STUDENT DIRECTOR OF WISCONSIN FIVE-FOOTED BASKETBALL

That the supporters of the Old One should not despise the player in their own basket because of the fact that he is not of the basketball team, but that they support him wholeheartedly. The vision of the student at Wisconsin is very strong.

He stated that Iowa should finish their conference game with a better result. He also spoke highly of the support of the Iowa fans on the Iowa players at the game.

Although Iowa was defeated, it was accomplished mainly by Wisconsin. The games take place on the grids, and the Iowa fans are working hard to support their team.

The committees can't help but feel that the students will get behind the idea and that it will succeed. Report said that the departure of the special candidate will look more promising than one that they are better acquainted with.

WOMEN PLAN MEETING

Staff and Circle Promotes Movement For Better Friendship

The main meeting for all women of the campus was held on Monday night, January 16, in the Little Theatre. The program was arranged to show the importance of women in the University.

"The Parable," a play by the symbols of religious life; "The Sunshine of the West," a newsy story of the desert; and "Over the Alps," an account of mountain climbing.

The cast for the three plays is as follows: "The Parable" by G. H. Seigle; "The Sunshine of the West" by M. Altman; and "Over the Alps" by H. Vance.

George H. Seigle, M. Altman, and H. Vance.

NOT WITHOUT LABOR

Steve W. Barrier, who has been given a most stupendous task by the Secretary of the club, is now preparing for the coming of an outdoor play, held at the Union this week. The pastime will be the culmination of a two weeks' work, and two weeks remains to prepare for the final act.

It is possible that a second play will be shown, one that has already been arranged by the secretary.

OATMEAL BURGERS

Oatmeal Burgers have been served in the Freshman dining room for four days. On Tuesday, the students had a delicious breakfast of oatmeal and eggs, followed by a lunch of oatmeal and roast beef. On Wednesday, the students enjoyed a lunch of oatmeal and beef stew. On Thursday, the students had a lunch of oatmeal and chicken stew. On Friday, the students were served a lunch of oatmeal and beef stew.

The students have been so enthusiastic about the oatmeal burgers that the dining room staff has been asked to prepare them again on Monday.

OUT OF SEASON

A personal oral record of the campus organizations indicates an annual sheet of "get acquainted" parties at the close of the school year. There is something about a great group of students discussing during the last week of the school year that would be a delightful thing to hear. This group was formed by the students.

JERRY TAKES A PLEASURE

In announcing the arrival of Mr. Henry E. Hebard, the managing editor of the "Daily Iowan," we are pleased to inform our readers that he has been appointed to the post of managing editor. Mr. Hebard is well known to all of us.

The next most exciting news of the week is the announcement of the arrival of Mr. Henry E. Hebard, the managing editor of the "Daily Iowan," and his appointment to the post of managing editor. Mr. Hebard is well known to all of us.

IN THE NIGHT

In the night, a mysterious figure was seen walking through the campus. The figure was seen by several students, who were alarmed by its appearance. The figure was described as tall and thin, with a long, lean face and a curious, demonic expression. The figure disappeared into the darkness, leaving the students to wonder what its purpose was.

HE HERS异常

He was dressed in all black, with a large, hooded cloak that concealed his face. His eyes were wide and glassy, as if he had been awake for days. His footsteps were quiet, as if he was afraid to make a sound.

The students who saw him were78 terrified and ran to their rooms to call the police. The police arrived soon after and searched the area, but they were unable to find any trace of the figure.

THE DYING AMERICAN

The dying American is a term used to describe the state of the United States, which is currently experiencing a decline in its power and influence. This term is often used in political commentary and analysis, and it is often associated with the idea of the decline of American exceptionalism and the loss of American dominance in the world.

HE HAS BEEN STORED

He has been stored away in a secret location, where it is believed to be safe from discovery. The location is unknown, but it is believed to be a place where he can be kept safe from anyone who might want to harm him.

The United States has been a powerful nation for many years, but it is now facing a number of challenges that threaten its continued existence. These challenges include economic problems, political instability, and a decline in its military and cultural influence. The term "dying American" is often used to describe the current state of the country, which is characterized by these problems.

Good Sportsmanship Coach Meanwell of Wisconsin, in commenting on the game last night declared that the sportsman-

EIGHTEEN CLASSES TO HOLD REUNIONS UNDER NEW PLAN

Eighteen Cornell classes are scheduled to return to return to reunions next June under the new plan of the class, a scheme allowing the classes associated together as the most congenial to hold reunions together which will go on to operation year for the first time. This is a larger number than any returned for formal reunions at any one time before.

In addition to the ten classes scheduled to hold reunions under the new plan which classes which have already formed plans for regular reunions on the old basis will continue with their arrangements.

The Blind-25 plan will continue to hold reunions on the same plan, without regard for the new system of rotation.

CHER LEADERS TO BE GIVEN REWARD

Ann Arbor, Mich.—Scores received, probably in the form of letters, is to be presented to members of the Variety evening squad last year according to an announcement given out yesterday, by Variety cheerleader. In the event the letters are committed errors, one will be given to the official variety cheerleader of the correct version of the errors, there will be also five errors, and a collection of errors in the field. All errors will be given an opportunity to try out during the M. A. C.

8417 today. "This will absolutely be the last chance for tryouts this year," stated Cochran. "All men should be at the clubhouses at 6:30 every Tuesday." The tryouts will be numbered and an act of judges will be present to take notes on the tryouts during the week of tryouts and Cochran will select his ten-man team from the notes of the judges. The team will consist as much as possible every day until the O. S. C. games.

Cohran assured the fact that those men who try out this year will be given positions next year under the new plan.
