THIRTY-THREE THROW HATS IN POLITICAL RING

Beyton and Shinick Are Only Candidates for State Senator President

WIRE PULLING BEGINS

Race for freshman President will be Most Hotly Contested

Thirty-three petitions of candidacy have been filed at the university clerk's office, and at least three women were presented to the student council yesterday. The names of candidates filed in are: Wallace R. Cox, chairman of the committee.

Becky G. Byington of Cedar Rapids, has been chosen as vice-president, Garvelty Macy of LeClaire, Des Moines, as secretary, and Virginia L. Bird of Fort Dodge, as treasurer.

For junior president: John L. Johnson of Elkader, Minn., has been chosen as chairman, and William R. Mason of Iowa City, and Wisco Wise of Eldora, as vice-presidents. Mrs. Dorothy Norton of Lowden and Lee, and Mrs. Margaret B. Rigby of Fort Dodge, are junior treasurer candidates. Fred Sullivan of Grinnell, Minn., is a sophomore senator candidate.

For sophomore president: "Red" Johnson, of Newton, has been chosen as chairman, and William H. Williams of Burlington, for secretary.

For freshman president: Max A. Hensley of Clinton, for chairman; Fred H. Hennes of Cedar Rapids, Roman Biles of Hot Springs, and Clifford Snively of Charleston, have filed for secretary.

For treasurer: Virginia W. Lane of Iowa City, Betty Rutledge of Tama, and William H. Hartman of Darien, for secretary.

For freshmen secretary: Laura M. Weis of Council Bluffs, and Lois A. McClellan of Dillon, and Betty Farley of Grinnell, Minn., and Dorothy P. Hunter of McGregor, for treasurer.

The student council announced yesterday that a special election will be held at 10:30 this morning for the election of new student council members.

In order to expedite the election, the student council has extended the hour of the voting. The polls will be open in the Student Union from 8:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.

The student council announced yesterday that the following students were elected new members of the student council:

1. Mary L. Johnson of Iowa City, for chairman.
2. Mary L. Shepherd of Homestead, for vice-chairman.
3. Donald E. Curtis of Wayne, for secretary.
4. Sarah E. Kinkade of Iowa City, for treasurer.

Fur Prices Going Higher

prices on furs have been almost down to the low levels of 1914, hence the big increase in fur sales during the months of August and September. The unusually low prices resulted in heavy buying, this is the region for a shortage in the better qualities.

Our Prices Reasonable

Because prices have been right on furs, we’ve sold more for coats and checkers during the past two months that we have in two years.

As long as our present stock lasts we will con-
