Six organizations to enter stunts in All Foods' Jubilee:

Six organizations tried out for entrance into the All Foods' Jubilee to be held in the natural sciences auditorium Wednesday, April 19, all of whom will present their stunt in the final contest.

Those which tried out were: Hamlet Garden, "The Tragedy of Othello"; Eric-Irving Takeoff on the 1922 Hawk; Phil-Oliver, "Literarios on various types of people in Iowa"; Athena "An Old Fashioned Garden"; Christian church, "As our English language"; Hop-Set, "Professor Bunt's Trip through the Orient".

While literary society did not appear at the tryouts but will present their stunt before the board next week. The following conditions governing the Jubilee have been given out by the organizers:

All personal references of any kind to faculty members must be omitted from stunt presented. This stunt will be declared by the vote of those present at the Jubilee. Everyone attending the Jubilee will be admitted to see one stunt at a price of $1.00 will be awarded to the University organization whose stunt receives the largest number of votes. A price of $1.00 will be awarded to the University organization whose stunt receives the third largest number of votes. Argonauts, whose stunt is the contest of the make will be told by the Jubilee. No organization will be allowed to present more than one stunt.

An advance ticket sale will begin Thursday morning in the halls of the liberal arts building. The sale will continue all day Wednesday. The price of the tickets will be twenty-five cents.

Members of any of the organizations presenting stunts in the Jubilee may enter their stunt to omit from either Florence V. Biering in the T. W. room, or Douglas Byington at the M. C. A., Tuesday morning

WRESTLING AND GYM TEAMS WILL SELECT CAPTAINS WEDNESDAY

Captains of the wrestling and gymnast teams for next year will be selected Wednesday afternoon at the noon's gymnasium at 4 p.m. The men who wish to wrestle this year are eligible to vote for wrestling team captains. Yana, freemont, and Hunter are the likely candidates for the position.

Only the members of this year's gymnast team will be permitted to vote for a captain. All of the members of the team will be back in school next year and are eligible for the venture. They are Germaine W. Campbell, Thomas T. Frey, M. A., Iowa City, and Bailey Hall, 10. State Bank, 168 State Bank, 10.
