Games Today to Directly Affect Title

Chicago-Ohio State Game to Be Most Important in University of Iowa History

Seven of the teams in the Big Ten conference are in action today in games that will have a direct bearing on the conference championship and, undoubtedly, the greatest game will be the Ohio State-Chicago tilt.

Chicago is one of the strongest teams in the Big Ten, and Coach Jargon has developed a tricky, four-man backfield which few have endeavored to beat. Iowa, however, has a fair backfield and has been successful in the past. If Iowa has the home advantage, it will take a great effort to defeat its opponents by a narrow margin, and if that is the case, the game of Saturday will be the most important game in the history of the University of Iowa football program.

Iowa Doped to Win From Minnesota By Small Margin

Surfing the waves of the Big Ten tide, the Iowa football players were defeated by Notre Dame last Saturday, but despite this setback, they will be able to win against Minnesota this Saturday. The game will be played at 2:00 p.m., and the crowd will be expected to fill the stands.

With the exception of one or two close calls, the game will attract considerable attention from the fans of both teams. The University of Iowa has a strong football team, and the Minnesota Gophers are not to be underestimated. The game will be played on the University of Iowa field.

Marvin Gipp, army's all-time leading rusher, is the key player on the Army team. He will be a test for the Iowa defense, and it will be interesting to see how well he is able to perform.

Iowa is expected to win the game, but it will not be an easy victory. Minnesota is a strong team, and the game will be decided by the margin of points. The Iowa defense will be the key factor in the game, and if the defense can hold Minnesota to a low score, the game will be won.

The Iowa defense is strong, and the team is well prepared for the game. The players are confident, and they know that they have the ability to win the game. The game will be played on the University of Iowa field, and the crowd will be expected to fill the stands.

Chicago, Ill.—Marshal Ferdinand Foch will receive honorary documents of honor at a special convocation during his brief visit to the University Saturday morning, according to an announcement from the president’s office yesterday. The ceremonial is expected to last the entire day, and the Latin address to be delivered by the president will be set by a military guard of undergraduates, and a troop of high rank, among them Capt. C. A. Treadwell, to be the last name of the building at the front of the building in the rear of the building.

CORNELL STUDENTS DUMP MOVEMENT FOR DRESS ECONOMY

Bibra, N. Y. — A movement for the wearing of old clothes by students at Cornell has been set in mo tion, and is daily gaining more promendous support from undergraduates. The drive was originated several days ago by the members of the Varsity football and track squads, and is designed to create a

a crunch of genuine earnestness in dress on the campus.

These behind the drive have been influenced largely by the stand taken by the students of several other large universities, including

Princeton, Harvard, Columbia, and three months, who have been in the habit of wearing worn out clothes and shawls because of the democratic aspect and the greater economy. Several of the visitors from Hanover to the Twentieth wereGene in school for a question whether Cornellians had dressed up or not to great there.

It is being admitted that the agitation will bring unlooked-for results, rather than to prove a short-lived fad, as was the movement two years ago to Avoid escape laws.
