FORMER IOWA MAN SPEAKS HERE MONDAY

John C. Merriman To Speak On "The Antiquity of Man in California"

FORMER DEAN AT CALIFORNIA

In President of Carnegie Institution—Newest found of America Has Studied Fossil Mammals on Pacific Coast for Twenty Years

On Monday morning at 4 o'clock, Mr. Merriman will make his address at the natural science auditorium. He will remain in Iowa City until Monday afternoon.

Mr. Merriman was born in Iowa but now resides in Berkley, California. For twenty years he has been engaged in the study of the recent and past life of the Pacific coast. This region furnishes one of the most complete collections of the higher and more recent types of animal life. In connection with this region he has found in the western hemisphere. In 1919 he was declared an honorary member of the National Research Council. He is also a member of the honorary society of the American Philosophical Society.

STUDENTS CONTRIBUTE TO APRIL NUMBER OF HUMOR JOURNAL

Something different in Frolicks will be presented in the April number, which will appear April 22, according to Professor Raymond Peterson, circulation manager.

The new number will be composed largely of contributions from the student body as a result of the recent campaign for material for this issue. Renewed efforts on the part of the students will be required to preserve the interest of the journal.

Part of the proceeds from the sale of this number will be turned over to the Iowa Women's Press Club, which will handle the sale of the magazine.

CAREERS AND KINGS HOLD CARNIVAL AT ANNUAL APRIL FOLLIES IN DECORATED MIRROR ROOM

The theme of this year's event is "What's That Old Song?" and will have the faculty and students of the university as well as the many guests of the evening entertained in a fancy setting.

The program, which will begin at 7:30 o'clock, will consist of a series of short music numbers, spoken words, and of course, the annual Mardi Gras parade.

The theme and decorations are the result of the efforts of the students' women's gymnasium.

Strollers will be in a Thousand Hands, band in costume, and all of the men and women will be in traditional Mardi Gras attire.

The program will be concluded with a grand finale, "The Return of the Strollers," and the university community will be invited to attend.

Sculpture His Hobby

At a meeting of the women's council held Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. R. M. Hemy, the women's association was entertained. The women were entertained on April 12 and 13 in the literal arts auditorium of the University, with a number of this association through the courtesy of Professor Raymond Peterson, of the University of California, has come into contact with the region in great abundance.
