300 ENTRIES IN STUNT CARNIVAL

Relay Carnival Will be Held Before the Coe-Iowa Baseball Game

Approximately 300 men are entered in the different events of the First Annual Relay Carnival, to be held on Iowa Field, Saturday afternoon, April 9. The first event, which will be the preliminary in the 100 yard dash, will start at 1:30 p. m. sharp. Howard H. Jones, director of athletics, has announced that year tickets will admit the holder to both the Relay Carnival and to the Coe-Iowa game which will immediately follow. Single admission tickets for the two events will sell for fifty cents. Programs containing a list of the different events and their respective entrants will be on sale at the field Saturday afternoon.

E. G. Schroeder will be head referee and starter. Contestants found purposely jostling, tripping, or cutting in on any other men, will be disqualified by the judges.

Contestants in the interfraternity, the intersorority, the inter-literary society relay races will wear the color of the organization which they represent.

Practically every academic fraternity and one professional fraternity have entered teams in the interfraternity relay. The athletic department will present the winner of this race with a silver cup which they will have the privilege of keeping for one year. Most of the fraternity teams have been working out on the track every night and judging from the good form which they are displaying, the race will be very closely contested. Many old I-men, who have had their three years limit of varsity track, expect to carry their fraternities' colors next Saturday.

Varsity track men as well as any man who is attending the University are eligible to enter any of the special events, which will be: pole vault, high jump, running broad jump, shot put, discus throw, hammer throw, javelin throw, 100 yard dash, 120 yard high hurdles, 220 yard low hurdles. A feature of the special events will be the 440 yard walk, in which several varsity track stars are entered. Blue ribbons will be given to the winners in the special events.

The first event of the afternoon will be the preliminaries in the 100 yard dash, at 1:30 p. m. sharp. This will be one of the special events. At 1:40 the Grade school relay will start. This will be a relay race between teams of four men each representing the Horace Mann, Henry Sabin, St. Patrick's, and Longfellow grade schools, respectively. The 120 yard low hurdles will start at 1:50 p. m. The finals in the hundred yard dash will be next on the program.

Literary society relay race which will start at 2:10 will be contested by teams of four men each, representing Philomathean, Irving Institute, and Zetaganian literary societies. The military company relay will start at 2:20 p. m. Teams representing each military company in the R. O. T. C. unit will compete in this race. The 220 yard low hurdle and the quarter

WOMEN TO TRYOUT FOR DEBATING TEAM TODAY

The tryouts for the women's debating team, which will debate Indiana, are to be held this afternoon from four to six o'clock in the natural science auditorium. All University women are eligible. The judges will be Professor Edward C. Mable, head of the public speaking department, Miss Margaret Sherman, instructor in public speaking, and Robert W. West, associate professor in public speaking. The question for debate is, Resolved; That the Philippines should be granted independence within one year.

APRIL ISSUE OF FRIVOL TO APPEAR ON CAMPUS TODAY

Spring number of Frivol is out today. The next to the last issue of the University humorous magazine, typifying the spirit of springtime on the campus will be placed on sale in all colleges during the entire day.

The sale of this number of the magazine will be in charge of Tau Pi Kappa, the newly formed organization for the boosting of University activities. A certain percentage of the amount obtained from the sale of Frivol is to be turned over to Tau Pi Kappa, who plan to devote it to the Armenian relief fund.

Featuring a fourcolor Springtime cover, many drawings, skits and poems, this issue is pronounced the best of the year by those students who have read the magazine in advance. A great deal of the material of this issue has been contributed by students other than staff members. From these contributors, the winners of the recent contest for Frivol material have been selected and the names of these winners will appear in today's Frivol.

SEALS CLUB TO SWIM TONIGHT

Women's Swimming Organization Will Give Exhibition at Their Gymnasium

The strenuous practice which the Seal's club, honorary women's swimming organization, put through at 6 p. m. last evening bids fair to warrant a remarkable demonstration at their first exhibition to the public to be given at 7:45 tonight at the women's gymnasium tank.

The Eels club, honorary men's swimming organization, will send four representatives to put on an added attraction. They are: Illif Shepherd S3 of Mount Pleasant, Ivan Weidlein M3 of Wellman, Walter Anenberg M2 of Carroll, and Everett Rademacher M2 of Gilmore City.

The Seals exhibition will comprise practically every swimming and diving feature stunt that can be pulled off in a tank, according to Helen Hayes A3 of Iowa City, president. Special attractions will be novelty diving in brilliant fancy costumes, under spotlight, by the "Mystery Trio", a life-saving exhibition, and the Seals song, written by one of the members and sung by the entire club in the water.

Tickets for the exhibition can be gotten from members of the club, but owing to the lack of seating space only 100 will be sold. The price is 50 cents, and this sale is going fine so anyone wanting tickets should hurry, according to Miss Hayes.

The program will consist of: 1. novelty, by the Seals club; 2. 20 yard race by four members; 3. 20 yard race under water by 3 members; 4. novelty surprise; 5. 20 yard breast stroke race, by 3 members; 6. fancy diving, including jack knife, swallow, back knife, and many other difficult dives, by 7 members; 7. stunt by 4 Eels; 8. novelty "This is the Life", a clever exhibition of a little bit of everything; 9. 100 yard race by 4 members; 10. life saving-exhibition; 11. an umbrella race, proving that you cannot take a dry swim, even with an umbrella by 3 members; 12. novelty diving under spotlight, or the mermaids appearance to mortals; and 14. the Seals song, proving that even a seal can be musical with a little encouragement.

The Seals club was organized last spring for the purpose of advancing the swimming sport at this University, and its rapidly growing popularity and achievements have realized this ambition. It has twenty-five members at present, several of whom have passed regular life-saving tests and all of which are working on them and will probably pass them soon.

ORCHESTRA TO PLAY TONIGHT

Mrs. Paddock Will Sing in Place of Prof. Hays Tonight

Scandinavian music by the University orchestra of thirty-seven members will be the feature of tonight's program before the Music Study Club in the natural science auditorium at 8 o'clock. The meeting will be open to all interested in music and no admission will be charged.

Dr. Orie Van Doren is conductor of the orchestra and Mrs. Mildred B. Paddock, instructor of voice, will sing the solos. Prof. William E. Hays, tenor, of the music department was on the program for the solo work but he will be at St. Joseph, Mo., attending a national music teachers' convention and Mrs. Paddock has been selected to take his place.

The following program will be given: 1. "Swedish Wedding March", Op. 13 by Sodermann; 2. "Peer Gynt Suite", No. 1 by Greig, (a) "Morning", (2) "Asa's Death", (c) "Anitra's Dance", (d) "In the Hall of the Mountain King"; 3. song group (a) "In Days of Yore" by Kjerulf, (b) "Yes, We Love With Fond Devotion", and "My Dear Old Mother" by Greig; 4. "Romanze" (for strings only) by Svendsen; 5. "Rustle of Spring" by Sinding; "Einzugsmarsch der Boyaanen" by Halvorsen.

These offerings represent some of the best Scandinavian composers and the program will be especially timely since the Music Study Club has devoted the present year to the study of Scandinavian compositions. Perhaps the best and most popular number will be the "Peer Gynt Suite" by Edvard Hagerup Grieg of Norway, who was writing at his best during the latter part of the nineteenth century. The suite is based on Ibsen's famous dramatic poem, "Peer Gynt", in which he weaves the folk music of the country with a wealth of melody and harmony into a musical story that tells of Peer and his adventure in the Bedouin camp and the "Hall of the Mountain King."

SIGMA NU WINS FROM KAPPA SIGMA IN FINAL PAN-HELLENIC BATTLE

Sigma Nu won the Pan Hellenic basketball championship cup when it's team defeated the Kappa Sigma team by the score of 18 to 11 in a rough and hard fought game last evening. The game was played in fifteen minute halves, which seemed to be entirely too long for a number of the players who did not seem to be in the best of condition.

Barton was the outstanding star of the game. His floor work was fast and clever and he was responsible for the greater share of the points made by his team. Barton had a decided advantage over most of the men because of the fact that he has been playing on the freshman team all winter. Umlandt and Dyke were the mainstays for Kappa Sigma. Dyke was the high scorer for his team. Rankin, a member of the freshman team, showed up well for the Sigma Nus.

The first half of the game was nearly free from rough playing and both teams were going at top speed. The score at the end of the first half was 10 to 8 in favor of Kappa Sigma.

In the second half the better physical condition and better teamwork of the Sigma Nus became evident and a couple of free throws by Barton and a long field goal by Torstenson put them in the lead. From then on the game became rougher and Referee Fiesler called frequent fouls on both sides. Kappa Sigma could not overcome the Sigma Nus increasing lead, and the game ended in favor of Sigma Nu.

FINAL REHEARSALS FOR "PROSPECTOR" ARE HELD

Dress rehearsals for "The Prospector," the annual Irving-Ero play to be presented at the Englert theater Thursday night are going very nicely. Dress rehearsal was held for the first act Monday night, the second act last night, and the third and fourth acts on Wednesday night. A complete dress rehearsal of all four acts will be held Thursday morning.

All of the special scenery has arrived and fulfills all expectations. The costumes and other equipment has all arrived.

Nearly all of the tickets have been sold. Reservations will be made tomorrow morning at nine o'clock at the Englert.

Pictures of various scenes were taken last night and will be on display on the campus this morning.

DAVENPORT MEN TO SPEAK HERE

Managers of Federal Bakeries Will Speak to Commerce Students Today

Mr. Mort Hamburger, advertising manager of the Federal System of Bakeries of America, will lecture to students in the school of commerce at 11 o'clock today in the liberal arts auditorium.

Mr. Hamburger will explain the different methods used in merchandising products of the Federal System of Bakeries. They have organized over 400 bakeries in various cities of the United States. The home office for these bakeries is at Davenport. The home offices send out practically all of the advertising for local bakeries as well as equipment and raw material.

Mr. Hamburger will show charts and displays to illustrate merchandizing campaigns of the company.

J. Reed Lane '11 (Law) of Davenport is president of the concern, and is very much interested in securing the cooperation of the Commerce Employment Bureau of the school of commerce to secure college graduates. He will speak at the banquet in the evening.

One hundred and thirty tickets have been sold for the banquet of the commerce club to be held at the Pagoda tea shop tonight. The committee regrets that more can not be accommodated. Mr. Hamburger and Mr. Hemsing also of the Federal System of Bakeries are staying over for the banquet. Fred Kurtz and Mr. Torgeson of Denecke's store at Cedar Rapids are expected to attend.

PRESENTATION OF PLAYS SCHEDULED FOR TONIGHT

Two one-act plays will be given at the Little Theater tonight under the auspices of the Educational Dramatics club. The plays will start at 7:10 sharp, according to those in charge, in order to dismiss in time for the orchestra concert. The plays to be given are a continuation of the series of studies in one act dramas, which was started on Monday of this week.

The plays to be given are "Fourteen" by Alice Gerstenburg and "The Land of Hearts Desire" by Yeates. Characters in "Fourteen" are: Mrs. Pringle by Esther E. Sharp A3 of Hampton; Elaine, her daughter by Maurine Wallace A3 of Des Moines; and the butler by Phillis Sanborn A3 of Sioux City.

Characters in "The Land of Hearts Desire" are: Maurteen Bruin by Catherine Moore; Bridget Bruin by Vera E. Cornick A of Mount Pleasant; Marie Bruin by Thelma L. Peterson A4 of Laurens; Shaw Bruin by G. M. Barber A2 of Dysart; the child by Irene Sinclair A2 of Harion; and Father Hart by Mrs. H. Y. Moffett.

IOWA HAS GOOD PROSPECTS FOR '21 TRACK TEAM

Indoor Meets Were Means of Gaining Much Valuable Experience

NOLL IS FASTEST HALF MILER

Wilson, Hill, and Seiling to Run in Dashes — Belding and Crawford Will Run Both Hurdles — Beck and Greleck Look Best in Quarter — Devine out for Pole Vault

By Eric C. Wilson

Iowa should have a track team this year that will be at least as good or perhaps better than the aggregation of 1920. After judging from the results of the indoor season the student body has been anything but optimistic. But it is a fact that Iowa never did much in indoor meets. They merely serve as a means of gaining valuable experience. This is especially needed this year since eight or ten of the team are entering intercollegiate competition for the first time.

An example of the way new men are gaining experience is the race of Noll, Iowa half miler in the conference meet several weeks ago. In his preliminary heat Noll was running against Dave Brown of Illinois. After running in second place most of the way, Noll failed to use his reserve strength and pass Brown at a certain point. If he had done this he probably would have qualified for the finals even if Brown did beat him to the tape, but as it was, a Michigan man cut in ahead and edged Noll back. Then it was too late to start a burst of speed. Coach Bresnahan instructs each man to study his opponents and their style of running so that he can learn a lesson in each race. The indoor meets were really training classes. Without them, the men would have entered the important duals with insufficient knowledge of running in stiff competition.

Iowa should be well fixed in the dashes if the men come through in the way the coach expects them to. Wilson, Hill, and Seiling are the three Hawkeye aces. Wilson should go well in the 100 and 220 while Hill was a varsity man in 1919, and has been rapidly getting back into shape. Seiling is a sophomore with a fast start. Greleck, regular quarter miler, is a fast 220 man and with Matthey of last year's team will make opponents step. Quint, a sprinter with two year's experience at Drake, has been declared eligible and has been out lately. He was a :10-1 man several years ago.

Captain Belding and Crawford will run both hurdle races. Seiling may run the lows. Crawford has been handicapped by a slow start in the indoor meets but in the regular distances outdoors he is a fier. He made the highs in :15-4 and the lows in :26 last year on the freshman team. Belding is showing improved form lately in both races. He and Crawford should be good for first and second in the dual meets.

Beck, Greleck and Marty look best in the 440. The first two men have covered the distance in :51 and :52, while Marty, a senior, makes it between :53 and :54.

Noll looks to be the best half miler in several years. He has made the distance in 2:02 and will lower that mark to under two minutes against hard competition. Noll is strong and has a fine stride. Skinner should be good for a place in some of the meets also.

In the mile McIntire is Iowa's best bet. He ran it in 4:37 in the Illinois dual and with the experience gained in the other two meets will show up well outdoors.

Peterman is the star in the two mile grind. He has all kinds of grit

ONE IN TWENTY-FIVE

Twenty-five orations were entered in the annual freshman declamatory contest which closed last night. Rules for the contest stipulate that the oration used may be original or not. One out of the twenty-five was original. One man sat down and associated himself with his thinking capacity and made an original contribution. It may or may not have been a good contribution, but it was his own.

A declamatory contest is concerned primarily with expression. It seeks to encourage improvement in public address by setting up fair competition and offering reward for merit. This, in itself, appears to be highly commendable. Expression is by all odds a thing to be prized. "Toussaint L'Ouverture," and "A Plea for Cuba," are time-worn bits of oratory, heard again and again, but so is "William Tell" a time-worn bit of music, and "The Angelus" a time-worn bit of painting.

There is about all this, however, a borrowed glory, a borrowed pleasure. It is well enough to do them effectively, but there is the haunting reminder that some one else, the one who created them, shares more or less prominently in the final accomplishment. It is hopeful that one man dared set about to create something out of the substance of himself and his little world of experience. It is to be hoped that in another year there will be more. Polished expression may be accompanied by thinking construction. The one is good; the two are better.

A brakeman on the 11:50 p. m. Rock Island train looked at the fire south of the station, Friday night, saw the big crowd gathered about, called to a scantily clad bystander, and asked him if the baseball team was going on a trip.

INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS VALUE

(From the Daily Illini)

"Intercollegiate athletics are receiving an undue share of attention and have become largely commercialized as a business," charged William T. Foster in a recent article entitled, "An Indictment of Intercollegiate Athletics."

He suggests that athletics in which every student might participate should be substituted for the intercollegiate athletics. The fallacy in Mr. Foster's argument lies here. It is altogether possible—in fact, the practice is already common in more progressive institutions—to provide athletics for each individual student through compulsory physical training and inter-class sports and yet support intercollegiate athletics.

The great benefit which colleges derive from participation in conference contests, overlooked by Mr. Foster, is the development of comradeship between the colleges of one section and also between the big sections, commonly designated in sport parlance as East, the Middle West, and the West. If it were not for the exchange of games between universities and between sections, all would be more hopelessly provincial than they now are.

The ideal towards which intercollegiate sportsmanship is tending is a unified University spirit of the United States as a whole, as against that of England or Canada, instead of the provincialism of our colleges at present.

THE LISTENING POST

The only time the parents of a lot of students hear from their offspring is when their soiled linen reaches the family wash.

We do not feel slighted at our failure to be called to assume the mantle of B. L. T. since Harold Andrews hasn't heard from the Chicago Tribune either.

One of the sorrows of medical and dental students is that everyone who doesn't know their real names simply calls them "Doc." That applies in a way to those of us whose hair is red.

The rule, strangely, has no effect on the laws. Even though the campus masses were better acquainted with Blackstone, they could scarcely be expected to be so generous as to call our potential district attorneys and counselors for the defense such a gracious name.

That cheats us out of a paragraph. We were under the cruel impression that the freshmen would soon be donning their green caps again.

A professor asks, "If a 'fake' cousin of President Harding can get away with such stuff as the Chicago youth did with members of the Hamilton club, what will one of the executive's real relatives get away with." The thought is tragic; murder would probably be one of the lesser offenses.

We can think of nothing more chivalrous than representing one of the sororities in the First Annual Relay Carnival unless it might be the entertaining of one of their "blind dates."

Suggestion for a Frivol cartoon: I knew her when she was engaged the first time.

We know nothing about it, but a person who professes to be up on the styles, tells us that they're wearing them far below the knees on Fifth avenue.

There might be more pleasant courses in the University than the one which calls for the reading of novels by William Locke and Dorothy Canfield, but we doubt if you can think of them offhand.

It will be futile for you to look for our initials in the April Frivol which appears this morning. The Daily Iowan pays us a "huge" royalty for the use of M. V. M.

FEW CANDIDATES OUT AT THE FIRST SPRING FOOTBALL PRACTICE

With spring football practice only two days old Coach Jones is working daily with the regulars of last year's team and nine new men who won places on the first year team. The nine new candidates who reported for practice at the first call were: Tingley, Kinney, Kriz, guards; Anderson, and James, tackles; Boydson, end; Lindsay, center; Colby and Loverin as backs. Out of this material Kinney seems to show the most promise. With this new find as a side partner for Slater in the coming season, Coach Jones has a pair that should do all that any back-field could want. James, another husky first year man, should make a mark for himself in his struggle for a berth on the other side of the line as tackle.

Only two regulars reported for practice. Minick, the veteran center and Kadesky at end were out on proved that their rest has done them little if any harm. It is probable that the remainder of the regulars will report soon for adily practice with the squad.

More men must turn out as candidates for the team if the Iowa squad is to be in shape for the tough early season games. Notre Dame and Illinois have both been working for some time with spring football practice and each has a host of men reporting for daily workouts. If Iowa is to compete with these teams at the beginning of the coming year; more men must report for the spring practice to work off the rough points before the fall rush.

Practice will be held every day (excepting Saturday) at 4:30 p. m. All men who are candidates for the football team are requested to report for these practices.

and endurance and will be going in good form by the time of the Northwestern dual.

Hoffman and Conn are high jumpers of known ability. Hoffman has cleared 6 feet while Conn is good for 5 feet 10 or 11 inches. These two athletes cleaned up in every dual meet last year and should come close to repeating this season.

Wilson and Barnes will take care of the broad jump. The former has cleared 22 feet, while Barnes can make 21 1-2 feet when he is going right.

In the pole vault Aubrey Devine, who holds the University record of 11 feet 6 inches, and Bailey another veteran are swinging over in good style. Hoffman can do 11 feet also.

Duke Slater is the iron man in the weights. The discus is his speciality—he has thrown that 145 feet, but he is a fair shot putter also. He has trouble in getting started though, and because of this does not always show up as well as he should.

The half mile relay is not run in conference meets but the mile team will have Beck, Greck, Marty and Parker.

Board Sets Final Date for Petitions For Iowan Editor and Manager

Final date for the acceptance of petitions for the positions of editor-in-chief and business manager of the Daily Iowan for the academic year, 1921-1922, was set at April 26, by a motion carried at the regular monthly meeting of the Daily Iowan board of trustees held in room 11, liberal arts building, last night. Petitions for these positions may be submitted to Prof. Charles H. Weller, chairman of the board, room 11, liberal arts building.

An informal election of editor-in-chief and business manager will probably be made during the first week in May, it was indicated at the meeting last night. The purpose of this election to be held before the regular election which will be held in June, is to give the incoming editor and manager an earlier opportunity for organization for the coming year.

HAYS LEAVES FOR ANNUAL CONVENTION OF TEACHERS

Prof. William E. Hays, instructor of voice in the department of music, left yesterday afternoon for St. Joseph, Mo., where he will attend the national convention of music teachers which is being held there April 4-8.

This convention is an annual affair and last year it was held in Philadelphia. Professor Hays will attend as a member of the Iowa committee and will take part in the oratorio program in which 500 vocal teachers from all over the United States will take part under the direction of Prof. Peter W. Dykema of Wisconsin University.

mile walk will follow in succession of ten minute intervals. The Junior high school relay in which teams representing University High, St. Patrick's high, and Iowa City high schools will compete. The interfraternity relay and the Senior high school relay race will occupy the remaining time up to 3:20 p. m.

The intersorority relay race, which will be the feature event of the carnival, and in which teams composed of four men each, representing fourteen different sororities, will compete for a silver cup which the athletic department will present to the winner and which they may keep for a period of one year, will be the finishing event. It will start promptly at 3:30. The race will be run in two heats, seven teams running in each heat. The captains drew numbers for the pole Monday evening. In the first heat Iota Xi Epsilon drew the inside track, Alpha Chi Omega 2nd, Chi Omega 3rd, Alpha Xi Delta 4th, Achoth 5th, Delta Gamma 6th, and Kappa Kappa Gamma 7th place.

In the second heat the Gamma Phi Beta team will have the inside track at the start, Pi Beta Phi drew 2nd place, Delta Delta Delta 3rd, Alpha Delta Pi 4th, Currier Hall 5th, Delta Zeta 6th, and Alpha Tau Beta 7th.

The captains, who will run one mile each, have chosen the remaining three members of their respective teams, and their names and the positions in which they will run will be announced in tomorrow's Iowan. The names of the entrants in the interfraternity, the interliterary society, and the inter military company relay races, will also be announced tomorrow.

The field events will be held at the same time that the track events are being held.
