The Commerce club gives a dinner in the liberal arts building every year to honor the students who have completed the course. Last April, President of the club, Edward A. Brown, addressed the guests, who included the department heads and representatives of the club. The event is attended by all commerce students.

The committee chair is interviewed by the Iowan. The Iowan, a local newspaper, is written by J. Brown. The rally is held in the park by Ben F. Mishkin of Iowa as the "Admirable business world." The club is made up of various members who are interested in commerce education.

FORTY FIVE DOLLARS AND MORE

IOWA TO TALK BY WIRELESS
The Western Conference Radio News Service has been organized for the purpose of exchanging news between the Universities in the Big Ten conference each evening, according to Carl Mason Jr. of Iowa City. A tyrion was held Monday evening, October 17, which proved very successful and the official tryout will be held October 28. All Universities of the Big Ten conference are equipped with up-to-date wireless stations with the exception of Indiana. The news from Indiana will be transmitted through the radio station at Purdue University.

This news service was organized about two months ago at Chicago by student representatives from the conference Universities. J. Armstrong Kern of the University of Michigan is chairman of this committee.

DEAN SAYS SPEAKS OF UNIVERSITY HISTORY

Dean Key quoted favorably, saying recently, "The University of Iowa is here to train the men and women to be real citizens."

Ripley P. A. College
In the course of his speech Dean Key explained the purpose of the college of liberal arts and he stated "you come here with the hope that the members of the faculty will give you a broad training during these four years which will be a proper准备 for life in the world. We are working for the benefit of the students and you hope that at the end of the four years the student will possess a broader vision and a more mature mind."

Dean Key concluded his address by stating that a student cannot be educated by devoting himself to scholarship alone, but that he must also participate in the social and religious activities of the University.
