UNION TO HAVE OFFICE IN L. A.

Duck Will Be Placed in L. A. Hall for Convenience of Committee

For the convenience of the committee and chairmen of the Union, a college in the library of the Union at the corner of Forty-second and New York Stock Exchange will open on April 1, will be made to help the committee with their work. "Every duck is a fully possessed animal," said Mr. G. E. Granfield, of the New York Union, in an interview with the Daily.

"Some of the committee are afewhat nervous about the duck," he said. "But we are turning them over to local men whose seasons do not conflict with those of the committee."

Some of the committee will not be seen in the Union building for the rest of the month, according to Mr. Granfield.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH PLANS

The Christian church Sunday school will be meet a large number of people and we will be glad to see them. The church is open to all who wish to attend.

ODD TROUSERS

For every day use, rough wear, there are others not so expensive that will fill the bill.

COASTS

For the benefit of our readers, we will suggest a grey in an all-wool fabric with a fine silk stripe: very stylish, wears a long time and holds shape.

TODAY AS EVERYDAY

In addition to the regular news, we will have a special feature this week. It will be a real treat for everyone.

Bank Your Money

Why take chances? Every day people lose money because they lack the good sense to deposit it in the bank where it is proof from loss by fire or theft.

You may think your money is safe because it is well-hidden. There is always someone who knows where it is or can be made to know.

Your money is safe when it is on deposit in the First National Bank.
