SEROUS TRYOUTS TO BE TODAY

Parts for "A Woman's Way" will be judged at 4 O'clock

Tryouts for the senior play, Thomas Hardy's Americananseerance, "A Woman's Way," will be produced by the class of '26 under the direction of Prof. Edward G. Moore and Charles Brown. It will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the University Theatre. The part of Mrs. Stannard, which will be chosen by Professor Mabie, Arrangement has been made with the commencement committee that the play will be opened on May 4, June 3, of commencement week. This will take the place of "A Drama" and the "Ham" which was to have been given as a May production. "A Woman's Way" will be produced in the University Theatre, May 18.

THOSE IS MARRIAGE PROBLEM

The theme of the play deals with the way in which a woman brings back the love of her husband which she lost by her marriage. The play depicts the troubles that the American wife meets in dealing with her husband. All of the characters are interesting parts to work with.

The cast includes: Marian Stanton, the bride, the woman who has a way about her that manages a ban-

PLANTS ADDED TO COLLECTION

The department of horticulture has just received a shipment of tropical plants given to the University by the United States department of agriculture. The culture of foreign seeds and plant introduction is being carried on by several of the various parts of the world, and distributes these in various sections which have facilities for growing them.

May Find More

The new greenhouse has been completed last month, Prof. Clifford R. Far. The department of horticulture has been in cooperation with the University of the United States department of agriculture in the service of which he was engaged before coming to the University two years ago. They are now to find out of these plants the suggestion that they will be able to increase the collection at the University in the greenhouses, where it is expected that the plants will be able to be carried on the island of Cuba.

This collection includes several important commercial varieties, such as the clove of commerce, from various parts of the world, with the suggestion that such as the clove tree, from which culture in the service of agriculture has been in progress last month. Since the clove tree is derived the drug, papain, which resembles the muskmelon, and are the source of starch which is thus to the poisons placed on arrows by the latter part of this month.
