CHARLES BOWIE IS NAMED FOR SCHOLARSHIP

He is New Haven Art Student... at the University of Oxford, England, now.

The bases upon which the scholar-wall of the Rhodes scholarship is made are: (1) quality of character, of course, and it is specifically noted. (2) Literary and athletic distinction in the junior and senior years at Boston Latin. (3) Achievement and promise in sports, and (4) scholarship... physical ability as shown in various sports in other ways.

Personality or intellect - In the absence of the personal interview the consideration of scholastic record is supplanted by consideration of personality and intellect. Some Rhodes scholars may be considered unusually intelligent or unusually successful in both sport and scholastic activities. In both these qualities they are superior to the average man.

The Rhodes Scholar should be a man of leadership; (2) literary and athletic. And... the most likely to fit into the best of our... athletic distinction is not treated as a necessary qualification. The requirements, although regular academic requirements, are... athletic and athletic records in an... in both these qualities... these qualities in both the ideal. Rhodes scholar should have industrial, literary and athletic distinction not treated as a necessary qualification.
