moines Register, at 10 a. m., to those students who receive degrees at the close of the first semester. The subject of Mr. Ingham's address has not been announced, according to Prof. Forest C. Ensign of the college of education, chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Ingham received his B. A. degree in 1880, and his L. L. B. in 1881 from this University. Following his graduation he entered newspaper work and since 1902 he has been in charge of the Des Moines Register. He was regent of the University for years. He has spoken here several times, but not recently. Professor Ensign said last evening that Mr. Ingham was a forceful speaker and an earnest friend of the University.

While in Iowa City, Mr. Ingham will be a guest at the Kuehnle-Finkbine dinner which will be given by these two alumni to 100 representative undergraduate men of the University.

The program will be announced later according to the committee in charge which is composed of Prof. Forest C. Ensign, Prof. C. H. Weller, Prof. P. G. Clapp, and Prof. Jacob Van der Zee.

Forty-one degrees, fifteen certificates in nursing, and a few certificates in education will be granted at convocation, including two degrees of doctor of philosophy. The names of the candidates will be announced later according to Charles H. Maruth, assistant registrar.

All classes will be discontinued during convocation according to President Walter A. Jessup.

Members of Sophomore Girl's Basketball Team Named

The following women have been picked members of the sophomore girl's basketball team to represent the sophomores in the interclass basketball championship series which will be played early in the next semester: Josephine Daus of Merville, Pauline Spencer of Des Moines, and Lucille Barber of Marion at forwards. The jumping center will be Pauline Davis of Osage, and the running center Mabel Burt of Clarion. Those chosen for the guard positions are Ruth Van Law of Marshalltown, Callie Buser of Conesville, and Mrs. Mildred Wentworth of Northampton, Mass.

Out of this squad of eight, two forwards, two guards, and a jumping and running center will be chosen. A captain will be elected from the eight members next week.

Practice of the basket ball squad is being held daily at the women's gymnasium in preparation for the annual interclass championship. Other teams and squads will be chosen at an early date.

DOOLITTLE SAYS BILL FOR FUNDS LIKELY TO PASS

Student Legislator Predicts Passage of Two-Year Appropriation

PROBABLY INCLUDE LIBRARY

Thinks Bonus Bill Will Go Through— Money Is Tight—Doolittle Here for Examinations—Carries Course in College of Law—Says Price of Farm Products Makes Conditions

"The two-year appropriation bill for the University has just been introduced into the legislature, and, while money is very tight, and more money has been asked for than ever before, the bill is almost certain to go through substantially as introduced. The bill will probably include a new library and other building improvements."

On Leave of Absence

This is the report of Clyde H. Doolittle L3 of Delhi, representative of Delaware county in the state legislature, who is in Iowa City on a week's leave of absence to take his semester examinations. Doolittle, whose term of office started January 10, is the youngest member of the present state legislature, and the only member elected before completing his college course. He has been carrying a full course in the college of law while at the session of the legislature and expects to return at the close of the session, the middle of April, and to graduate in June.

The bonus bill, which provides for a bonus of fifty cents a day to all Iowa soldiers and sailors for every day they were in the service, will be introduced within a week, and Doolittle said he was confident that it will be passed by the legislature and submitted to the people for a popular vote. The bonus does not include men who served for less than sixty days or those who were in the S. A. T. C. Doolittle said that the price of farm products is what makes times hard in Iowa because this is a farming community, and it will probably take a year to better financial conditions throughout the country.

Term Ends in 1923

Doolittle entered the University in 1911 and continued his work here until 1917, when he enlisted. He served for twenty-six months in the army, nineteen months overseas, and was saptain of Co. E, 168 Infantry in the Rainbow division, taking part in all the engagements of that division except the first part of the battle of Chateau Thierry. He returned to the University in the fall of 1919 and continued his law course here until his election to the republican state legislature this year. He is undecided as to whether or not he will continue in politics after the end of his term, in 1923. He is a member of Sigma Chi, and Phi Alpha Delta fraternities, and of A. F. I., honorary society for senior men.

THE SEMI-ANNUAL SCARE

The old haunted house has gone out of the immediate environment of the average college undergraduate so far as its exerting an influence on his nervous condition is concerned.

The boy in knee trousers who makes a half mile detour to avoid the haunted house, or passes it at the expense of a very disturbing condition of mind, amounting almost to physical nausea, would have saved himself a lot of discomfort if he had stopped to reflect that the house was only wood and stone like other houses, and that the ghosts were not in it but in his imagination.

It is entirely wholesome to have a hearty respect for the occasion of semi-annual examinations, hearty enough to spare no oil to prepare for them, but one may be saved a great amount of discomfort by a moment of cool reflection.

A good night's sleep, and the calm assurance that this is only plain white paper, and that the birds will still be singing at the end of the hour, and the haunted house of examination time will appear only as another ordinary building along the road.

RECOMMENDED READING

At least one instance in which ignorance of the law cannot be offered as an excuse is in the case of impending registration. Here are instructions lucid enough for any wayfarer who can decipher six-point type on a white page.

With the schedule of courses given yesterday to students of the college of liberal arts were detailed directions for registration: five minutes of reading. Read them. Know.

"Too bad, Dewey, they're goin' tu leave you out."
"Wait, my shoe's untied."
"If mother could only see me now."

"Smile, Smitty."

Epilogue

An old stone wall, looking south. On the other side a phalanx of old, bearded soldiers in tattered uniforms passes along. Moss grows upon the wall, and upon the roots of straggling vines. A bucket lies rusting nearby half covered with old rust, and growing moss, and along the top of the wall scampers a caravan of squirrels carrying chestnuts. Moss.

Frank E. Thomson S1 from Davenport, was given a try at guard. He played center on the Ames eleven for two years before he went into the army, and may be a valuable addition to our line.

Spring Frocks Evince a Fondness for Crepe Silks

And that it is by no means an ungrounded affection is proved by the gracious manner in which crepe de Chines, crepe meteors and Canton crepes yield to the dropped waistlines, sashes, harem panel skirts and three-quarter sleeves which distinguish the most fashionable of this season's modes. One may choose these frocks with beaded motifs or rich embroidery as trimming.

Come and see the remarkable collections and realize how small the prices are now.

SALESMANAGER GAVE TALK AT LUNCHEON FOR COMMERCE MEN

"College men in general and especially graduates from Yale and Harvard go into the business world with the idea that they should immediately be given a responsible position with a business house," said F. A. Wilson-Lawrenson at a luncheon served to members of the faculty of the school of commerce and the Delta Sigma Pi commerce fraternity at the Pagoda tea shop yesterday. "We find that the graduates from a commerce school take a more sensible attitude toward this situation, and realize that their advancement depends upon the ability shown in their work," said Mr. Lawrenson.

Mr. Lawrenson is the vice president and salesmanager of the Union Carbide and Carbon corporation of New York. This corporation controls the Columbia Battery company, the Presto-Lite company and numerous other concerns of this type.

Prior to his connection with the Union Carbide and Carbon corporation Mr. Lawrenson was connected with the Welch's Grape Juice company.

Mr. Lawrenson is taking a few days rest at the home of his brother-in-law, Prof. George W. Stewart, head of the department of physics.

TRYOUTS TO BE HELD
Vaudeville Stunts and "Rival" Parts To Be Picked Tuesday

Tryouts for "The Rivals" and class stunts for the W. A. A. vaudeville to be given February 24, are to be held next Tuesday evening, February 1, according to Dolloy Henderson A4 of Hawkeye, chairman of the program committee. The tryouts for "The Rivals" will be held at 7:15 p. m. and tryouts for class stunts will be held at 8 p. m.

These tryouts are open to any W. A. A. member who wishes to compete. There are eight characters in the play, "The Rivals", several copies of which have been placed on the reserve shelf at the library. The tryouts will consist of simply reading the part of one of the characters before a committee composed of the women's physical education instructors, Claribel Wright A4 of Houghton, Mich., and Dolly Henderson.

Class stunts or skits may also be

It is not absolutely necessary that each stunt be put on by members of just one class. The suggestion of class stunts was made in order that the class representatives might organize the stunts more easily. However, the program committee will be very glad to consider stunts put on by groups representing more than one class.

Like Caesar's Wife--

Anthony Bond's bride must be above reproach. How difficult this was you will understand when you have seen "THE FURNACE." For Folly Bond was beautiful, admired, unconventional,—and not in love with her husband. "THE FURNACE" is one of the most powerful dramas of modern marriage ever shown on the screen.

And its settings, lavish costumes, and unusual situations make it a picture out off thousands.
