One hundred and twenty-five men are expected to attend the fifth annual Kibbels-Fishbein dinner which will be held in the main dining room of the Hotel Jefferson at 6:30 o'clock this evening. Those in attendance will be the leaders of the several campus organizations and the men planning the central activities. At the table will be representatives of all the organizations and of the senior class.

Carl F. Kusche, '31, one of the organizers of the annual men's dinner, expects to arrive in Iowa City on Friday. He is president of the Kibbels-Fishbein organization.

The Kibbels-Fishbein dinner has been a tradition as long as the Kibbels-Fishbein organization has existed. It has been held during the winter term for the last three years and has grown in importance as a purely student enterprise.

This year the event is one of the more prominent in the affairs of the University Association, Student Senate and the College of Liberal Arts.

“WANTON! TRAITOR! DRAG HER DOWN TO THE DUST!”
They Shouted

Then, as her answer, Theodore turned loose into the arena the horde of hungry lions that were caged in the vaults of the Hippodrome.

History cannot produce a more thrilling instance of imperial wickedness than this act of the great Empress. And it was all to save the life of her lover, leader of the rebels.

That night all Byzantium was in flames. The chamber of battle surged throughout the royal palace in the gardens there was a crash of spears. The huge doors gave way and on through the shining corridors the mad mob plunged into the great torture chamber, where comrades writhed in torment.
