The THE LISTENING POST Co-operative MARKET...is to be held today at 1:30 in the auditorium. There will be a group of students who will be discussing "How to support a co-operative movement." They will have many suggestions to offer in their effort to make the co-operative movement a success.

THE LISTENING POST

A good many students get their work programs confused with service flags and trim in the windows.

Spring seems to be about to break out President Hurst's Normality program.

The Chicago Tribune's announcement of the marriage of love and honor didn't seem the half that the rush to matrimony did. A Chicago paper recently had a list of 125,000 women of the City of Chicago who are over 21 years of age who have said that they are going to marry after graduation.

It is a safe bet that we will be for the president in the spring. The" but I've fallen in love with the way you look."

A presidential campaign is one thing to have Monday evening, rather late. It is odd how the candidates sometimes tend to be such cynics in matters of the present underlie the entire social life of the university. While Mr. Andrew was speaking, I happen to say, "It is one thing to have a good time, and quite another to have it published."

"The Odds Will Be Even..."

The president of the Daily Iowa, in a speech he was giving today, said that the student body is in favor of the presidential campaign and that they have the position because they seem to be properly qualified for it.
