WOMEN LAUNCH PLAN FOR MORE SOCIAL POWER

Project to be Considered by Committee in Meeting
Held Tonight

IT MEANS SELF-GOVERNMENT

Would Establish Women's Self-Government Association — Could Recommend Expulsion — Go to Popular Vote Next — Proposal Endorsed by Women's Association

Campaign for a women's self-government association will start with a resolution to be presented at a meeting of the University social committee tonight, to extend the power of the women's council to include social control and discipline. If the project is approved by the committee it will be brought to a vote of all University women some time before spring vacation, probably March 23 or 24.

The women's association has evolved the point system for women, and the sponsor system. The power of self-government would extend its authority to the regulation of all matters of student conduct not falling under the jurisdiction of the faculty, together with those which may be referred to it by the faculty. In the case of expulsion, action of the council would probably take the form of recommendation to the committee on discipline.

Could Enter Association

Endorsement of the proposal by the social committee and its passage at a general election would make the University eligible to membership in the Middle Western Inter-collegiate Association for Women's Self-Government, which will hold a convention at the University of Wisconsin in April.

Members of the Middle Western association now are: Cornell university, De Pauw, Grinnell, Illinois, Michigan, Milwaukee-Downer, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, Ohio State, St. Olaf, Washington University, and Wisconsin.

Suggested Before

The proposal of women's self government has been under consideration by the women's council since the fall of 1919, and other projects undertaken by it have been to the end of building up an organization strong enough to maintain self-government. The Women's Council of the Women's Association is composed of representatives from twenty-nine districts in Iowa City, elected by women students in those districts, and by representatives from each women's organization on the campus, all elected annually.

Two years ago, in the Spring of 1919 a system of student self-government for both men and women was proposed. A long and detailed constitution was submitted, but it was not adequately explained to the student body, and failed in the popular election.

"Not Revolutionary"—Mrs. Aurner

The proposal which will go to the social committee tonight is backed by the association, and Staff and Circle, honor society for senior women. Mrs. Nellie S. Aurner, dean of women, expressed herself yesterday as heartily in favor of the plan.

"I believe," Mrs. Aurner said, "that many do not realize how much self-government the women here already have. Carrier hall, the sororities, and women's pan-Hellenic are practically self governing, and adoption of this plan would not be much more than a formal recognition of the system that is already in operation. It would not in any way involve anything revolutionary."

WEATHER REPORT

For Iowa: Generally unchanged. Severe winds in some localities.

PROFESSOR SHOEL OF CHICAGO TO SPEAK ON CATHEDRAL OF REIMS

Prof. Frank Shoel of the University of Chicago will give an illustrated lecture on "The Cathedral of Reims" in the natural science auditorium on Friday, March 18, at 8 o'clock.

Professor Shoel will show slides of the cathedral as it was before and after it was shelled by the Germans.

This cathedral is the one in which all the French kings were consecrated and the one about which many stories are centered concerning Joan of Arc.

The cathedral was noted for its wonderful Gothic architecture, its sculpture, tapestries, stained glass and beautiful chimes. Before the war there were over 10,000 figures in the cathedral, but nearly all were totally destroyed. Professor Shoel is French but his lecture will be given in English.

ROBERT GRIGGS SPEAKS TONIGHT

Talk to be Accompanied by Photographic Views of The Far North

Colored illustrations of all his expeditions in Alaska will give the lecture by Robert F. Griggs of the National Geographic Society at the natural science auditorium tonight at 8 p. m. an added interest. Mr. Griggs will show slides of the "Valley of 10,000 Smokes" which he and his party discovered on their trip in 1915 and also some pictures taken soon after the eruption of Katmai Mt. in 1912. These slides are actual photographs of the country through which they traveled.

Professor Robert B. Wylie, head of the botany department, was on the same expedition with Mr. Griggs in 1913. They were members of a party sent out by the government to study the marine seaweeds of Alaska as a source of potash. This expedition was called the United States Kelp expedition. After this expedition was completed, Mr. Griggs made a trip to Alaska for the next four summers. His party on these four trips was financed by the National Geographic society, and so they were able to do extensive research work.

Mr. Griggs was chosen to give the honor lecture at the national meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Science which was held at Chicago during the holidays last December. This is a great honor because the lecture which is given at this particular meeting is regarded as the best lecture on the program for the meetings. At the present time the Iowa Academy of Science is trying to book Mr. Griggs for a lecture at their state meeting which will be held at Indianola.

Mr. Griggs is now on a tour of Western universities and he comes here from the University of Wisconsin where he lectured last night.

"ASSISTED BY SADIE" WILL BE GIVEN TOMORROW NIGHT

"Assisted by Sadie" a comedy of mystery in four acts will be given tomorrow night at the Presbyterian church at 8 o'clock.

Gerhard B. Noll A2 of Waukon and Margery Mullane are taking the leading parts. An orchestra composed of Richard R. Foster A2 of Cedar Rapids, Gertrude Owen A4 of Columbus Junction, Howard A. Denbo A2 of Iowa City, Leora A. Ashbacher, A1 of Waukon, Charles A. Nicoll A1 of Clinton, and M. S. Bamalam will furnish the music before the play and between acts.

Tickets are being sold by members of the cast and by professor Ernest J. Ashbaugh's troop of boy scouts. Admission price is thirty and fifty cents.

TICKETS FOR HOP SOLD OUT

All Plans Made for Annual Senior Formal to Be Held Tonight

All tickets for the Senior Hop, the third University formal of the year, which will be held this evening in the University armory have been sold, according to Charles E. Glasgow A4 of Shenandoah, chairman of the committee. The number of couples is limited to 200.

Programs were distributed yesterday from Whetstone's. They are tan leather in the form of card cases. The state seal and 1921 are embossed on the cover. They are tied with old gold cord.

Two Orpheum acts from Cedar Rapids will be the features of the evening. These acts are to be a surprise according to Glasgow, and will be staged early in the evening to accommodate the onlookers.

The decorations will be mainly of ivy, roses intertwined over lattice-work. Paul X. Smith A3 of Cherokee has charge of this work. Three arches will mark off the dancing floor. The entrance will be formed by two large pillars. A vine covered arch will conceal the orchestra platform. Illumination will come from twelve lights dimmed by rectangular chandeliers.

The new Ingelman orchestra of Cedar Rapids will furnish the music. The hours will be from 9 to 1.

The chaperones will be Mr. and Mrs. D. O. McGovney, Prof. and Mrs. R. M. Perkins, Prof. and Mrs. C. A. Phillips, Prof. and Mrs. C. O. Ruggles, and Dr. and Mrs. Erling Thoen.

The committee in charge of the Senior Hop is composed of Charles F. Glasgow A4 of Shenandoah, chairman, Weir M. Murphy, Henry W. Wormley, C. E. Hamilton, Everett E. Smith, Louis Tobin, Roy W. Mayne, R. O. Stutter, M. L. Bank, W. H. Larkin, W. L. Scott, Lester M. Dyke, D. R. Wright, Harold S. Case, James F. Gerken, F. R. Graham, and Frederick B. Woodruff.

NINE TEAMS TO SWIM IN MEET

High Schools Enter Seventy Men in Competition for State Championship

Iowa aquatic fans will have the chance to witness the first state high school water tournament ever staged here and the second ever held in the state tonight and tomorrow night in the armory pool. Seventy swimmers representing nine schools will compete for the state championship and for the silver cup presented by the athletic board which goes along with it.

The teams which will go into the preliminaries tonight are: East high, North high, and West high of Des Moines, Clinton, Marshalltown, Cedar Rapids, Muscatine, Iowa-City high, and University high. Four of these, Clinton, Cedar Rapids, and North and West high look to be on a par, with about equal chances of winning the cup.

West high walked away with an easy victory at the Ames meet a month ago but since that time the other teams have had time to rebuild their teams and to add new men.

According to Coach Armbruster who is taking charge of the tournament, state high school tank records should be established in every event. "The men who win the semi finals will have a day in which to rest and this will allow them to do their best Saturday night," said Coach Armbruster.

Drawings will be made this afternoon.

SWEENEY, SMITH, AND HUNTER WILL WRESTLE IN SEMI-FINALS TODAY

Bloomington, Ind., March 10 (Long distance call to the Daily Iowan): Sweeney, Smith, and Hunter of the University of Iowa wrestling team will wrestle in the semi-finals here tomorrow afternoon of the Western intercollegiate wrestling championship match.

Sweeney won over Long of Northwestern by a fall and Vana lost to Myers of Northwestern on decision. Smith and Hunter won their matches and Captain White lost.

Other representatives in the semi-finals will be Indiana 3 men, Illinois 1, Iowa State 1, Northwestern 2, Ohio 1, Oklahoma 1, Nebraska 1.

The semi-finals will be held tomorrow afternoon and the finals tomorrow night. The match at present stands with Iowa and Indiana a tie and Northwestern a close second.

AMES GAME TO BE HARD FIGHT

Aggies Keyed Up With Hope of Beating Iowa for Claim
To Championship

Iowa will have to travel fast to beat Ames in basketball tonight, if they do succeed in accomplishing that feat, for, although the Aggies have been on the downward trend lately they can be expected to deliver at their best when they meet the Hawkeyes.

Coach Kent has drilled his men this week on passing on the floor, teamwork, and shooting with the intention of getting them keyed up to the best possible condition for tonight's game, as a defeat would mean a tie with Iowa for state championship honors, and losing before the sixteen visiting high school teams would add another sting to the defeat.

Ames is also eager to establish a record of beating Iowa twice in succession for only two victories over the Hawkeyes are on the records. Iowa has staged a come back since the last defeat by a score of 20 to 16 at the hands of the Cyclones, and will give the best they have in an effort to balance up that defeat, especially since they were outplayed by Ames throughout the entire game.

If the 1920 Iowa basketball is to make anything of a record they will be obliged to meet Ames tonight and beat Northwestern Monday night. By winning from Ames tonight they will avoid dropping below the present record and if Northwestern is beaten they will finish with a percentage of .545 which is 45 higher than last year's record, the best so far accomplished by an Iowa team.

Captain Bob Kaufmann, the basis of the Iowa defense, which has attracted considerable attention in the sport world this year, can be depended upon for one of his best performances tonight, as this is the last time he will line up against Ames.

Led by Captain Kaufmann Iowa should be able to stop Shepard and Innes at forwards while Woodward, the fast Ames guard, will be watched as he was able to go down the floor regularly for shots in the game at Iowa City.

PROFESSOR SLOAN SPEAKS ON MODERN NOVEL WRITERS

Prof. Samuel B. Sloan, of the English department, said, in his talk before the Y. W. C. A. members Wednesday, that for the history nineteenth century social life, people will soon look to Hamlin Garland for the portrayal of life in the middle west; to George W. Cable for portrayal of Southern life; to Mary W. Freeman, for Eastern life and to Bret Hart for the portrayal of Western life.

Place — Kitzmiller, Stout and Andrews Win Honorable Mention

"The Bird Man," written by Mrs. Myrl Lewark Bristol G of Iowa City, won first place in the one-act play-writing contest conducted by the University Players, Charles B. Gould A3 of Des Moines, president of the Players, announced yesterday afternoon.

A prize of $50, membership in the University Players, and the privilege of playing the leading part in the production of the play will be awarded to Mrs. Bristol as winner of the contest. Second place was given to "The Big Blue Book," by Lillian Hawler, and third to "It Takes a Thief," by Archie N. MacVicar '10 of Des Moines. Honorable mention was also given to "The Idol Breaker" by Dale W. Kitzmiller L2 of Parkersburg, "One Evening," by George L. Stout A4 of Winterset, and "The Strike," by Harold Andrews A3 of Des Moines.

Mrs. Bristol, wife of Prof. William F. Bristol of the extension division, is a graduate student of English in the University and is now completing her work for a master's degree. She received her B. A. at Indiana University where she became a member of Delta Delta Delta and Theta Sigma Phi, honorary journalistic sorority. She was leading lady there in her senior class play, "Milestones", and since coming to Iowa City has been actively connected with the Iowa City center of the Drama league of America. She has coached plays for that organization for the last two years.

"The Bird Man" deals with an old besides taking part in some of them. man in Indiana about whom she had heard and who found his hopes and disappointments in his invention and construction of an aeroplane at the time the Wright brothers were becoming famous. It is a strong story of pathetic emotions and shows true power in development. According to Professor Bristol, the play was begun at 12:30 at night and completed for his inspection the next morning at the breakfast table.

Twenty-four plays were legitimately entered in the contest and they ranged from very good to very poor, according to Prof. Percival C. Hunt of the department of English, chairman of the play reading committee. Professor Hunt said yesterday that the plays were judged from the standpoint of their literary quality, their acting possibilities, and the ideas which they embodied. He added that no question arose among the judges as to the ranking of the plays. The other two members of the committee were Prof. Edward Laurer and Prof. Edward C. Mabie.

According to Gould the three plays best adapted to production by the University Players will be given as soon as possible and their authors may designate those who they recommend for the casts.

J. A. MARUTH GIVES TALK
BEFORE COMMERCE CLUB

"Retail Trade and Store Management" was the subject of the talk given by J. O. Maruth to the Commerce Club at a meeting held Wednesday night at 8 o'clock.

"Finance, production, and distribution are three important steps to be observed in the building of a business" according to Mr. Maruth. "The buyer of a store must have a proper assortment and buy carefully."

TEACHERS MEET BEGINS TODAY

Conference of History Teachers Hold First Session This Morning

The conference of secondary school teachers of history, which is meeting here today and tomorrow will open its sessions with an address of welcome by President Walter A. Jessup at nine o'clock in the liberal arts assembly hall, Prof. A. M. Schlesinger presiding. The next address on the program will be "The Point of View of the College Education" by Dean William F. Russell of the college of education. "The Point of View of the School Superintendent" will be described by Mr. Ray Latham, the superintendent of schools of Ida Grove. Prof. O. E. Klingaman of the extension division will give the view of the public on matters of instruction in history. "The Point of View of the Text Book Writer" will be presented by Prof. Willis Mason West formerly of the history department of the University of Minnesota. Following this there will be questions and discussions.

Assistant Professor Donald L. McMurry will preside at the afternoon session to begin at two o'clock. At this time the new social emphasis in history will be presented. "The Social Viewpoint in History" will be given by Prof. Daniel C. Knowlton of Lincoln High school, Teachers College New York. "The Unconventional in History" will be the subject of the address given by Prof. Gilbert G. Benjamin. Miss Bessie Pierce will talk on "How Social History can be Presented."

This evening at six o'clock a subscription dinner will be given at the Pagoda tea shop. Reservations may be made by anyone who wishes to come. These must be made by four o'clock with any member of the history department. Prof. Ezra Thayer Towne of the department of economics at the University of North Dakota will give an address following the dinner on "Keeping Your Feet on the Ground."

At eight o'clock Miss Clara M. Daley will preside at the meeting when Doctor Knowlton will talk on "The Use of the Concrete in History Teaching" and Professor West will talk about "The Ideals of the History Teacher." Following these an open forum will take place.

Prof. Clyde O. Ruggles, director of the school of commerce will preside at the meeting Saturday morning. The teaching of social problems will be the general topic to be considered. Associate Professor Clarence M. Case will discuss "Social History in the High School", Professor Towne, "The Practical Course in Social Problems" and Prof. Harry G. Plum, "Iowa Legislation and the State Committee on Americanization."

ARMENIAN STUDENT SERVED TWO YEARS WITH TURKISH ARMY

James Sarkisian of Kiliss, Armenia, who has recently enrolled as a freshman in the college of liberal arts, was forced to serve two years in the Turkish army in hospitals along the Bagdad railroad, and, after escaping by bribing the guard with a 50-cent piece, joined the British army where he served several months.

Sarkisian, who speaks English fluently, having studied it in a mission school in Armenia, has been in the United States for several months. He was a helper in the distribution of supplies in the Near East relief following his release from the British army. His father is a doctor in the Turkish army at the present time.

Sarkisian intends to study pharmacy after he has finished his requirements in the college of liberal arts. Vahan G. Varbedian S4, of Detroit, Michigan, was also a former resident of Kiliss.

MISS COTTRELL TO ATTEND MEETING AT DES MOINES

Miss Louise Cottrell, head of the social welfare department of the extension division, will leave for Des Moines Saturday to attend a committee meeting of the Iowa state conference of social work. Miss Cottrell is secretary of the conference and is on the executive committee. She will give a report of the cities which desire the regional conferences this spring and the schedule for these conferences will be decided upon at this meeting.

THE PRIZE PLAYS

Coincident with the announcement in this morning's paper of the three prize plays in the University Players' one-act play contest, it might be well to bring out some points to be remembered in connection with such a contest.

A similar contest by the dramatic club of an eastern university received the attention of a half column of comment in the Boston Transcript. The prize awarded in that case was $25.

The intention of the University Players in offering the $50 prize was to create an active interest on the campus play writing and producing. The prize itself was offered more in the way of an inducement than as an end.

According to the judges several of the plays were of comparatively high merit, taking in consideration reasonable standards of judgement. The three plays which will be produced by the Players in conjunction with the authors, will be staged at a minimum of expense, and it is hoped with no charge to the audience other than that sufficient to cover the bare expenses of production.

Without a doubt a similar contest will be carried on next year by the University Players. Although twenty-four plays were submitted in the present contest, two or three times that number might well be forthcoming next year. The University Players have shown the proper initiative and spirit in promoting such a contest. Other organizations would do well to follow with similar contests in their particular lines of activity.

TAMING THEM

Holding to its ruling that any form of hazing, involving corporal punishment must be penalized, the University of Maine faculty conditionally suspended fifty-six members of the sophomore class for running some freshmen through a paddle gauntlet. It is reported that no one was hurt and that the freshmen made no complaint, but the letter of the rule was observed.

Corporal punishment as a means of tempering the freshman ego is becoming obsolete. There is every reason that it should. This ego is the product of mental miscalculation and the irrepressibility of youth, and perhaps neither insight nor age comes from a paddle. The freshman should be given some humility no doubt, but if that can not come by a wiser and more direct route than a strong right arm and piece of pine, perhaps he is entitled to his egotism.

A DOG'S LIFE

Charles W. Quetsche of Toledo, O., has given President Harding a blooded airedale terrier, "Caswell Laddie Boy."

Time will come when Washington newspaper correspondents will wish that Laddie Boy would talk, but he probably never will. He will never be quoted in official dispatches, never be the butt of scathing editorials, the object of a bomb-tossing plot, or the victim of political intrigue.

Yet Laddie Boy is a distinguished figure. He is, perhaps, the first dog representative at Washington; already he has been admitted to state conferences; he has indicated what his foreign policy will include definite entanglements with cats, rats, and all other strangers; he is the first dog of the land.

THE LISTENING POST

Truth, they say, is stranger than fiction. If that is the case, reality must be funnier than paragraphic humor. You have heard, no doubt, can't be said of many of the paragraphs written by those of us who like to style ourselves colyum conductors. There is seldom little of the artificial in the real; humor, on the other hand, is seldom free from false notes and situations.

Let us then, this morning, study reality in an effort to find some true humor. You have heard, no doubt, of the famous personal column of the Times of London; it is as amusing as "A Line O' Type or Two," "The Sun Dial," "The Conning Tower," "The Bowling Green," or "The Listening Post."

"28—You were not thinking of my happiness were you? Jealousy is a cruel thing, and because I understand I forgive."

"Crimson—Alas! too true it is that beauty often persuades where reason eloquently pleads in vain. Dandini."

Does the class care to continue? If so, read on. The material is furnished you must find humor as best you can. We cannot supply all the brains; you understand.

"Pentagon—Thes more steadfast shall I stand, as the more he tries. Y"

"Bunny — All those beautiful dream castles have collapsed and I wish I was buried in the ruins, for it is the greatest blow of all having striven to achieve that which would have placed us on a pedestal in the niche of fame. Triangle"

"Niggah—Now you've caused it. Crow"

"The Widgets. Jazz band of three. Plays anywhere and anything."

"Nina—It places me in an exceedingly unpleasant position, and unless you enlighten me I shall be forced to draw my own conclusions."

Not so good, we hear you say. And so we're going to follow

"Gil-Try again; you may have better luck next time."

STUDENT MEN GET READY FOR SPRING PIN HANGING DRIVE

The great spring drive is on! The process of elimination and natural selection has begun.

This girl or that, that is the question. A different girl at every dance and a harem for the movies—that is well and good for the preliminaries—but ah, the season of canoeing and of picnics and of moonlight strolls and, withal, of hanging pins, then it is different.

Every girl has had her chance; she has been given opportunity to try her charms, her mannerisms, to prove her honor and play her game. Now, if she has failed or played the wrong card—well, the fates are cruel.

Snobbish, conceited, indifferent, or shameless; too prissy, too prudish, or bold; these are the seasures that every man carries in his heart as he polishes his pin and squares away for the great spring drive.

TRACK TRYOUTS HELD SATURDAY

Coach To Pick Team To Go To Indoor Meet At Northwestern March 18-19

Tryouts will be held on the outdoor track next Saturday by Coach Bresnahan to pick the team which will represent Iowa at the annual indoor conference meet to be held at Patten gymnasium at Northwestern, March 18 and 19.

The indoor conference meet is one of the important meets of the year, in which all the conference schools, and a number of outsiders, have entered teams. It has not been decided how many Iowa men will be entered but it is probable that all of the men who placed with promise at the Illinois meet will be entered.

The track is being recoated with a mixture of fine cinders and clay at the present time and it is probable that it will not be in the best of condition at the time of the tryouts.

Sometime next week Coach Bresnahan will issue a call for freshmen track men. The freshmen will work out with varsity, and in this way receive experience for next year. At the time that the call is issued for freshmen, a call will be issued for all men, both freshmen and upper classmen who are interested in cross country. Coach Bresnahan is anxious to have all distance men go out for cross country next fall in order to get development for distance running.

NINE HIGH SCHOOLS TO ENTER SWIMMING MEET

noon at a conference of the coaches. Eight teams are entered in the relay, which should be the feature event of the meet. The 40 yard dash will be contested by thirty-five men, the 220 yard swim by thirty men, the 100 yard dash by 34 men, the 100 yard breast and the 100 yard back stroke by 15 men, the fancy dive by 20 men, and the plunge for distance by 35 men.

Lusk, Taylor, and Ungles of Des Moines look to be the strongest in the dash events; Traeger of Clinton, in the plunge for distance, and Swenson of Cedar Rapids in the back stroke. Taylor of West high Des Moines was the individual point winner in Ames meet.

The medals which will be awarded the individual point winners and the winning team are on display in Whetstone's window. Besides these, the Eels club will present an Italian silk bathing suit to the individual point winner. The meet starts at 7:30 tonight, and the finals will be staged at the same time tomorrow night. The admission for the preliminaries is 25 cents and 50 cents for the finals.

WILL PRESENT NEW FEATURES

Original Numbers Prepared
For Engineers' Show
March 15 and 16

As an overture for the engineers show which is to be given next Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, a nine piece orchestra composed of engineers will play "The Mikados". A sensational novelty, together with a new Iowa song "Loyalty" will be given by the Mecca band, a special band for this occasion, under the leadership of Dwight Shore S4 of Eldon. "Loyalty" will also be used as a quartet number by the Four Harmonizers, who will give several selections.

Vincent Hoffman S2 of Maquoketa will give a chalk talk in a series of rapid cartoons. He has shown much ability along this line and promises some good entertainment. Another number is an engineers sextet of saxophones.

Martin Flentje S5 of Sheldon and Glenn Thompson S2 of Belmont who played opposite each other in last year's show, will give an Illurian national costume dance with Illurian airs on the national musical instruments of that country which will be played by Robert Luscombe S4 of Iowa City.

In addition to these numbers, vocal solos and chorus numbers which are a part of the play will be given.

EXTENSION DIVISION WILL MEET HERE APRIL 7, 8, AND 9

The National association of university extension divisions will meet in Iowa City April 7, 8 and 9. Every state university in the United States having an extension division will be represented in this convention. There will be a program which will be announced later. This convention is in charge of the extension division of the University of Iowa and will be carried on under the direction of Prof. O. E. Klingaman, head of the division.

Easter Suits

No woman who sees the New Suits can entertain any doubt at all about wanting at least one.

They are so refined, so radically original in style, from suits that have graced seasons before.

Garments like you saw displayed at our Opening Tuesday evening.

Fine new Twill Cord, Poiret Twill and Tricotine Suits, mostly Navy Blue, daintily embroidered. Prices are so reasonable there is no reason to delay buying, each:

$39.50; $45.00; $49.50; to $100.00

Fine Serge, Tricotine and Velour Checks, each:

$29.50; $35.00 and $39.50

Serge, Tricotine, Jersey, Tweed Mixtures and Sport Suits are priced very low, each:

$15.00; $16.75; $22.50 and $25.00

Novelty Blouses That Discriminating Women Will Love to Add to Their New Easter Wardrobes—

Don't fail to see the new Blouses which we now have on exposition for a more dazzling array of models than this is seldom shown. Most of them are exquisitely embroidered or glistening with bead decorations.

The exceedingly moderate price makes it easy to possess several of them $3.95 to $25.00

Because Easter comes much earlier this year than usual it is advisable to choose NOW.

Petticoat for Easter

Designers felt that Silk Petticoats should be just as attractive as the garments they are worn beneath so they exceeded themselves in making these pretty. However, in their zeal for beauty they have not overlooked the practicability. These Petticoats fashioned of taffetas and Jersey silks conform to the lines of this season's silhouette and they are of a quality that assures long and gratifying service.

SYSTEM OF COUNTING POINTS FOR OUTSIDE ACTIVITY IS CHANGED

The point system for the women of the University which has been in effect since last fall has been revised by the committee in charge, and according to Edna Spaulding A4 of Avoca, copies of this revision will be sent to all the women's organizations on the campus so that they may check up on their members as to number of points before they hold elections.

There is a limit to the number of points any one person may have at any one time. The limit varies according to the classes; senior are allowed thirty points, juniors twenty-five, sophomores twenty and freshmen fifteen. This system has been established for the purpose of dividing up the honors on the campus and to lighten the burdens of other students.

Points count only for the time that an office is held and in the case of a literary society play only for the time of rehearsals.

The offices with the allotted number of points follows:

Literary societies; members changed from 1 point to 3, president, 12; vice-president, 10; treasurer 10, secretary 5, delegate to forensic council 5.

Y. W. C. A.; officers, president 20, vice-president 10, cabinet executive council 10, whole cabinet 5, president of freshman commission 10, members 5; committee members 2. Glee club; members 2, president 3, business manager 5. Orchestra; members 2. Departmental clubs; president 5, other officers 2. Professional honorary fraternity; president 10, membership 3, other officers 5. O. I. C.; president 5, membership 1. Literary society play; major part 10, minor part 6. I. W. A. A.; member 2, president 12, board members 8, sports leader 3. Pan Hellenic; president 12, secretary 3. Staff and Circle; 5. University council; president 20, other officers 7, members 5. University Players; member 2, major part in play 12, minor part 8.

president 10, secretary 5, treasurer 5, chairman of sponsor system 10, chairman of point system 10, district captain 10. Women's forensic council; president 12, treasurer 5. University social committee 5. Class officers; freshman, sophomore or junior class president 5, other class offices 2. Senior president 12, other senior offices 5.

Party committees; chairman 5, senior committees; chairman 5. Currier hall organization; president 10, campaign committee 2. Hawkeye; staff 10, editor in chief 20, business manager 20. Daily Iowan; editor in chief 20, business manager 15, editorial staff 8, Iowan trustees 1.

One sometimes feels like shouting, "O, art, what crimes are committed in thy name!" It is reported that the awkward shoes in which Charlie Chaplin does his comedies, have been insured for $50,000 against fire, theft, and property damage.

KAPPA PHI CLUB INITIATES FORTY-FOUR AT BANQUET

Kappa Phi, the club composed of the Methodist women students of the University, held initiation Wednesday evening, March 9, at 5 o'clock at the Methodist church for forty-four pledges. Following the initiation the annual banquet was held at the Pagoda tea shop.

Eda Kelley G. of Allerton, president of Kappa Phi, acted as toastmaster. Miss A. Maude King, superintendent of the Bidwell Deaconess Training School at Des Moines, spoke on the subject of "Open Doors." Lucile Reynolds A4 of Oskaloosa sang a solo.

The new officers elected are: president, Anna Singer A2 of Sheldon; vice-president, Evelyn Mantle A3 of Goldfield; secretary, Dorothy Middleton A3 of Eagle Grove; treasurer, Josephine Ainsworth A2 of West Union; chaplain, Amanda Johnson A of Evansville, Minn.; marshal, Irene Kessler A2 of Odebolt; and sergeant-at-arms, Carol Henning A2 of Scranton.
