FAY IS SPEAKER FOR SILVER STAR MEN AT THEIR FIRST PICNIC

Captain Bernard Fay, French Libe-tan officer honored the Star Club Wednesday by his presence on their first summer picnic. The Sunday club was started and about fifeten ex-service men went up to "pie-Perth Point" where they could enjoy perfect freedom of speech in talking over their experiences and in enjoying many of their old army songs.

After a good feed and a few minutes of good-natured criticism of differ-tent "solder's; the crowd gathered around to listen to an interesting talk by Captain Fay.

His duties during the war had place-them in a position to watch the wip-tions from a much broader viewpoint than the ordinary soldier and he enlightened the doughboys on many strategical and political points which they could not understand while at the front. He said that the American sold had a "very lasing effect on all classes of French people.

In parter sand were Faculty rapidly taking the place of the old classical musthe plaque that the poulasses were brought to realize that they could accomplish big things, regardless of their position, largely through the influence of the American soldiers. He believed that all Europe is "fed up" on war and people will be no fighting for fifty years, but he fears trouble in Asia.

Captains Fay served both in the French and Belgian armies and received highest honors from both Governments. Since the war he has been a professor at Columbia Unity and is now on the staff of the Department of the state University.
