ANNUAL TRACK MEET SATURDAY

Women's Club GIVES CONCERT

Frances Williams gives Special Selection — Large Number Attend

In spite of a well-balanced program of vocal numbers, several features asserted the amateur's glee club status to a large audience in the natural sciences auditorium last night.

A song program opened by Hazel Jones of Iowa City had an op. style, and Miss Cain's voice was one of strong lyrical quality. The "special feature" on the program was a selection in a spotlight with the glee club seated in the background. The piece was "In a Sunny Garden," by Arens and Smith, with Mrs. Elizabeth Williams, Martha Albright, Mary Hotchkiss, Mrs. Harold Hotchkiss, Mrs. William Hart, Tilla Amsden, Helen Garvin and with a vocalist, Miss Lila Gwinn, easier to become less, is the plan being made in such event, held by the glee club of the school, directed by Miss Williams and given to the glee club members in place of the concert.

The following men have been appointed as captains of the men representing M. D. U., applied science, M. D. U., liberal arts and B. S., law. The captain from the religion is not yet appointed.

The glee club and the band will play an intercollegiate football game against the University of Iowa at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow. The glee club will play "Three Blades of Grass." The band will play "North Wind."

The game will be played on the old field at the University of Iowa.

The game will be played in the presence of the crowd.

HAWKESVILLE WILL BE DELIVERED MAY 19 INSTEAD OF MAY 3

The 1922 Hawkesville, annual of the Hawkesville, will be delivered May 19, according to A. Carlisle, of the Hawkesville, who visited in the city. The June 1 date planned for the mailing of the manuscript was adapted to printing work that will be imperative to get the book ready for the end of May.

This year's Hawkesville will contain 460 pages, which is sixteen pages less than last year's book. The book is divided into six sections:

1. History, or "The Hawkesville and its People." This section contains a history of the village and its people, with a special emphasis on the Hawkesville Ladies' Auxiliary.

2. Features, or "The Hawkesville and its Features." This section contains a detailed account of the village's features, such as the school, the library, and the town hall.

3. The Hawkesville in Today's World, or "The Hawkesville and Its People Today." This section contains articles about the people of the village and their contribution to the world.

4. The Hawkesville in Yesterday, or "The Hawkesville and Its Past." This section contains articles about the history of the village and its people.

5. The Hawkesville in the Future, or "The Hawkesville and Its Future." This section contains articles about the future of the village and its people.

6. Miscellaneous, or "The Hawkesville and Its Miscellaneous." This section contains miscellaneous articles about the village and its people.

The book will be published in September.

were the silk dresses for spring and summer that I could not resist buying them. As a result I am over stocked and am going to sell them at a greatly reduced price for this week only. They are in all sizes and at a price to fit every purse.

Here are a few examples:

One, a chic frock, of blue canson crepe for Miss Sixteen, only $29.50.

Another, a long-waisted gown of brown taffeta with prim rows of ruffles. This for our Co-Ed $25.00.

And for the more mature woman, there are many dresses for her too. In many shades and styles.

See them in my window

Other dresses from $9.50 to $45.00
