FORTY MEN ENTERED IN INTERCOLLEGIATE MEET FOR WRESTLERS THIS WEEK

Over forty men are now entered in the intercollegiate wrestling meet to be held Friday and Saturday.

This representation of nine high schools of the state will compete in the first wrestling meet for se­ codary schools to be held by the de­partment of athletics of the Univer­sity. The increased interest in this branch of sport through the country, and especially in Universities and colleges indicates the class of wrest­lers that can be expected in the com­ming meet. The match compelling has been, participation in dual me­tures and in the invitational meet at Ames as well as Iowa State, prepared for just that to determine the leaders of the divisions in the state.

University fans will be introduced to two new classes when the spea­knight meet in the 150 and 165 lb. classes. Four wrestlers are entered for the matches weights which spread will be shown.

The middle weights are the most popular as shown by the number of entries, six and seven in the 125 and 135 lb. classes.

The entries to date are: Central City, Ellis, Harvey, Sawyer, Howard, Greenwich, Cedar, Hallow, Cresco, Shiloh, Decorah, Easton, Indianola, Des Moines, Tiffin.

titled “Fool’s Paradise”

POOR and blind, he thought himself a famous poet, married to a famous dancer. But when his sight returned and he found his book of poems was only a cookbook and her wife a common woman—what then? A scathing story running through thrills in Mexico, France and Rome—through Texas Border strife and dances and rites of the East—through beauty of women, beauty of power, beauty of settings. This is the greatest screen show on Earth and De Mille has given his greatest skill to the silent screen.

Under the present plan the week starting April 1 has been designated as the Minneapolis Union week, and during this week the students will receive the free use of the projector area. The week will be preceded by several days of intensive publicity, and educational work, supplemented by every known means which can serve to create interest in the Union.

Flan 1Dine

Probably the biggest feature of the pre-Union week is the dinner for prominent alumni and organization presidents, which will be given Thursday, March 31st. This dinner will serve to enlist the support of these leaders in the promotion of their respective organizations. Although the program for the evening is still in the making it is intended, an announcement, by Judge Williams, 8. E. Harris, former United States senator from Iowa, and other prominent people who are identified in Iowa, and the Union, as sponsors.
