BOYDSCOMBE TAKEN FROM CLEANING AND PRESSING

Reduced Prices Will Be Given One Month's Notice

NEW PRICE IN EFFECT

Barbers and Students Unable To Reach Compromise at

After a two-hour conference of barbers and students over the price of a shave, a compromise was reached and the new prices went into effect today.

PRESIDENTS ELECTED

There will be a great deal of debate about the new prices. Students are divided in their opinions, but a majority vote will be taken.

Cash for Work

The barber shop, in order to cooperate with the students, has lowered the price for work done, when possible, and when they have work done, they will not be charged for prompt payment. This will help the business, and also the students who may not be able to afford the reduced prices.

R. J. CLAFLIN

The barber shop has further lowered the prices in regards to the boys.

The conference at which barbers and students met was unable to come to an agreement.

BAPTIST CHURCH OFFERS CURB ROOMS FOR STUDENTS

The recently finished curb room of the Baptist church is being used by students who wish to sleep in a room for students, but they do not have a place to stay. The room is open from 10 p.m. to 7 a.m., and students can sleep there.

STUDENT SHELTER

Complete equipment and furnishings are provided in the room. Bedspreads and pillows are provided, and there is an extra bed for each student. The room is clean and comfortable, and there is a place to store clothing and belongings.

TWO WOMEN'S PETITIONS

Only two of the 4th Franklin Company women have petitioned for mid-week services. One of the women is a member of the church, and the other is a visitor from out of town. She has been petitioning for a week, and the petition has been denied.

PIPER IS BETTER

Professor E. D. Piper, who has been in charge of the prayer meetings, has been replaced by Father B. B. Piper, who has been in charge of the prayer meetings for the past three years. Father B. B. Piper has been very popular with the students, and he has been in charge of the prayer meetings for the past three years.

"Our Tickets Not Good"

Administration is the most this afternoon, and Father B. B. Piper, who has been in charge of the prayer meetings, has been replaced by Professor E. D.
