I don't own a thing, and incidentally it is going to show them the best there is of everything. Every friend and novelty on the campus is giving them a party, too, so far dance and the students will entertain them with the campus band and no end of good times. The spirit of Iowa that will pervade over the celebrations today and tomorrow is showing the biggest thing in the best way, and may the graduates enjoy being home as much as we enjoy having them here.

Mr. A. R. Snow of Spencer was here Wednesday visiting his daughter, Margaret Avery A2 who lives at Corner Hall.

Sonia A. Schipke

The Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity will give a smoker to alumni at the chapter house Saturday evening after dinner.

WOMEN'S FORENSIC COUNCIL ANNOUNCES PROGRAM FOR YEAR

The program of events to be carried on by women's forensic clubs, as set up in their meeting last night, is as follows: Artistic reading 9th, December 4th; artistic reading contest, Thursday, December 6th; forensic reading contest, Thursday, December 13th, 1921; forensic reading contest, December 20th; interesting debate, Thursday, March 29th, 1922; short story reading contest, Thursday, April 5th, 1922.

The opening season for freshmen will begin January 2, 1922 and will end February 13. The kids will be sent out February 13 at 6 p.m. It was decided that each school may hold only one party for freshmen women, but that they may be invited to attend open meetings during the first semester.

Margaret Aitken A3 of Livermore and Mildred Pedroni A4 of Foreney were appointed on a committee to supervise the printing of a pamphlet to contain the constitution of women’s forensic council, the program for the year, and a brief history and explanation of the organization and purpose of literary societies in the University. The pamphlet has been sent to freshmen women at freshmen fares.
