ANNUAL TRACK MEET IS TODAY

Representatives from All Colleges on Campus to Compete in Local Meet

Iowa track team will remain a factor today and every man on the composite in the ninth annual meet must be held on fields of a far finer grade than any in the past. Any man who is a student in the University is eligible to compete in this meet. The purpose of the meet is to give all the men in the college a chance to test their individual and team potentialities. The meet will start at 3 o'clock and will be closed at 10 o'clock. The meet will be held at the University grounds, north of campus.

LIBERAL ARTS NOT SO FAR BEHIND IN UNION SURVEY AS IT APPEARS, L. A. CHAIRMAN SAYS

Bowie Outlines Difficulty of Handling Large Personal and Records Men

The average man, according to the survey conducted by John W. Bowie, chairman of the Liberal Arts section of the Union survey committee, is not doing anything near as well as the man in the Business College.

One of about 300 students in the Business College, however, has shown his interest by working for their organization to approach them. This is shown by the fact that the personal and records men, according to the survey reports, have been able to sell 150 percent of the Business College student, as well, and other reports.

The following are examples of the difficulties encountered by the various organizations in getting their reports in the Union surveys:

-Penn Relays to be Held Today

Three Thousand Athletes from Colleges All Over Country Will Compete

Three thousand of the best athletes representing colleges and universities will be on hand today in the northeast corner of the University campus to compete in the annual Penn Relays.

An admission charge of 25 mills will be taken to provide for the purchase of fire insurance and to meet the expenses of the enterprize.

HELMICK IS APPOINTED TO A FELLOWSHIP IN PHYSICS AT PRINCETON

Paul R. Helmick, recipient of the prize for the past seven years at the University, has been selected to enter Princeton University, and that he has been appointed to a fellowship in physics at Princeton University.

This position was awarded by the Stickelberger fellowship in recognition of the highest possible recognition to scientific students all over the world. Mr. Helmick's fellowship is under a system of national fellowships supported by appropriation of $50,000 designed to make possible an equivalent of a $10,000 fellowship grant, and in addition to be used in the payment of expenses of an equivalent of $10,000 for the payment of a student's expenses.
