The old gold team will be crippled to a very great extent this fall due to the graduation of Black and Knutson this spring and the absence of former years.

Coach Howard Jones states that the old team will be materially weakened for the opening season of the fall. Coach Jones stated that the new team will be better than last year's team in many respects.

The big thing that Coach Jones must do is to reduce his team to the minimum as far as possible.

The old team will not be able to

STUDY OF CHILDREN
PART OF COURSE IN NUTRITION AND HEALTH

The University is offering a unique course in nutrition and health classes for children this summer. This is the result of the united efforts of the home economics department, child welfare research station, the college of education, college of dentistry, department of student health, and the school of public health nursing.

The staff of the University has been engaged in research work and instruction in nutrition for a number of years. This summer, however, a particularly intensive course is offered.

This course includes actual demonstration work in cooperation with the cooperation of the elementary schools of the city, the department of nutrition, and the classes are under the direction of the home economics department.

The child is actually studied as to his weight, measurements, etc., and the cause of malnutrition is found. The results of the investigations made at the children's hospital are given in lectures by Dr. Rod J. Bahder, director of the child welfare research station. Discussions and medical and surgical examinations are made by Dr. Bahder, and the other classes are under the direction of the college of dentistry, college of education, college of health, and the university.

For this work in addition to the regular staff of the University in health work in nutrition from the Red Cross, Miss Clara B. Scholten of New York City, has been added. Miss Scholten is a graduate of the Food and Nutrition School.

Lack of sufficient food may result in serious, and even fatal, diseases. The classes are under the direction of the home economics department.
