BETTER SPEECH

"If you had now what I acco-mmodably term our next section, I wouldn't have another word.

The young student with an apparently solid background is so often not so well equipped in the modern world as he may suppose. He may have every characteristic that is worth having; he may be endowed with an impressive appearance; but until he learns to fill his lungs with the breath of life, he may be a nobody in the modern world."—H. L. Stimson.

I am not sure that I could not have done better myself.

And I am not sure that I have done worse than any of the

CAMPAIN TO AID LEUGERS IS LEAVING CARRIED ON HER

A campaign to make Christmas brighter for the 1000 lepers in the United States, now being carried on throughout the country. Miss Leslie Langdon, 211 E. Burlington, is acting as chairman of the local committee.

Mrs. Alice E. Blum, president of the Chicago leper association, Inc., said that the lepers need a Christmas of their own because of the sympathy that Christmas inspires among the people.

education and in the college and graduate schools.

The campaign was started in Chicago this week, $5,000 being sent to that city alone, and $1,000 were pledged to the national campaign. In the past the idea of Christmas among the lepers has been a possibility only. Now it will be a reality.
