REGISTRATION PLANS FOR NEXT SEMESTER ARE NOW COMPLETED

Registration of all students now on the campus, except students in the college of medicine, will be completed by Saturday evening, January 30. All students will register during the first week of the second semester.

The process is in the plans for the registration of the students in the college of liberal arts, education, commerce, and the graduate college, are as follows:

I. Registration will proceed steadily between class and examination periods only, beginning on Monday morning, January 16, and continuing until 5 p.m., Tuesday, January 21, inclusive. All students in these four colleges who are reasonably sure that they will return for the work of the second semester, will register as follows:

a. Those whose last name begins with letters A to K, inclusive, on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, January 16 to 18, inclusive.

b. Those whose last name begins with letters L to S, inclusive, on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, January 19 to 21, inclusive.

c. Those whose last name begins with letters T to Z, inclusive, on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, January 23 to 25, inclusive.

d. Students who know, or have come to suspect, that they will fail in the first semester, will register for the second semester at once, respectively, within the three-day periods specified above 1, 2, and 3, and must pay the prescribed late registration fee of $2.00 for the first day's delay, and $1.00 for each additional day's delay. The university does not want to collect a single dollar in late registration fees; it only wants the students to complete registration betimes, and in as orderly a manner as possible.

IV. The colleges of law, dentistry, and applied science, Monday, January 16 to 18, inclusive.

THE HAMMER THROW

It takes a real husky to hurl the hammer. A lot depends upon just how much strength the hammer thrower has when he let go.

Through the years, the same kind of knowledge is important in business. We need it to train our employees. By training them we can be trained by maintaining an accurate record of the business. It represents the help of the helpful counsel of the officers on the subject of merit.

A Dollar will Go a Long Way in our 64th Semi-Annual Clearance Sale of Suits, Overcoats and Men's Furnishings

"IMPOSSIBLE" said a visitor to Mt. Vernon, when shown a broad expance of the Potomac, across which Washington is said to have thrown a dollar.

"But a dollar went farther in those days," is the reply.

Your dollar never has gone so far in the last seven years as it is worth.
