State is Not Selfish

Students Should Become Acquainted With Ideas, Says Jessup

"Everyone who identifies himself with the University, and in particular with the University of Iowa, becomes a citizen of the state," President Jessup said in his address to the University's first annual convocation.

"The history of our University is the history of the state," he continued. "The traditions of our University are the traditions of Iowa."

The University's first annual convocation was held on September 18th. The convocation is a time for the University to celebrate its past and present, and to look forward to the future.

"The University is a place of learning," President Jessup said. "It is a place where knowledge is pursued and where ideas are exchanged."

"The University is not self-centric. It is not concerned with its own interests alone. It is concerned with the welfare of the state and with the welfare of its citizens."

"The University is a community of scholars, and it is our responsibility to be good citizens of this community."

The Biggest Musical Organization On Tour

COMING TO THE ENGLERT

Thursday, Oct. 6

In announcing the coming of Ralph Doubleday's production of BOHEMIAN GIRL as the biggest special event of the season, I am only repeating the opinion expressed by every Sunday morning where this matinée attraction has been presented.

The star of the entertainment, MRS. GORDON DOUGLAS, who makes a belated tour of the Pacific Coast, has been granted the eastern premiere and Mr. Doubleday is in dear to bring back this month. The season has already been agreed upon when annoucements of theatres in Chicago, Indiana, Illinois and other middle western states made the Chicago producer prominent to keep Mrs. Jackson in the vicinity and now Mr. Doubleday is bringing her westward.

He took Mrs. Jackson from his "Robin Hood" company, where she was planned from press and public alike, for her work as Alice Allen, and gave her a picturesque setting in his new production of BOHEMIAN GIRL.

The same unexcelled company, with Mrs. Jackson, that has recently appeared in the leading theaters of Los Angeles, Indianapolis, Cincinnati and Dayton, will be brought to this city. This company includes JAMES STEVENS, the great American baritone; Strauss, in pleasantly known voice, a dozen of singing stars, and on the stage of the perfect property, the the new and grand "Alegro" dance orchestra, this latter in the world of the music world.

The box office will be open for the regular sale of seats now. Mail orders will be received now and filled as they arrive, when accompanied by cheque, or money order together with an application for seats.
