FRIVOL TURNS
CAMPUS CRITIC

Campus Activities Are Rated By Well-Known Senior Students

Criticisms in the form of a report critical of about 150 campus activities will feature the radical number of Friivol to be sold on the campus and at the Sidewalks Monday, May 1. The rating has been compiled from separate ratings turned in by request by unless Analytics A.A., Lloyd Anderson ’23 of Rapid City, Harold Anderson A.A. of De Soto, Mess. Fred E. Eggers of Kansas City, Edger R. Goodrich of Anamosa, Miss. Booge Goldhi A.A. of De Soto, and Cloyce Huston A.A. of Coralville. Everything from Harding to Hot Dogs has been treated in the rating.

Dramatic Criticisms

“Flights of Society,” and “Clue Club,” reviews recently produced by the University Theater, are given first critical judgment in the Radical number. A full page of pictures illustrates the review.

“Protests For Two” scrutinizes several tickets hidden facts and thoughts of Music. Advertisement and Golfschmuck. An article on "Love's Old Lane" by Robert Benchley illustrates the process of decision through which practically every young man of active temperament has gone. It or will go. "Imitation sketches of Golfschmuck" shows how Ann, Edger Allen, Pete, Arthur Schenckmar, William Shakespeare, and Leo Taft act under certain rather ordinary occasions not previously depicted by Ingraham.
