IOWA CITY, IOWA THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1921

NUMBER 104

BASEBALL TEAM TO START WORK

First Practice of Season Will Be Held Saturday Morning at 10 O'clock

The first baseball practice of the year will be held next Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, at which time candidates for the varsity are asked to report to Coach James N. Ashmore. Practice will be held in the men's gymnasium on Monday's, Wednesdays, and Fridays at 3 o'clock and on Saturdays at 10 o'clock.

The indoor workouts will be devoted to bunting practice, throwing and the coaching of pitchers and catchers. As soon as the weather permits, the men will be taken outdoors for practice.

All the members of last year's team are in the University with the exception of Parrott who was graduated Tuesday. Hamilton and McIlree of the 1920 team are ineligible, as they have played three years of varsity baseball.

Members of the 1920 team who will be eligible this season are Captain Crary, Irish, Shimek, Leighton, and Dunsmore, infielders; Frohwein, pitcher and infielder; Michaelson, catcher; and Draper, Wilhelm, and Anderson, outfielders. Of last year's freshmen Lock, Valtner, Hill and Dyke, pitchers; Hurlbure and Davis, infielders; and Lorenz, outfielder, are expected to make a showing for varsity positions. Wade, a member of the 1919 freshman team, and Lane, who was ineligible last year are expected to make a bid for infield positions.

A series of five practice games has been arranged with the Moline team of the Three I league, which will be held on April 11, 12, 13, 14, and 15. A series of three games will probably be arranged with the Cedar Rapids league team. Games with Minnesota may be arranged in case that University puts a team in the field this spring.

The schedule with Big Ten universities is: April 21—Northwestern at Northwestern. April 29—Purdue at Lafayette. April 30—Illinois at Urbana. May 7—Notre Dame at Iowa City. May 9—Purdue at Iowa City. May 14—Michigan at Ann Arbor. May 16—Illinois at Iowa City. May 20, 21—Indiana at Iowa City. May 23—Michigan at Iowa City. May 28—Northwestern at Iowa City. June 3—Chicago at Chicago.

DENTAL STATE BOARD OF EXAMINERS TEST SEVENTEEN THIS WEEK

The Dental State board of examiners are giving examinations at the college of dentistry, February 7, 8, 9, and 10. Sixteen men and one woman are taking them. Those who pass successfully will be licensed to practice dentistry in the state of Iowa.

The members of the board are: Dr. C. M. Work of Ottumwa, president, Dr. George Brooks of Greenfield, vice president, Dr. C. W. Miller of Des Moines, secretary-treasurer, Dr. H. P. White of Sioux City, and Dr. F. W. Conover of Decorah.

The next dental state board examinations will be given June 6, 7, 8, and 9. The examinations being given now were postponed from December which is the customary time for giving them. A written test upon the theory of dentistry is given each morning and the clinical work of the candidates is examined in the afternoon.

JESSUP ATTENDS MEETING

President Walter A. Jessup will be in Des Moines the latter part of the week to attend the meeting of the State Board of Examiners.

OVER 500 STUDENTS ARE YET TO BE REGISTERED

Over 500 students have not yet registered for the second semester, according to Herbert C. Dorcas, University registrar. Many of these students have had their registration deferred on account of irregularities in the first semester's work, and these students will not have to pay the fine of twenty-five cents a day for late registration.

IOWA TO MEET AMES EQUALLY

Brown and Bond Ineligible — Men Make Good Time In Swimming Tryouts

The time made last night in the swimming tryouts indicates that the Ames and Iowa swimmers will meet on about equal footing. Ames will be at a slight disadvantage in swimming in a different pool. This seems to be an important factor in aquatic meets.

According to dope, Iowa should win from Ames and lose to Chicago and Northwestern, which are probably the best two teams in the conference.

Robert Brown A3 and Wilbert Bond M2 both of Des Moines have been declared ineligible and will not compete in the meet Saturday night. The loss of Brown and Bond will be offset in a way by the fast time which Boynton and Clark have been making in the dash events.

In the meet Saturday night, five women will swim a feature 40 yard race for the championship of the University. The race will be given under the auspices of the Seals club. The five women who will race are Helen Starbuck A1 of Iowa City, Amy Little U of Iowa City, Catherine Wright A2 of Des Moines, Dorothy O'Donoghue A3 of Storm Lake, and Julia Darrow A2 of Columbus Junction.

There will be no basket ball game with Ames but one will be staged between members of the varsity and freshmen squads. Dr. White, coach of the Chicago swimming team, will officiate.

Tickets for the meet are on sale at Whetstone's. On account of the limited seating capacity of the pool room, "I" tickets will not be accepted.

R. O. T. C. TO GIVE DANCE

First Dance to be February 21 at Women's Gymnasium

R. O. T. C. will give a dance at the women's gymnasium February 21.

This is the first of a series of dances which the R. O. T. C. is planning to conduct this semester. Tickets will be sold at $1.25. The ticket sale is limited to members of R. O. T. C.

Bohac's saxophone orchestra will furnish the music for the first dance. Since the dance is to be held the night before Washington's birthday, an old-fashioned square dance and a mask dance are planned as features. Boxing matches will be held during the intermission. These matches are a part of a series which is to be held to determine the regimental championship.

FORMER NORTHWESTERN ATHLETE COMES HERE

"Paddy" Driscoll, former Northwestern University athlete and ex-all Conference and all-Western quarterback and halfback arrived in Iowa City yesterday to manage the Drico grocery store.

Driscoll was captin of the football team at Northwestern in 1916 and was re-elected in 1917 but entered the Navy that year. He was graduated from Northwestern in 1918 and was assistant coach there for a time.

He played in Iowa City in 1917 with the Great Lakes Naval Training Station team.

EASTERN PROFESSOR WILL TEACH HISTORY AT SUMMER SESSION

A historian who will occupy a place on the summer session instructing staff of the University of Iowa in the department of history is D. John Spencer Bassett.

Doctor Bassett is head of the history department at Smith college, and was formerly connected with Yale and with New York University. He has taught at Columbia during six summer sessions.

His offerings at the University of Iowa will include a lecture course on "The United States Since the Civil War," and a research course on "The United States since 1914."

Doctor Bassett is a prolific writer of history. Among his best known works are his volume in the American Nation series entitled "The Federalist System," and his two-volume biography of Andrew Jackson, and his book on the United States' war with Germany. He has also written a college text-book on United States history.

BASKET BALL WOMEN TO CLASH IN FIRST CLASS GAMES TONIGHT

The annual women's basketball tournament will start tonight at 7:15 in the women's gymnasium when the first two games of the series will be played.

The freshmen will play the seniors, and the juniors will meet the sophomores.

The following women will represent their classes in the games: freshmen—captain, Mary Larkley; side center, Esther Flynn; forward, Mona Silverthorn; forward, Grace Dyke; center, Ethel Packard; forward, Florence Zenter; guards, Leora Ashbaugh and Frances Johnston.

Both men and women will be admitted to these games. The gymnasium will be divided into two sections and each class will have a cheer leader, and will occupy one section.

All members of W. A. A. will be admitted free. The general admission will be twenty-five cents.

ELEANOR STEINBURG IS NOW JUSTICE OF PEACE

Miss Eleanor Steinburg '16, L'17 of Eldora has been appointed as a justice of the peace to take the place of her brother, Albert Steinburg, who was elected county attorney of Hardin county at the November election. Miss Steinburg has achieved the distinction of being one of the few women justices.

FACULTY MEMBERS TO RECONSIDER PLAN FOR EXAMINATION WEEK

A motion to adopt the examination week system as proposed was passed at the meeting of the faculty of the college of liberal arts yesterday afternoon, but according to the following motion to reconsider the plan, a definite decision will not be made until the March meeting of the faculty.

According to the plan considered, the next to the last week of the semester and part of the last week will be given over entirely to examinations and there will be a two hour period for examinations in every course. During this examination week there will not be any regular classes. Instructors will have the privilege of conducting the examinations in any way they see fit, providing that they hold the class for the full period, according to the proposed plan.

HARVARD PROFESSOR WILL SPEAK ON FUR SEALS TO BACONIAN

G. H. Parker, professor of zoology at Harvard university, will give an illustrated lecture on "Fur Seals of the Pribilof Islands" at a meeting of the Baconian club to be held tomorrow evening at 7:30 in the physics lecture room.

Professor Parker has written books and papers along zoological lines. His name was starred in the "American Men of Science" ranking him as one of the 1000 leading scientists of America. He is particularly interested in the study of living marine invertebrates.

Professor Parker is Harvard exchange professor at Grinnell college this year. He will be in Iowa City till Saturday morning, February 12, and will be the guest of Prof. Charles C. Nutting, head of the department of zoology, at a dinner at the Hotel Jefferson tomorrow evening.

8 ELECTED TO SEALS

Club Plans Banquet For New Members, February 11

Eight new members who were taken into the Seals club yesterday afternoon are: Eleanor Williams A3 of Clear Lake, Dorothy Van de Stieg of Orange City, Emelie Hartman A2 of Junction City, Kan., Adelaide Rodler A1 of Davenport, Joy Brady A4 of Akron, Helen Spencer A1 of Des Moines, Pauline Spencer A2 of Des Moines, and Mrs. F. G. Highbee U of Iowa City, as honorary member.

A banquet will be given at the Pagoda tea shop Friday evening February 11, at 6 o'clock in honor of the new members. Seals will be awarded to Julia Darrow A2 Columbia Junction, Mary Freeman A3 of Nocatee, Fla., and Jean Spiers A3 of Reinbeck.

HANSON WILL COMPLETE WORK ON DOCTOR'S DEGREE

Mores Lee Hanson, research assistant for the State Historical Society, left last week for Harvard university where he will complete work toward his doctor's degree.

Mr. Hanson is the author of "Old Fort Snelling," published in 1918, and "Welfare Campaigns in Iowa," published in 1920, the first of a series of Iowa chronicles of the war collected by the Historical Society.

BIG TEN HONORS WILL LIKELY GO TO ILLINOIS FIVE

Hoosiers a Possibility But Lack Shooting Strength of Opponents

IOWA HAS UP-HILL JOB NOW

Chicago Game Stands as Source of Consolation to Fans — Maroons, Wisconsin, and Minnesota Still Have Outside Chances — Purdue Faces Hard Schedule

By M. F. Carpenter

Conference Standing, February 9

	Won	Lost	Percent
Illinois	4	1	.800
Indiana	4	1	.800
Purdue	3	2	.600
Chicago	4	3	.571
Michigan	4	4	.500
Minnesota	3	3	.500
Wisconsin	3	3	.500
Northwestern	1	3	.250
Iowa	1	4	.200
Ohio	1	4	.200

Scores of games played from January 31 to February 7 inclusive: January 31, Iowa 17, Chicago 16; Michigan 28, Purdue 23. February 5; Chicago 19, Minnesota 17; Illinois 29, Purdue 26. February 7; Illinois 46, Ohio 11; Minnesota 17, Iowa 14.

Games scheduled for the remainder of the week ending February 12: February 9, Chicago at Northwestern; February 12, Minnesota at Illinois, Northwestern at Wisconsin, Ohio at Purdue.

The chief result of the games played since Iowa defeated Chicago at Iowa City, has been to give Illinois the best chance for the championship. At present Illinois shares the lead with Indiana, but the records of the two teams leave no doubt that the Illinois five is far the more dangerous. It was recognized from the first that, if Illinois could keep in the running until Carney got back, his reappearance would make his team a strong contender, if not the strongest. Carney is back now, and Illinois managed to win two out of the three games played before his return. The result is that Illinois has the call—until some team comes along and spills the dope and beats the leaders.

Purdue Due for Losses

Indiana is still a possibility, but it refuses to look like a championship team. It has not the shooting strength of Chicago, Illinois, and Purdue. Its guarding strength broke down against Purdue in its first hard game. In fact, it has only a slight superiority over Michigan or Minnesota in this regard. Of course, any team that has led the Conference almost continually since the early part of January has a chance to finish in the lead. In the case of Indiana, the rest of the schedule improves the chance.

Purdue had a bad week of it. For three days its team led the Conference. Then Michigan, which had treated Chicago rudely enough, hit the Boilermakers an even harder whack. Illinois made matters worse by shooting eighteen baskets at Lafayette, which tied the season's records for baskets shot in a single game. This record lasted until Illinois played its next game. The record of twenty baskets and forty-six points made against Ohio is not apt to be beaten this year, unless Illinois decides to pile up a higher score. Purdue has a hard schedule ahead and is likely to lose more games before the end of the month.

Hard Jolt for Iowa

Chicago, Minnesota, and Wisconsin still stand outside chances. Minnesota lost ground Saturday and will probably be entirely out of the running after Illinois gets through with it Saturday night. Chicago and Wisconsin

OUT IN THE COLD

The Community Forum, directed by the Rev. John Haynes Holmes, who spoke at the University Vespers last Sunday, has been deprived of the right of holding Sunday evening meetings at the High School of Commerce in New York City by an order of the board of education.

Grounds given for this action were, the probable spread of religious doctrines in a public school building, and charges of public expression of un-American sentiments. It was said that he gave radicals a free rein on the platform of the forum. Evidence of the latter charge is cited in a letter from Dr. William L. Ettinger, superintendent of schools, printed in the New York Evening Post. Here are some alleged remarks of Community Forum speakers:

Some of the finest spirits God ever created have gone through Leavenworth.

The church has fallen because it has defended capitalism and will be destroyed if it keeps on defending it.

What do you think of Charlie Schwab, who builds churches to the Blessed Virgin, and then wrings it out of the workers?

If I were in Russia I would stand beside Lenin and Trotzky.

This is all we know about the matter. No one who has heard the Rev. Mr. Holmes in his "Plea for Freedom" could doubt his sincerity. Perhaps he has been misrepresented in the action taken on the Sunday night forum. No one of sound intelligence wants to withhold the truth. No one doubts for a moment the expedience of intellectual honesty. But no one knows the whole truth about anything, any more than one man can know the mind of another, and one reflects that truth and freedom, like liberty, have been sheep's clothing for numerous crimes.

The thing to watch out for in all of this conflict of conventionality and radicalism, is sensationalism. The flagrant call of sensationalism to the romantic nature of the human is a loud one particularly if the romance is not well tempered by education and intelligence. And in the present situation sensationalism seems to be bad stuff. It appears to be more or less responsible for the political dissatisfaction on the continent, and for the eddy of unrest felt here.

The stage seems to be set for anything but a melodrama. Conditions demand the quiet, homely business of patching and piecing together what four years and more of melodrama have torn apart. An honest and intelligent search for the truth seems more to be desired than ever, and a tendency to flaunt the red flag of sensationalism, more distasteful.

TEACHING JOURNALISM

Northwestern University has just opened, under the sponsorship of the Chicago Tribune, the Joseph Medill School of Journalism, perhaps the most pretentious of the institutions which profess to teach newspapering in all its manifold phases. Widely heralded, thanks to the Tribune's vigorous publicity, it was dedicated Thursday evening with all the ostentation generally given to events of a mightier force.

The Tribune, in co-operating with Northwestern, is backing a worthy project. Throughout the nation today there is an urgent call for better newspaper men, whether the newspaper men admit it or not. In Iowa, that is especially true.

Students of journalism and those students who intend to enter journalism in this state need not be lured to Northwestern under the belief that they will receive better training than they will at the less advertised schools of journalism here at home. Slight perusal of the courses offered in the Joseph Medill school indicate that students who follow the prescribed lists, which extend over a period of four years, will be prepared to hold down an average newspaper post, providing the student had some inherent capabilities along the lines at the start.

To offset their carefully selected courses, the student at Northwestern will be confronted by the lack of actual newspaper practice. It is admitted that there are many agencies in Chicago where journalism is carried on each day, but few are for the beginner. The way to learn to write for a newspaper is to write for it. It matters little whether the journal be a thriving city daily or a college weekly, the one who writes the most "stories" is the one who will go highest in the field of journalism.

A glowing prospectus does not always bring promised returns. The new school of journalism at Northwestern cannot thrive forever on publicity. Smaller schools may not be known so well, but just now they have surer foundations.

ATHLETIC CARNIVAL PROMISES SNAP; SALE OF TICKETS TOMORROW

Snap, hilarity, and frivolity are the promised attributes to the athletic carnival to be held for the benefit of European relief at the armory, Saint Valentine's day, Monday, February 14, beginning at 7:15 p. m.

The program is in two sections, an exhibition of athletic events and novelties participated in by men and women, and a program of dances for everyone present, beginning at 9 o'clock.

Athletic program is: boxing bouts; basket ball game, ten-minute halves; freshman team against crack alumni team; special dances by the department of physical education for women; wrestling exhibition, Ralph Parcaut, wrestling coach and world's middleweight champion, against an unknown opponent; exhibition by the Hawkeye gymnasium team; fencing exhibition by expert swordsmen; and army games and stunts.

By a special ruling of the University social committee permission has been granted to hold dancing during the evening. Admission to the carnival will be $1. Tickets will be on sale in all University buildings tomorrow.

DR. ERNST WOULD PREVENT WAR BY HUMAN SYMPATHY

"I am speaking to the American public in order to further international feeling and human brotherhood for the prevention of future wars," said Dr. Lucy Hoesch Ernst Ph. D. of Godesberg, Germany, who will give a lecture on "The Physical and Mental Conditions in Germany, before, during, and after the war," this evening at 8:15 at the Burkley hotel.

"It is of no use to specialize in one subject, without becoming acquainted with all others," she said. For this reason I have spent five years taking graduate work in different universities all over the world."

Dr. Ernst began her education at the Tochterschule at Duren on the Rhein and from there attended a girls boarding school at Brussels to study French. After her graduation, she spent years traveling with her parents. At this time, a university education for women was out of the question, but after her return from Egypt, she studied psychology and English literature in the London university. When she was eighteen years old she knew Faust by heart and later wrote books on it. As psychology seemed of little worth to her with out natural sciences, she then attended the Freiburg University in Baden, Germany, and studied anatomy and anthropology. She then became interested in zoology and went on an investigation as far as 82 degrees north in Norway.

Dr. Ernst has written four German novels one of which has been translated into English. She has written texts on anthropology that may be found in the University library.

MERRY WILL SPEAK AT PUBLIC SPEAKING MEETING

Prof. Glenn N. Merry, research assistant in psychology and former head of the department of public speaking will speak at the meeting of the association of teachers of public speaking of colleges and universities of Iowa to be held at Iowa Wesleyan college at Mount Pleasant, February 17.

The subject of Professor Merry's address is "The Problem of Teacher Training". Assitant Prof. Edward C. Mabie, acting head of the department of public speaking, will speak on "Dramatics". Robert West, associate professor in the department of public speaking, will speak on the "Contest Situation". This is the second annual meeting of the association. The meeting last year was held at this University.

SIX GRADUATES TO RECEIVE TEACHING POSITIONS IN STATE

The following appointments for the graduates from the college of education have been announced by the college of education: Florence Borruch of Villisca will teach English in the Adel High School, Nellie A. Brown of Dumont will teach social science in the West Waterloo high school, Mable C. Linscott of Sloan is teaching in the Davenport primary schools, Vance M. Morton of Iowa City will teach public speaking in the Correctionville high school.

Maryorie Shular of Des Moines is teaching history in the Valley Junction high school, and Elizabeth A. Trei of Sibley will teach in the Marshalltown high school. The majority of these appointments were received through the college of education of the University.

CHEMISTRY SEMINARY WILL MEET TO-DAY

The chemistry seminary will hold a meeting in room 2 of the chemistry building at 4:10 this afternoon.

The subjects to be taken up are as follows: "Neutral Salt Catalysis" by Mr. H. B. Hart, "Uber die Oxydation von aliphatischen Kohlenwasserstoffen mit Stickstoffdioxyd," by Mr. John Couture, the Dupont fellow, and "The Determination of Solubility," by Prof. Perry A. Bond, assistant in inorganic chemistry.

All those interested in these topics are invited to attend, according to Prof. Edward Bartow, head of the chemistry department.

W. A. A. TO INITIATE AT NEXT MEETING

Initiation of new members, election of conference delegates, an open forum discussion of conference questions, and a social program are to be included in the next meeting of W. A. A. Wednesday evening, February 16.

All women expecting to join the W. A. A. in February are to file their application cards now, if they have not already done so, at the W. A. A. desk in the main office at the women's gymnasium, according to Jean G. Speirs A3, of Reinbeck, president of the association. There are about twenty-five women who have completed the requirements for membership.

After initiation, election of delegates to the conference, which will be held March 13-19 at Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana, will take place. W. A. A. of Iowa is entitled to three delegates.

CURIOUS BOOKS EXHIBITED AT UNIVERSITY LIBRARY

Several curious and interesting books are now on exhibition in the exhibit case of the general library.

One is a copy of Macobious' works recently purchased by the library from a second hand book company in England in which was found fragments of an ecclesiastical manuscript written by a monk sometime before 1527. This was carelessly used to bind the inside of the book. Illuminated capitals are used and the writing which is in Latin is on vellum.

Another is "Antonini de Florentia Confessional," a fifteenth century manuscript presented to the library in 1893 by D. H. Talbot of Sioux City. It is the only complete handwritten manuscript owned by the library. Mr. Talbot has contributed many books of history and travel composing what is called the Talbot library.

FOREIGN MISSION WORKER TO SPEAK TOMORROW EVENING

William F. English of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions will speak at the Congregational Conference House tomorrow evening at 7:30. His subject will be "The International Aspect of Foreign Missions."

Mr. English is a graduate of Dartmouth College, and since his graduation has served in prominent churches in the East. Though born in this country, Mr. English spent his boyhood in Turkey, and since the war he has taken an active part in the work of the Near East Relief Committee. The meeting is open to the public.

HESPERIA ELECTS OFFICERS

Hesperia literary society elected the following officers for the remainder of the year at a meeting held February 8: President, Dorothy J. Banks A4 of Burlington; vice-president, Florence Beiring A3 of Des Moines; secretary, Ruth Reeder A2 Iowa City; corresponding secretary, Esther Sharpe A3 of Hampton; treasurer, Bessie M. Tye A2 of Pleasanton, and sergeant at arms Huberteen Kuennen A3 of North English.

ANNUAL CELEBRATION OF "CHINA WEEK" TO BE HELD BY Y. W. C. A.

"China Week" for the Y. W. C. A. began Monday and will last until Friday. This "China Week" celebration is an annual observance of the work done by Iowa people in China.

During the week the liberal arts drawing room will be decorated with Chinese flags and lanterns. Jessie L. Phillips A1 of Iowa City, has charge of the decorations. A poster exhibit will also be placed in the liberal arts drawing room. This exhibit will give a short summary of facts and conditions in China.

Tuesday afternoon from 4 to 6 a tea was given in the liberal arts drawing room in honor of Dr. Clementine Bash who is head of a mission hospital in Peking, China. Doctor Bash is a sister of Miss Mary I. Bash general secretary of the local Y. W. C. A. Members of the Y. W. C. A. alumni who live in the city, faculty women, and wives of faculty members were the guests. Arrangements for the tea were made by Helen L. Peterson A4 of eKokuk.

Doctor Bash will speak on "The New Woman of China" at the regular weekly meeting of the Y. W. C. A. held on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. A report of Miss Ruth Paxson B. A. '98, national student secretary for the Y. W. C. A. in China, was also given at this meeting. Part of Miss Paxson's salary is paid by the alumni of the University and part is paid by the Y. W. C. A. The report also told of her work in China.

During the week opportunity will be given to all who wish to make donations to keep this work carried on in China.

ORGANIZATIONS MUST HAVE CONSTITUTIONS APPROVED

Several University organizations have neglected to secure the approval of the social committee and the signature of the president of the University to their constitutions, according to Dean Wilbur J. Teeters, chairman of the social committee.

University regulations stipulate that all organizations, composed of University students, having officers and regular or irregular times of meeting, must submit their list of members and their constitutions to the committee for approval. "Failure to attend to this matter is likely to involve the organization in serious difficulties," said Dean Teeters, "because this approval is the only check the University has on organized activities."

Several complaints have been filed in Dean Teeter's office and he says that there over half a dozen organizations which are violating this regulation.

DRAMA LEAGUE GIVES PYAYS Three One-Act American Dramas Were Staged Tuesday Evening

Three one-act plays of American authorship were staged by the Iowa City center of the Drama League of America in the Little Theatre, third floor of the elementary school building, at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening. Mrs. W. F. Bristol, who is managing these plays for presentation, was assisted by two members of the public speaking department staff, Miss Helene Blattner and Ray E. Holcombe.

"Where But in America," the first play on the evening's program by Oscar M. Wolff, coached by Mr. Holcomb, is a sketch dealing with the servant problem up to date. The part of Mrs. Espenpayne was taken by Mrs. H. Y. Mffett, and that of Mr. Espenpayne by Mr. Albert Ward, Hilda was played by Mildred C. Freeburg of Pomeroy.

The second play, "The Wonder Hat," by Ben Hecht and K. S. Goodman is a modern treatment of the classical continental harlequinade. It was directed by Helene Blattner G of Iowa City. The settings for the play are by Miss Helen Grotewohl of the department of graphic and plastic arts, and the costumes were by Ursula Dunham, '20. Members of the cast were: Harlequin, Romola Latcham G of Iowa City; Pierrrot, Helene Blattner G of Iowa City; Punchinello, Mrs. W. F. Bristol; Columbine, Helen Williams '10, who is now in charge of the Iowa Patriotic League and Correspondence study in the extension division, and Margot, Miss Agnes McKay.

The Drama League had the pleasure of witnessing an old favorite, Francis N. Suepple, play the role of a big, virile Irishman in the last play of the series, "In the Zone," by Eugene O'Neill.

The cast included: Smitty, Ray E. Holcombe, of the department of public speaking, Scotty, Gregory Foley A2 of Rock Rapids; Ivan, A. R. Hammond A4 of Lineville; Yank, L. Kenneth Shumaker, secretary of the extension division; Dricoll, Francis N. Suepple, of Iowa City; and Cocky, Lloyd E. Anderson, S2 of Madrid.

The Drama League hopes to make such evenings as these a more common occurrence among their programs and also hopes to see many more of Iowa City's citizens and students of the University take advantage of the unusual opportunities to study the best in drama afforded by this organization.

Ames—Eighty-one herdsmen are enrolled this quarter, in the special herdsmen's course offered by the agricultural division of Iowa States college. This course is the only one of its kind offered anywhere in the United States.

DR. BOSE GOES TO ORIENT He Will Return to America This Summer—To Make Many Visits

Dr. Suhindra Bose, on leave from the University for one year to make a personal study of problems of world politics, has written that he sailed for the Orient from Marseilles, France, on January 17. His first stop will be at Colomobo, the next at Ceylon, and Singapore. From there he will sail for Java, Siam, and Indo-China. He will also spend some time in China, Manchuria, and Japan. Dr. Bose expects to return to America in time to fill his chautauqua engagements this summer.

Dr. Bose has also made visits to England, France, and Switzerland during his tour. While at Switzerland he visited Geneva where he had the opportunity to confer with several of the leading statesmen who are connected with active work of the League of Nations. Just before sailing from France, he delivered an address at the inauguration of the Indian association of Paris. Ten members of the French Institute and four members of the French cabinet were present in the audience.

WELLSLEY WOMEN MAY NIP COLDS IN "SNEEZE CLOSET"

WELLSLEY, Mass., Feb. 7—A cozy closet to snuff the snuffles and nip the colds of Wesley college women is to be installed at Founder's Hall. The cozy closet is an air-tight little room, lined with zinc and filled with the healing and disinfecting vapors of eucalyptus oil and formaldehyde.

When a student feels a sneeze coming on she will rush into the compartment, shut her eyes, take a few deep breaths, utter a class yell and the pulmonary menace will vanish.

A similar closet was recently tested in Simpson Cottage, the college infirmary. The results convinced the college physician of its value.

A census showed that 341 girls out of 367 had suffered from colds during the last twelve months. The students have been warned to discard the fashion of going about bareheaded on rainy days.

Denecke's 35th Anniversary Sale begins Friday, February 18th

In this small space we are telling the biggest story Denecke's have thus far had the privilege of telling.

Briefly, the story is—

Denecke's 35th Anniversary Sale starts Friday morning, February 18th, at 8:30 a. m.

WAIT FOR IT.

The whole of 1920 saw Denecke's buyers from every department combing the markets of the nation and indeed the world for values to surpass anything ever before hoped for. And they found them.

Remember that prices will not be this low again. We sincerely believe that not only were these purchases made under extraordinary conditions, but that they were made at the lowest of market ebbs.

If it's an Easter frock, or dress, or footwear, or silk, or any of the thousands of things you may need, you will find it here at prices far lower than you expected.

The Anniversary Sale is Denecke's tribute to 35 years of public faith and confidence.

Spring Round-Up

Clay landed on Broadway in the togs he wore in Arizona. They wouldn't do. He went into a store and bought the first suit he saw. In a week he had to buy another . . . he got stung.

And that is just what we do not want you to do . . . get stung. So we are going to have you look around thoroughly before you buy.

The Spring Round-up starts to-morrow but to-morrow is only look day . . . we will sell only if you insist upon buying.

And there will be more than two hundred advance season Hart Schaffner & Marx suits for you to look at, suits in new patterns, new colors, and new models. And the price will be not more than half what Clay paid on Broadway.

Of course, if you find something you simply must have, why, we let you have it.

PAN HELLENIC WILL PLAY
NEXT GAME FEBRUARY 12

The Pan-Hellenic basket ball schedule has been greatly up-set by the conflicting schedule of University activities. On Monday evening there were two fraternity games scheduled; Phi Delta Theta vs. Sigma Nu, and Delta Tau Delta vs. Phi Kappa Psi. These games could not be held because of the Iowa-Minesota game. Last night games between Beta Theta Phi vs. Kappa Sigma, and Sigma Alpha Epsilon vs. Sigma Chi had to be postponed because of the Boy Scouts conference which was held in the gym at that time.

It will be necessary for these teams to play their games at some time later in the season, but no time has been set as yet.

The next fraternity game will be played at the armory February 12 at 1:30. It will be between Alpha Tau Omega and Delta Tau Delta.

BIG TEN HOPES MAY GO TO ILLINOIS FIVE

sin will perhaps hang on a while longer. One of them will probably still be among the possibilities when the two meet at Madison on February 26.

Iowa's defeat Monday night was a disappointment. It has been almost as rare a thing for Minesota to win at Iowa City as it has been for Chicago, and those who saw Iowa defeat Chicago the preceding week could not but hope for a second Conference victory. Iowa can make at best but an average showing now. With the exception of the two games with Northwestern, it plays nothing but first division teams from now on. It has three games away from home, two of them against strong teams. To finish with a better percentage than last year the team must win two of the three games away from home and all of the three at home. This is a hard job.

Chicago Squeal Sounds Bad
The game against Chicago is, however, a great source of consolation for Iowa students. Chicago has a real team, and it played real basketball January 31. The Iowa team met it just as it met and beat a strong Chicago team last winter. There was an element of luck in the game just as there is in every game, and the margin of superiority was slight. There was, however, a real margin of superiority, and Iowa had that margin. The team played hard and fought hard, and the victory was pleasurable and creditable.

The defeat raised a miniature tempest in the University of Chicago "Daily Maroon". A number of letters were published in that paper last week condemning Mr. Stagg and his methods. It is hard to think of anything that could make a poorer impression on outsiders than this performance of the Chicago paper. It has been generally interpreted on the Iowa campus as the squeal of a poor loser. That interpretation is natural but probably incorrect. The editor probably never once considered how the wail would sound outside the Chicago campus. He probably published the letters not to excuse defeats but to effect a revolution in Chicago athletics. But he should have had sense enough to realize how his yawp would sound at Illinois, Michigan, and Iowa.

He should also have had sense enough not to make a village high school attack on a coach in the middle of the season just because he loses games. He also might have had enough real loyalty to a man who was in charge of Chicago athletics before ninety-nine percent of the present crop of undergraduates were born, to refrain from vicious newspaper attack against him.

Students at Iowa have little concern in Chicago's coaching problems. It really makes little difference to them whether the name of the Chicago basketball coach is Page or Stagg. Iowa has managed to win from both. It is, however, very much the concern of the students at Iowa and at every other Conference university that they see just how bad such a performance as that of the "Maroon" appears to outsiders. Seeing this, they should apply the lesson to their own coaching difficulties when they arise. No coach can always turn out winning teams. When seasons of failure arrive, the coach ought to get loyal support while the season is going on, and his past record should be remembered. The "Daily Maroon" has furnished us some terrible small town stuff. Let it be a horrible example to the rest of the colleges.

Incidentally it is worth remembering that the howlers at Chicago probably misrepresent the spirit of the whole university. As a graduate of Chicago, the writer believes that this is the case. If it is not, it should be.

Lincoln's Philosophy

In observing February 12th as Lincoln's Birthday, we recall his following words: "The way for a young man to rise is to improve himself every way he can."

The young man possessing ambition and a bank account at the First National Bank, is usually assured the respect of his community, and, therefore, headed well toward success.
