When the football season started on September 15, Coach Howard H. Jones had the nucleus of a strong team upon which to build for the 1921 football season. Out of the letter men of the 1920 team all but four were back in the lineup. These four were Kaufman, Block, Jacobs and Longley. Moreover, Johnny Heldt, center on the 1919 team, was back in the University, and was out for his old place on the team. His return blocked up a hole in the line that was one of the causes of the disastrous season of 1920, when some of the games that Iowa counted on winning were lost.

The backfield was veteran and included both Devine, Locke and Shuttlesworth. From among the 1920 freshmen, several were regarded as likely candidates for places on the varsity, especially Miller, Anderson, Kris, Lindsey and Kinney.

The expected troubles began when Kinney, who was being groomed to play left tackle, was found to be ineligible as a result of his low scholastic standing. Thompson was then moved from the guard position to tackle. The next casualty occurred when Ty White broke his collar bone in one of the early scrimmages.

When the first game was played, however, Coach Jones had a team on the field that justified his belief in it by playing through the season without losing a game. Many experiments have been tried since the Knox game, but the combination that played that day has been the best.

Knox Defeated Easily
Knox came to Iowa City with a team that was expected to give Iowa a hard game, as they had lost but one man from their team of the year before, and their 1920 team had lost only one game. They were reputed to have a good passing game and to be strong defensively. They were outweighed considerably by the Iowa varsity, but were expected to put up a strong fight.

Against the powerful attack of the Iowa backs, who romped through large holes in the line, Knox was powerless, the Iowa varsity running up 55 points in the first three quarters. In the fourth quarter, however, against the Iowa second string, Knox opened up a series of beautiful passes, featured by one-handed catches by Morrison, which gave them two touchdowns. This game showed the possibilities of a great team at Iowa, since Knox did not make a first down against the varsity line.

The following week, before the homecoming crowd, Iowa romped through large holes in the line, ran the ends and forward passed their way to a score of 91 to 7. This was a demonstration of the power of the Iowa backs and the passing ability of the Iowa ends.

Hawkeye Team Which Has Best Claim for American Title

Notre Dame Battles Hard
On October 8, Notre Dame came to Iowa with a team which was thought at that time to be the equal of their 1920 team, and as after events proved, a better team than the one of the former season. Against this team, which Iowa did not really expect to defeat, the Hawkeyes opened up a first quarter line attack which pushed backs over for the first quarter and enabled Aubrey Devine to score a dropkick for three more points. Playing strictly defensive game thereafter against the frenzied eleven from South Bend, Iowa was able to hold them to one touchdown.

Illinois Falls At Homecoming
The following week, before the homecoming crowd, Iowa defeated the old jinx from Urbana. Although only two touchdowns were scored by the Iowa team, their superiority was clearly shown for Illinois was within striking distance of the Iowa goal only once. On that occasion the Iowa line three back the attack of the Illinois backfield men. Crangle, last year's all western fullback, was not noticed because of the stellar work of Locks, who ploughed through the Illinois line for gains ranging from 6 to 50 yards.

After a two weeks' rest, the Hawkeyes journeyed to Purdue and there played the poorest game of this season. The condition of the field, which was ankle deep with water at noon and not quite so deep later, as the game started, was one of the causes of the low score. Aubrey Devine's 55 yard return of a Purdue punt for a touchdown was the redeeming feature of an otherwise Illinois encounter.

Iowa Humblies Gophers
Iowa rose to her greatest form of the year against Minnesota at the homecoming game at Minneapolis. Doped to win by a narrow margin, the Hawkeyes romped through the line, ran the ends and forward passed their way to a score, the biggest by which Minnesota had ever been beaten. Aubrey Devine was the star of the game and his work was such that Coach Williams of Minnesota stated that Aubrey was the best backfield man that he had ever seen. The Iowa line held the Minnesota backs to few gains, and rushed Minnesota, who did the passing for Minnesota, so hard that he was unable to hurl many passes.

Passes Beat Indians
In the last home game of the season, the Iowa eleven again demonstrated its powerful offense by scoring 41 points against Indiana and showed its strong defensive powers by holding Indiana to no score. Aubrey Devine again was the star of the game, as he made four touchdowns himself and hurled many passes to his brother Glen, Belding and Kash for good gains. Catching the Indiana quarterback for a loss close to the line, Aubrey punched on the first down and his kick went far out of bounds that the Indiana safety man. Selling Devine's place at quarterback and showed that he is a possible successor to Iowa's great quarterback. Anderson, playing for Locks, smashed through the Indiana line for good gain and should be a capable understudy for Iowa's plunging fullback next year.

Iowa Wins Final Game
Iowa closed its most successful football season since 1909 by beating Northwestern 14 to 0 before a Purple homecoming crowd. The game was played on a muddy gridiron and the full offensive strength of the Hawkeyes could not be used. The 80 yard run of Aubrey Devine that brought the ball down within striking distance of the Northwestern goal was the feature of the game. The Iowa line was a stone wall that prevented any gains on the Iowa plays and the backfield broke up the majority of Northwestern's passes. The 1921 Iowa football team came through a hard season without the loss of a game, and their clean slate gives them a clear claim to the Western Conference championship.
HAWKEYES WIN LAST FOOTBALL GAME OF YEAR

Muddy Field Hinders Iowa and Northwestern

By ABORE DEVINE

ForwardPassing Game of Both Elevens is Attacked

A hard fought battle, started by Northwestern's stern defensive line, ended with neither team gaining anything in the final game of the year 14-0. It was a game in which Iowa clearly outplayed the Purple, but was defeated by the game with the exception of a few moments, for in two long forward passes the Purple took the lead, butibu comfortable in the last eight minutes, when Northwestern was unable to gain through the Iowa line even beyond the goal line. The game was uninteresting, and two long plays decided the contest.

Purple Line Rides

Tie after tie the Iowa team seemed to have the ball down the field to within striking distance of the Northwestern goal line, but only to have the ball given away on fumbles or intercepted, or kicked down the Iowa lines. Iowa made a severe penalty when their turn at the game, but the Northwestern players were well up on their passes whenever they came. But when Iowa did get a first of the game, it was under control and this was the result.

The 6,600 fans who came to the game were given an additional attraction in the way of a game of football, which were completed for a gift of $30 to the holder of the longest line pass for a gain of 87 yards. The pass was executed by Herriot, Belding and G. Devine, charmingly and all too well in the eyes of the spectators, by Iowa's goal post. The long pass was followed by a goal and the Iowa team completed for the long pass. The Northwestern players were watched closely, but two long plays decided the game

Field in Poor Condition

 Northwestern field was not up to the usual standard of the finest football fields in the country. It was one of the causes of the low score of the game that there was not so much original interest in the game, and it was just confirmation of that fact that the Northwestern players were unable to enable him to get away on his famous runs, and in opposing line of his feet are rippling with their fingers, and he spent his time in cutting through the Iowa line. He was cut down on the 40-yard line.

Second Quarter

Northwestern took the ball on downs when A. Devine's pass to Blank was incomplete. Palmer hit the Iowa line for 4 yards and added a 5-yard pass around End. Palmer made 2 yards beyond the line, but Northwestern players pushed the ball for 1 yard. Palmer kicked 6 yards, and added 2 more through center, making 8 yards past Iowa for end down on Northwestern 40-yard line.

Northwestern players on line.

Northwestern carried the ball to Northwestern's 17-yard line for first down. Added 5 yards in a wide route around Iowa's right end. Added 2 more yards through line. H. Devine stopped Lecke for a 1-yard gain. End of first quarter, Iowa 0, Iowa 7, Northwestern 0.

First Quarter

Northwestern won the ball. A. Devine kicked off to G. Devine, who returned 15 yards. Halfback stopped Lecke for no gain. Palmer hit the Iowa line for 4 yards and added a 5-yard pass around Kadelick, being intercepted by Northwestern. Northwestern then went to Iowa and kicked off to H. THE CHRISTMAS COMBINATION
Iowa Wins

Iowa wins the bowl by a score of 14 to 7. It was a fairly close game to the end and a great sporting contest in the last period. A splendid, hard, unflagging struggle by the Hawkeyes was sustained throughout the game, and in the end the player of the winning team was too strong to be overcome by the desperate efforts of the other. The winning team played a better game and in the final period showed more fighting spirit.

The election of next year's football squad will take place at a football banquet which will be held at the Hotel Jefferson, December 14, at which all members of the faculty, the FreshmanNUMs, and the boosters will be present. The choice of the captains is limited to those members of the squad who have two letters to their credit this year.

Any J. M. Eligible.

Any member of the squad who has won his letter this year is eligible for the captaincy, but the choice has been in previous years with very few exceptions, to a man awarded from the juniors chosen by the last year's captains. Freshman-nums probably will be awarded at this banquet, as this has been the custom in past years.

JONES PUTS FOUR IOWA MENS FOOTBALL TEAM INTO MYTHICAL ELEVEN

In picking his all-conference team for this year, Coach Howard Lloyd Jones has placed four Iowa men, three from Ohio State, two from Wisconsin and two from Chicago in his mythical eleven.

Without a doubt the two Ohio stars are the best in the far northwest. With Bucking and Mayer on the tackles, the Iowa team will be protected by the two best men in the United States. Bunting and Huffman, at tackles with Honolulu and Payser as guards, make that part of the line almost impervious to the attack of the most ardent Iowa rooters.

In the backfield, Coach Jones has chosen Anthony Devine to fill the gap at fullback and soprano to the Iowa team. The Iowa team is due to Dr. Walter Bunting's policy in training. BONUS IN CONFERENCE Scores of Iowa and Ohio State have been tied, respectively, by other western teams. Unfortunately nothing of these games was this year, and the reminder of Iowa's schedule is such as to adequately test the strength of the team; except as it can be judged by the size of the scores. Observers such as Eckardt, regard Iowa's as not only the conference, but also of the Middle West.
The success of Iowa's season are:
