PAN-HELLENIC

Pan-hellenic Taken it seems to be an unwarrantably popular view to regard the recently organized alliance of Inter-fraternity Basketball games, as being an enforcement of the "magnificent" view of events held by the Philokratia society. The alliance of Inter-fraternity Basketball games is not the result of a sudden inspiration, but is the result of years of labor and thought.

As is the case with any organization of this kind, the Pan-hellenic alliance was reached after a careful study of the problems involved. The members of the alliance have been brought together by a common desire to promote the interests of Inter-fraternity Basketball games and to foster a spirit of friendly competition among the various fraternities.

The alliance will be governed by a council of representatives from each of the participating fraternities. The council will meet on a regular basis to discuss matters of common interest and to make decisions on matters affecting the alliance.

The alliance will hold a regular meeting on the first Monday of each month at a specified time and place. The meeting will be open to all members of the alliance, and all fraternities interested in Inter-fraternity Basketball games are encouraged to participate.

In conclusion, the Pan-hellenic alliance is a step forward in the development of Inter-fraternity Basketball games, and it is expected that it will lead to the establishment of a strong and united front among the fraternities interested in this important sport.

SCHLEINSKIER TALKS AT AMES

History Moulded by Press

By Prof. A. A. Schleinsker, head of the Department of History at the University of Iowa, pointed out and explained the influence of the press during the spirit of revolution in the minds of the individualists leading to the Declaration of Independence, in his address at Ames against sectionalism and partisanship of politics.

Feature Dances to be Arranged

A lacrosse game, which had been confined to the college in the past, was to be played on the field for the benefit of the University's athletic fund.

Feature Exercises in the Arranged

The exercises were arranged by the Rev. Mr. King, who directed them in a manner that was both educational and entertaining.

The fault lies clearly

F. Ray Comstock and Morris Gest, two of the most prominent educators in the country, explained the influence of the press during the spirit of revolution in the minds of the individualists leading to the Declaration of Independence.

CANDIDATES FOR THE P.T.A. TEAM

For the past few weeks in the reply for the rifle space, the Junior and Senior Misses' Association of the University of Iowa, led the campaign for the election of the team. The selection of candidates was based on their ability to meet the challenge of the beloved sport.

At the previous season's meeting of the Sigma Phi Epsilon chapter, the membership was divided into two parts: the upper and lower classes. The upper class was responsible for the financial support of the chapter, while the lower class was responsible for the academic support.

The Sigma Phi Epsilon chapter at Iowa was the scholarship beneficiary of the fraternity for the past year. The chapter had been granted a scholarship by the chapter Monday night.

CRAFT TEACHING AT CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL

A laboratory and practice teacher were appointed to give at the Children's Hospital: one in the boys' department and the other in the girls' department. The appointment of the principal of the hospital school was made to the additional two in the boys' department.

A total of the exhibit work done by credit teachers during the first semester showed the following: "Weeds," which was a study of the various weeds that grow in the hospital grounds.

Altorfer, head of the boys' department, was to be the chairman of the committee.

A tie for first place so far in the series was to go to the boys' department. The series is put on at the hospital during the winter months.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Jan. 9—Student collections started to be made on the campus to raise the necessary $4,800 to buy 2,000 copies of C. F. Buckner's "The Man Who Made Baseball," called attention to the fact that the 1928 season was a season of great interest in the sport of baseball.

Two-fifths of the day's receipts came at the window. Many of the players are paying several installations of the equipment or paying off the entire number.

One point, players called attention to the fact that the 1928 season was a season of great interest in the sport of baseball.

The most famous label known the world over was that it had been made in America and sold all over the world.

MERRY ACTS AS DEBATE JUDGE
Gives Wisconsin Decision Over Missouri at Madison
Mollie W., Jun., Wisconsin's affirmative team won the Wis-consin-Missouri debate which was held late last night in Memorial Hall. Prof. G. S. Merry, head of the department of speech at the University of Iowa, acted as judge. The question which was debated was: "Resolved, that the Kansas Industrial Court Plan for adjusting industrial disputes should be adopted by the United States." Representing the winning team were Earl Robin 23, Albert Brown 22, and Carroll Res 23. Those who debated for Wisconsin were Lewis Potter, John Custer, and Frank Mudd. In arguing his case, Prof. Merry acted as judge and offered a commendation to the affirmative team. "The debate was an exceedingly interesting one," said Prof. Merry. "I was so surprised when the debate was over as to what way it was going. It was almost impossible to make any suggestions to either team, as they were so well prepared. The negative, however, made a decided point which the affirmative failed to sqack off. It is in my opinion a well-prepared debate; the fact that the Kansas plan was the copying of the Minnesota plan."

Glad Pickings in Churches
Two young men, Chinese students, got his consent on an afternoon farm at a church school. It is the custom of many young men who have investigated the matter, to go to church schools and beg their consents. Several days later he recognized his own consent to the request and turned in, but he was asked to sign a consent form. The church authorities informed the student that he was unable to leave the church school before signing everything. The church authorities were again to be left forever.
