PROFESSOR DILL DENIES TREASURE HUNTING REPORT

The University of Iowa's most celebrated professor of anthropology, Professor Harlan D. Dill, denied on Monday that he was planning to dig for treasure in the state this summer.

"I have no interest in the recovery of lost treasures," said Professor Dill. "My research is focused on the study of human cultures and their artifacts."}

COASTS'

"A Variety of New Costumes"

Promise a Smart Dress-up Easter

ONE can always get enthusiastic assembling a complete costume to dress up in on Easter. There is somehow a clothes enthusiasm in the air. This Easter choosing promises even more than usual delights because styles have taken such a new and swagger turn.

Easter Always Has Meant a Suit

THE much ado over tweeds has deprived twills and tricotises of the publicity they deserve—form they are extremely smart. These navy tricotises displaying tones of color in waistcoats and sleeve facings, brading and applique, prove it. They are Easter Tricoteuses of distinction and a navy Suit is always in such refined taste.

$25.00 to $75.00

Frocks for Easter

Your Wrap May Be Cape or Coat

WOMEN who select Frocks from this group are very apt to say, "I found just what I wanted!" The originality of the Frocks creates desire and there is style variety enough to meet any preconceived preferences you may have.
