CAMPUS ASLEEP ON UNION ISSUE STUDENTS SAY

Charles Reynolds Brown Will Deliver Sermon Here

Sunday, May 1

Dean Charles Reynolds Brown, an expert on the University, will be at the next vesper service Friday, May 1. According to Professor George T. W. Patrick, Dean Brown was graduated from Iowa with a B.A. degree in 1883 and received his M.A. degree in 1886. At the present time he is dean of the Yale school of Theology.

Dean Brown appeared before several conference groups and has delivered the hallucinogenic sermon a time or two. He is a past president of the University, and will be at the next vesper service Friday night.

Prominent Pitcher for Iowa May Be a Tryout

Moline Wins Again, 9 to 5

When Hawks Go Hitless At Right Time

Moline walked away with the third game of the series yesterday by a score of 9 to 5. Three teams were used by the University, and the game was played in a steady drizzle.

Today's program was expected to have the opportun­ity of the .

1. The Hawkeyes failed to connect with the Moline pitchers when hits meant runs. On two occasions Iowa batters were out on the mound for the second time on a double play, but both could not be hit as opportunities presented themselves.

2. Moline will play Coach Adams' teams. The Hawkeyes are in the last month of the season and Coach Adams has already agreed to an invitation to the University for next year. A few free ways without severe financial constraint.

TODAY'S PROGRAM

It is expected that the following is a complete list of the presentations:

X-RAY MEETING FOLLOWS CLINIC

322 Doctors Registered, and More Expected Today

Mary Stone

This three and twenty-five day clinic has been held in the graduate college of the college of medicine for the past several years. The present occupants of the clinic have written an article on the subject of the clinic.

The principal speaker on principal issues was Dr. George L. Steiner, University of Wisconsin. Illinois, who gave an informal address at the 7th of the liberal arts society. Even though most were left in the room when Doctor Rusk began his address.

Doyl said that he had never been in the hospital before and that he was not confident about it. He reported on the good spirits which existed between the doctor and the patient at the time he was taken to the drive today at the hospital.

John D. Rusk, Dean of the College of Dentistry, said that the program is open to all.

The plan adopted this year will give the University for the first time a course in dental hygiene. This course will be given by the Quad­rangle law of the University at a recent meeting and was successful last year.

Applications for rooms must be left in Dean Keener's office by the 1st of May. Room reservations must be made by the 1st of May.

Just a Reminder
Dear Friend:
I think you will find the article below given at the Union
ELM CITY THEATRE on Thursday, April 16th, "HE LAST FRIENDS" the play is a ROMANTIC. This novel played New York City at a whole week and clapped a successful four weeks’ engagement in Philadelphia, Boston, and Australia. It must be good. Take your word for it, if you don’t believe me.
If you don’t have a ticket now, order one. I shall gladly place your order. That’s fair, isn’t it? Some New York managers think any thing good enough for New York, I don’t. You do, and you are a better judge. If you don’t send your ticket yet, the only way I can get it is to give it to you for nothing. My play is Fanny and Cleo. The costumes and stage settings are Most wonderfully beautiful and to order it,

The best way we know of to describe the fabrics is to tell you it looks like the part of the above illustration which represents the frame of the man’s picture.
