BAND GOES TO ILLINOIS GAME IN SPECIAL CAR

At Least 500 Old Gold Rooters Expected to See Game Today

About 2000 students gathered at Iowa Field yesterday evening for the final mass meeting before the departure of the team for the game with Illinois today. The rooters occupied the west stands and the band, which is making the trip with the team, was also out.

Cheer leaders led a number of rousing fighting yells while the Old Gold squad was working in the field in the final drill before the Illinois tilt. Aubrey Devine, head freshman coach, addressed the meeting with a short pep speech.

Although the demonstration was not as great as last week's meetings before and after the Yale game, there was much enthusiasm shown. That there will be at least 500 Iowa rooters at the Illinois field this afternoon is certain.

There are a large number of students who left yesterday in cars and over 250 left on the special train last night.

Every freight train will bring more rooters into Urbana it is stated.

The University band left on the special train last night due to the response of the student body to "Tag Day" yesterday. Officers of the Howling 300 stated that over $600 had been secured from the student body and the few donations made by the business men put the fund over the required amount without the assistance of funds from the Athletic Board.

HAZING ORDEAL INVOLVES MORE

Testimony in Court Martial Hearing Brings Two More Names in Inquiry

(By United News)
Annapolis, Md., Oct. 20—That the hazing investigation being conducted at the naval academy here may involve additional midshipmen was indicated by testimony in the court martial hearing Friday.

Two midshipmen, whose names have not been brought into the inquiry before, were said to have been present when the hazing of midshipman W. H. McGregor occurred.

McGregor, on crutches and unable to sit down was brought to the hearing from the naval hospital in an ambulance. His back and muscle hip are affected from the severe ordeal he was forced to go through.

Midshipman Edwin K. Consort, present at the alleged hazing, described the stunts McGregor was ordered to do by upperclassmen. They were known as "sitting on infinity," the "stoop fall," and the "dips". Consort said he could not remember whether Bruce Robinson, the accused midshipman, gave the command or not but in each instance said Robinson gave the order to McGregor to stop. "Sitting on infinity" consists of taking a sitting posture against the wall with no support for the body. In the "stoop fall" the victim lies on the floor face downwards, and raises his body by straightening his arms. The "dip" is done hanging by the hands and raising the leg to a horizontal position.

ARCH OF WELCOME TO BE ERECTED NOVEMBER 2

The arch of welcome for Homecoming will be erected on November 2. The arch will be a sixty foot span between the engineering and physics buildings. The two towers of the sign will be trimmed with corn stalks and words of welcome will be lettered in corn. The rest of the design will be worked out in colors of old gold and black.

The committee working on the arch is, Lloyd E. Anderson S4 of Madrid, William H. Albers S4 of Des Moines, Clarence A. Pangborn S3 of Des Moines, and Fern Brown S1 of Crawfordsville, Indiana.

HENRY J. PRENTISS SLIGHTLY BETTER; CHANCE FOR LIFE

Reports at a late hour last night from St. Luke's hospital in Cedar Rapids, where Henry J. Prentiss Jr. lies dangerously hurt, indicate that his condition is somewhat improved. He rested as easily as could be hoped for during the day and a lowering of temperature gives hope that nature is with him in his fight for life.

Dean Louis of Chicago and other specialists were in consultation late last night to decide whether or not an operation would add to or detract from his now slight chance for recovery. Any operation would probably be performed in Iowa City because of the added facilities here.

Although hopes for his recovery are slight the fact that his physical condition, is that of an athlete in training, and his spirit is that which will contend with any odds raises the hopes of the thousands who are watching and pulling with him for life.

THETA SIGMA PHI TO PLEDGE WOMEN

Women Will be Invited on Sunday and Pledged on Wednesday

Theta Sigma Phi will send out invitations Sunday to women, who are now qualified for membership in the organization. The pledging of these women will take place Wednesday at Sigma Rho House.

Theta Sigma Phi is an honorary journalistic sorority.

The requirements for membership are that the prospective member must be junior or senior in course, must have grade of C in the course, must be in good standing in her class, must be recommended by head of department of journalism.

Established at Iowa in 1918

Theta Sigma Phi is a national organization. The branch in the University of Iowa was established in 1918, at which time it's first work was to edit Frivol, in partnership with the mens professional fraternity, Sigma Delta Chi.

Puts Out One Edition

Every year since it has been established here Theta Sigma Phi puts out one edition of the Daily Iowan. The members are permitted to do free lancing for other magazines and newspapers in the state, besides their work on the Daily Iowan.

This organization has a home in Chicago where women who are working along lines of journalism may stay. The Journalistic Register is an employment bureau which finds work for women, who have graduated from courses in Journalism, on magazine and newspapers all over the United States.

MRS. ANNA D. OLSEN CHALLENGES OPPONENT TO SERIES OF DEBATES

(By United News)

St. Paul, Oct. 20—Mrs. Anna Dickey Olsen first woman to be nominated by a major political party for the United States Senate has challenged Senator Frank D. Kellogg, republican opponent to a debate or series of debates on the administration attitude towards a soldier's bonus, the tariff bonus, and the Newberry case.

Senator Kellogg who is at Redwood hall said Friday night that he had not accepted the challenge and refused to intimate whether or not he would accept it.

"I will answer the message when I receive it," Kellogg said.

"Mrs. Olsen's challenge gives the Republican senator a choice of one, three, five or seven debates—or none. She issued it following a record breaking campaign in which she spoke in more than 200 Minnesota towns and cities.

Faculty Reception

Six hundred or more faculty members attended the annual faculty reception given last night at the home of President and Mrs. Walter A. Jessup. This reception is given every year in honor of the new faculty members, and for the purpose of acquainting the old and new members.

HAWKEYES IN PERFECT TRIM TO MEET ILLINI

Parkin and Engeldinger Carry Limp; Locke and Heldt in Shape Again

With the weather almost too warm for good football, the varsity squad took its final workout on Iowa field last night before entraining for Urbana where Old Gold meets Orange and Blue this afternoon.

Practically every man on the Iowa team will enter the game in almost perfect condition. Parkin and Engeldinger are the possible exceptions, as both carried a slight limp throughout the drill. Locke's leg and Heldt's lame back seem to be in good shape again, but another hard bump in the game might place either of these stars on the bench. The rest of the squad reported in the best of shape, and will be rarin' to go at the blow of the referee's whistle tomorrow.

Study Technicalities

Most of the practice was devoted to clearing up any doubt that the players might have in regard to any of the technicalities or rules of the game. Coach Jones spent a great deal of time explaining the on-side kick, the short kick-off, free catch, and several other plays of the more or less fluke variety. Jones is taking no chances on letting Zuppke get away with another win on a fluke as he did three years ago on on-side kick. Two teams were lined up against each other and Coach Jones demonstrated some of the technicalities personally so that there would be no misunderstanding in the game today.

Jones then gave the men a short talk on proper mental attitude, and the practice closed with a long signal drill with Parkin piloting the varsity composed of Kadesky and Hancock, end; Thompson and Engeldinger, tackles; Meade and Minick, guards; Heldt, center; Miller and Shuttleworth, halves; and Capt. Locke at full. The men did not appear overconfident at any time, but seemed determined to fight the Zuppke crew to a standstill.

Illini in Shape

When the Iowa team trots out on the Illinois field today, the enormous Homecoming crowd will have the opportunity of seeing one of the smoothest football aggregations ever developed in the Big Ten, United States, or for that matter, the world. Illinois can hardly be said to be really dangerous, but there is no doubt but that the team that knocks the chip off Iowa's shoulder today will be a much different one than that which foiled before little Butler last Saturday. Zuppke has been drilling his men hard and long for the past week, and has not let a stone unturned in his efforts to put into the field the very best eleven he can muster; and it is needless to say that Illinois, who has spent more than one Championship contender's chances, would take utmost delight in trimming the Hawkeyes this afternoon, and thus eliminate them from the running. They realize, however, that a victory for the Orange and Blue would be nothing less than a miracle, and are pinning their sole hopes on the cunning of Coach Robert Zuppke.

Soaches are Scouts

The twenty-nine men who are making the Illinois trip, boarded the special train at the Rock Island station at 8:30 last night, together with the coaches and Medical Supervisor "Dad" Fieseler.

While Iowa is battling Illinois this afternoon Assistant Coach Jenkins will be in the stands watching the Chicago-Purdue contest, and Coach Barry will be in Columbus, scouting the Ohio State-Michigan encounter. Bill Kelly left yesterday for the scene of the Minnesota-Northwestern game. Minnesota has been causing a great deal of concern around Conference circles since their decisive victory over Indiana last Saturday, and the norsemens will no doubt be at the height of their stride when they met Iowa Homecoming.

ALL EYES ON CENTRE'S GAME WITH HARVARD

South Fails to Win Any of 6 Intersectional Games Played This Year

(By United News)

New York, Oct. 20—The reputation of southern football as against northern will be at stake Saturday when Centre meets Harvard and Georgia Tech meets the Navy. The South has failed to win any of the six intersectional games played so far this season although Vanderbilt held Michigan to a tie.

The Centre game, because it involves the prestige of Harvard a member of the Big Three, holds the focus of public interest if doing what no other team has done before—beating the Crimson two years in succession in the Cambridge Stadium—the "praying colonels" from Kentucky are counted on to play the game of their career.

Epidemic Hits Centre

They will need all their fight for they are without the services of "Bo" McMillin who practically defeated Harvard single handed last year 6 to 0, by his sensational "half end run". They are handicapped by an epidemic of last-minute colds and sore throats which came on them Friday while awaiting their game at Cambridge Tom Bartlett one of the half backs who helped humble Harvard last year developed tonsillitis and was so weak he could not attend practice. It is feared he can not play Saturday and "Red" Roberts all-American end last year, may be shifted to the back field.

Important Conference Games

Other games of national importance Saturday will be Iowa vs. Illinois at Urbana.

Michigan vs. Ohio State at Columbus.

Maryland vs. Princeton at Princeton.

Tennessee vs. Georgia at Atlanta, Ga.

The Illinois-Iowa game will go far toward determining the Big Ten conference winner, both teams always prime themselves for this contest and Coach Zuppke of Illinois attended the Yale game last Saturday to look his opponents over. The Hawkeyes are favorites because of their victory over Yale which was accomplished without serious injury to any player. Ohio State's position in the conference will be known by the result of its game against Michigan. The Wolverines surprised by their failure to defeat Vanderbilt, are making startling shifts in their lineup and style of play and by an outside chance may upset the championship aspiration of Ohio State.

COLLEGE RIVALRY TURNS INTO RIOT

Twenty Injured, One Totally, When Students at University of California Mix

(By United News)

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 20—College rivalry turned into a riot on the campus of the University of California, southern branch, early today and as a result more than twenty students were injured, one perhaps, fatally.

It was the traditional bonfire fight when University of Southern California students attempted, by the use of "gasoline bombs" to destroy the majestic wood pile the night before the rally preceding the southern branch of the University of California football game with Occidental College.

The invaders arrived in automobiles and hurled gasoline soap rags and succeeded in setting the fire but students guards engaged the attackers in combat which brought clubs, sticks, and stones into play.

Police and firemen, attracted by flames called out reserves and stopped the fighters only after a student had been seriously injured in the set to. The most seriously hurt was Roger Bargas 18 years old who sustained a possible spinal fracture.

IOWA-ILLINOIS EXTRA TO GIVE FULL REPORT 10 MINUTES AFTER GAME

A full account of the Iowa-Illinois game, complete to the referee's final whistle is guaranteed in the football extra edition of the Daily Iowan which will be issued immediately after the game this afternoon.

Besides the entire play-by-play reports as received at the armory, the Iowan extra will carry a 220 word a quarter story from the United Press, the fastest telegraph and telephone service it is possible to obtain. Last week the United Press beat its competitor by ten minutes on the Yale game.

For the Sunday morning Iowan, in addition to the play-by-play and wire reports, there will appear a special article on the game by Francis J. Weber, sports editor of the Iowan, who is covering the contest. For the extra edition a short story of the game will be wired from Urbana between halves.

No attempt will be made to break the speed record established Saturday. The Iowan, however, will appear on the streets before the crowd from the armory reaches town.

IOWA NET STARS DEFEAT COE TEAM

Iowa Tennis Players Lose One Singles Match; Swenson Stars

The Coe College tennis team was decidedly outclassed by the Iowa net men yesterday afternoon when the return matches were played off from 2 to 5 p. m. on the gym courts. The Coe team arrived in Iowa City about 1 o'clock, led by Captain Beeson.

The following men were entered in the tourney by Coe: Beeson, Norton, Ball, Waring, Monteith, and Moss. The Iowa team included Swenson, Searles, Dorsey, Marquardt, Cooper, and McLaughlin, Searles taking the place of Janse who was absent.

Ball Wins for Coe

The first of the singles began promptly at 3 o'clock. In the singles matches only one was won by Coe. The rest were a decided proof of Iowa's superiority. The singles were played in the following order:

Swenson of Iowa defeated Beeson of Coe 6-4; 6-4. Dorsey of Iowa defeated Monteith of Coe 6-1; 3-6; 6-2. Marquardt of Iowa defeated Norton of Coe 6-2; 6-1. Cooper of Iowa defeated Moss of Coe 6-2; 6-0. Ball of Coe defeated McLaughlin of Iowa 6-2; 6-2. Searles of Iowa defeated Waring of Coe 6-4; 6-4. The match between Ball and McLaughlin was perhaps the fastest match played. Both in this match and in the double Ball showed up well.

Iowa Takes Doubles

In the doubles Iowa won each of the three matches as follows: Swenson and Dorsey won from Beeson and Norton 6-4; 6-1. Searles and Cooper won from Moss and Waring 6-0; 6-0. Marquardt and McLaughlin won from Monteith and Ball 7-5; 6-4. In the first of these matches Swenson was handicapped by the absence of James with whom he has been playing. His rapid fire serving was the winning factor in this match which resulted in a victory for Iowa in spite of the fact that he smashed his racket and had to play out the game with a lighter racket.

The matches were witnessed by a large group of enthusiasts. Mr. Ernest G. Schroeder, director of physical education for men, expressed satisfaction at the result of the contest and commented on the improvement made since the beginning of the season. The next match will be with Grinnell college at Grinnell.

DICKSON PRAISES IOWA

Congratulations on the Yale-Iowa game were received yesterday from M. R. Dickson, graduate in pharmacy in the class of 1906. Mr. Dickson is at present the chief chemist for the western branch of Peet Brothers soap and glycerine company at West Berkeley, California.

ALFRED SEVERIN DIES

News of the death of Alfred Severin, graduate of the college of pharmacy in 1900, was received yesterday by Dean Toeters. Mr. Severin was president of the Severin tire and supply company of Oklahoma City, Okla.

LAW COMPLETES PERSONNEL OF NEW MINISTRY

Lloyd George, En Route to Leeds, Travels in Veritable Triumph

(By United News)

London, Oct. 20—David Lloyd George has been making a great fight for his return to power.

Doing a four-hour journey from London to Leeds the ex-premier barely indicated his unrelenting opposition to the now forming new government or his intentions of carrying on a battle for "national interests."

Leaving London at the conclusion of a ceremony of welcome to the Prince of Wales at Guild Hall the "Welsh wizard" enjoyed a veritable triumph en route to Leeds where he is expected to make a complete announcement of his future course.

"The spirit of 'a return to the good old days,' reminiscent of the Harding slogan 'back to normalcy' in the 1920 days across the Atlantic dominates England in hailing the new government. Though the assurance that their expectations will be fulfilled by Bonar Law may be about as safe as that of the American people who supported Harding, certainly it is the general hope.

Bonar Law, progressing with his cabinet making, expects to be able to go before the King not later than Monday to formally advise his Majesty that he will lead the new government. Preceding his audience with the King, the unionists of both houses of parliament will meet to elect Law their leader.

Following a day of conference it was authoritatively revealed that Law was making sufficient progress to insure an early completion of his new ministry.

It already is assured that Lord Curzon will be awarded the post of foreign minister, Lord Derby minister of war; Lord Salisbury, president of the privy council; Stanley Baldwin, chancellor of the Exchequer and Colonel Amery, first Lord of the admiralty. Lord Finlay is prominently mentioned as slated for Lord Chancellor Douglas Hogg as attorney general and Lord Peel as secretary of state for India.

Lloyd George in his speech Saturday is expected to reveal the party machinery thus far undisclosed by which he will appeal to the country. All England anticipates a dramatic announcement.

His slogan, however, is expected to be, "Let there continue that great national unity to carry us through peace which carried us through war."

In addressing the crowds en route to Leeds, Lloyd George repeated with emphases that he had an agreement with "the ablest and most distinguished leaders of the conservative party, Austin Chamberlain, Lord Balfour, Lord Birkenhead and Sir Robert Born and that this agreement contemplates continued cooperation.

GERMAN MONARCHISTS SAID TO BE PLOTTING AGAINST REPUBLIC

(By United News)

Berlin, Oct. 20—Rumors that the German monarchists are planning revolt against the Republic have been heard for several days and the police have been very active in running down leads. It is declared that the uprising was to have been of a general character.

They accidentally seized a letter Friday proving, they claim, the existence of a second known plot against the life of Chancellor Wirth, the third plot was announced in the Reichstag.

A plot formed by three young reactionaries to assassinate Chancellor Wirth was discovered previously Friday. The trio had taken an oath to sacrifice their own lives if necessary in an attempt to slay him.

Herr Severin, Prussian minister of interior, speaking in the Diet charged that the so called nationalistic party was planning the formation of a "freedom party" aiming at a freedom battle against France.

MEN'S FORENSIC BOARD CHOOSE QUESTION FOR SOPHOMORE DEBATE

The proposition for debate among the three men's literary societies in the sophomore contest, as decided by the men's forensic council at a meeting in close hall last Wednesday, is, "Resolved: That a Federal Court Similar to the Kansas Industrial Court Should be Established to Settle Industrial Disputes in Essential Industries." The constitutionality of the step is conceded for purpose of debate. The preliminary intersociety sophomore debate on November 30 will be between the Philomathean literary society and Irving Institute. In the final sophomore debate on January 11, the Zetaganian team will argue the winner of the first contest.

Last year the Zetaganian team composed of Robert W. Cooper of Newton, Charles E. Cornwell of Independence, and Buel G. Beems of Anamosa defeated the Philomatheans and the Irvings, and thus won the sophomore debating championship. By right of this, the Zets do not argue this year until the final debate, when the winner of the preliminary debate between the Philos and Irvings will dispute with them for this year's sophomore championship.

Any sophomore in good standing in the University and a member of one of the three men's literary societies is eligible to tryout for his society's team. Three men compose the team. The three societies will hold tryouts for places on these teams within their respective organizations soon.

DOPING THE DOPE

The other day some of the sports staff became ambitious and turned in a lot of copy. "Pest" not only writes this column, but reads copy on sports stuff, and he was so busy that he didn't have time to turn out his masterpiece. He gave us a cigar to do it that night, and as so far no one has offered to run us out of town, he asked us to do it again today.

"Pest" is in Urbana today covering the big game for the Iowan. Those of us who were unlucky enough to have too many classes and not enough money will have to be satisfied with his story in the paper Sunday morning.

Before he left, "Pest" came over to our desk with a notebook full of clippings, and shoved them in our hands. "Here is the dope," he said. "You go ahead and dope it." We have looked it all over and now we are going back over to his desk and look for some more stuff.

We were right. He was holding out on us. There is a press clipping bureau at Chicago that clips all the stories which concern the University, from papers all over the United States, and sends them to the University publicity bureau. In "Pest's" deal there now reposes over 650 clippings, and all of them are about the Yale-Iowa football game.

It is hard to tell how many stories the clippers missed, too. At any rate, it is certain that the Commercial club will shed no tears over this bit of news.

Two significant things stand out in somebody's dope which is among those clippings. The first is that the Yale Bulldog was paraded up and down the sidelines and sniffed significantly when the Iowa players came his way. The second statement is that Iowa lost no time in getting out of town. It is claimed that they took the five o'clock train.

These statements are probably true. It is well to note, however, that the aforesaid Bulldog did not offer to bite anybody, and it is also well to wonder if the fellows were in a hurry to get back to some competition.

IOWANS VICTORS BY SHEER BRAUN

—another headline in an eastern paper. They don't say anything about brain. We certainly hope that they don't start that corn and culture stuff again. It seems to us that they would be afraid to.

Wisconsin has come to realize that they lost a good bet in big John Hancock. Their paper doesn't accuse Iowa of stealing Hancock right from under their noses, but it does say that Commissioner Griffith should get the facts on the presence of certain players on some conference institutions. The article also claims that it cannot be said that Iowa alumni did this with Hancock, but it is being done by some associations.

Somehow or other we can't quite figure the sportsmanship of this article. It seems that one of two things has happened at Wisconsin: either they are starting an alibi for the lack of good men on their team this year, before they have given their team a chance to do it stuff, or else they have been asleep and let some good men slip away from them and now are sore at their own slowness.

This is just to illustrate what a championship team will really do to stimulate interest. One hundred freshmen have turned out for basketball at Purdue this year. You will remember that Purdue won the championship last year.

Purdue surely had a good team. That lanky Gullion, who played center for them last year was only a sophomore. Last winter he could stand at one end of the floor and toss them in with one hand, so it seemed to us at the reporter's table, and if he improves any at all, what will he do this year?

A story of the Yale-Iowa game says that during the contest Engeldinger came to blows with Greene, a Yale linesman. It was Hancock who did what little fighting there was, although it isn't best to recall such things. Yale should be thankful, though, that it wasn't Engeldinger.

Maybe if they keep on, that sigh "Iowa Fights" will mean more than it does right now.

"Iowa used many of the strange devices for which conferences football is noted", said one of the eastern papers after the game Saturday. It was the old conservative East kicking about anything that was not in use when they were burning witches in New England.

The conference teams use shifts because they have found that shifts are an effective weapon of offense. Nearly every team in the country including some of the eastern teams are using some sort of shift but few of them have them as well developed as they are in the Middle-West. Why call them odd just because a few teams are not using them.

We suppose that because Iowa was successful in completing passes and Yale was not that passes are included among the "strange devices." But the passing attack has been recognized as one of the great weapons of offense for a number of years. The East should have taken warning from Notre Dame's beatings of West Point, and developed that end of the game.

The West is going to keep on using shifts and passes.

500 IOWA BOOSTERS LEFT YESTERDAY TO ATTEND ILLINI GAME

More than 500 Iowa boosters have left Iowa City to support the team today in their game with the University of Illinois at Urbana, Ill., according to information available last evening.

Approximately half of those who made the trip went in cars. Garage proprietors who specialize in the renting of cars for trips of this kind report the chartering of five vehicles.

Each fraternity on the campus will be represented on the bleachers at Urbana today by a delegation from four to six men. The largest number of representatives for any single fraternity was sixteen.

The majority of the rooters going overland, left for Urbana early last evening. They will leave Urbana Sunday morning arriving back in Iowa City sometime during the day.

250 WORK FOR W. A. A. POINTS

About 250 women are now working for their fifty points in order to join W. A. A. Fifty of these are going in for recreational swimming, while the other 200 are hiking. Last year approximately 150 swam and hiked for points. The increase in interest this year is notable.

ENTRIES COME IN FOR SCHOOL MEET

High School Cross Country Meet is Scheduled for October 28

The high school cross country meet which is to be held here October 28 is attracting a good deal of attention in the schools over the state. A number of entries has already been received by the athletic department.

This meet will be held over a one and seven-eighths miles course northwest of Iowa City, and will start at eleven in the morning before the Iowa-Purdue football game. The run is as follows: Start at the corner of Iowa Avenue and Madison streets, go west across the bridge and turn north. Follow the road along the river, turn to the left at first road past the interurban tracks. At top of the hill turn to right, go north then east to the river road. This road will then be followed back to Iowa avenue, recross the river and finish at the starting point.

The Cedar Rapids and Iowa City high school teams are expected to work out on the course today. Coach Leo Novak of the Cedar Rapids team will bring his men over and will be taken over the courses by some of the members of the Iowa cross country squad.

ILLINI MEN SCRIMMAGE HARD IN LAST PRACTICE BEFORE MEETING IOWA

By Joe Godfrey, Jr.

Urbana, Ill.—With another day of strenuous practice to go through before the Illinois-Iowa Homecoming battle on Illinois Field here Saturday, Coach Bob Zuppke sent his men through the hardest scrimmage of the season against Burt Ingwersen's freshman, who stood their ground like veterans.

With the ball on the ten yard line, the freshman held, the ball going over and Baker, yearling quarter, carried the ball eight yards through the line on the first play.

Illinois then held and Britton kicked to midfield, where the ball was downed, Coutechie tripping as he was about to get started. The game showed Illinois fighting, the freshman yielding nothing. The practice today showed the Illinois ends getting down on punts better than on any previous day, Captain Dave Wilson and Ted Richards both hitting Baker together on many occasions.

Great preparations for the Homecoming are being arranged. It will be Illini's largest Homecoming. It will be the last Homecoming football game on Illinois field, next year's battle to be in the new Illini Memorial Stadium, which when completed will seat 90,000 spectators.

Celebrations of all kinds will be on card for Friday and Saturday and the big celebration will be the football game. Iowa is feared, but Illini hopes are running high. A great baseball game is expected Friday afternoon between the Alumni, coached by George Huff, and the Varsity, headed by Coach Carl Lundgren.

On the alumni team are many famous ball players. Jack Bradley one of the greatest ball players ever produced here, is to play in the outfield, Julie Mee to play short, Captain Mickey Ryan of many years back, and Kement of the Beloit Fairies to twirl, Bill Kopp to catch, and so on down the list.

Saturday morning will be held the All-American Foreign soccer tilt. These are but a few of the big things, which take in the Senior Hobo parade and the annual class scrap between the freshman and sophomores.

HAWKS WILL FACE "RUNE" CLARK TODAY

When Iowa takes the field at Illinois today, they will face "Rune" Clark, brother of "Potsy", present coach at Kansas university, and former All-American quarterback at University of Illinois. If "Rune" lives up to advanced notices he will give Iowa plenty to worry about as Illinois claims that he is every bit as good as his famous brother. He is big, rangy, and fast, tosses and receives passes, is a shifty ball carrier, and punts with no mean ability. He comes from a true football family.

Bulletin Accounts for Unrest
The history department of the University maintains, in a recent service bulletin, that the turmoil of the few last years, is a direct outgrowth of the tragedy of 1453 when the Turks captured Constantinople and established a foothold in Europe. An interesting fact concerning the siege of the city was that on the day of the first great assault of the Moslems 200 men were killed. It was in this campaign that the use of cannon first played an important part.

UNION DRIVE FOR HOMECOMING WEEK

District Captains to Supervise Nine Organized Divisions of the City

Plans for the Memorial Union drive to be held Homecoming week have been completed. The campaign is divided into nine main groups and the entire campaign will be carried on through these organizations.

The nine divisions, which it is believed will include every student are as follows: fraternities, Ben F. Martinson L3, of Lyons, sororities Catherine Wright A4, Des Moines, nurses Elizabeth Kimmel N, of Sheldon, Beatrice Gates A4, and Elizabeth Beckman, quadrangle, Clemont F. Mullen L3, of Waterloo, Currier Hall, Miss Martha H. Althaus A4, of Muscatine, literary societies, George O. Hurley A3, of Rolfe, freshman John S. Grassfield 22.

Iowa City will be divided into twenty-nine districts for the women students and over each district will be placed a captain. Elizabeth Ensign A4, of Iowa City, will have supervision over the twenty-nine captains. A house to house canvass of the men will be made this year and this division will be in charge of Hubert H. Matt L3, of Iowa City, George H. Gallup A4, of Jefferson, and Virgil Hancher, L3, of Rolfe. These divisions will need many more workers than those named. At least fifty men will be needed for the men's house to house canvass and thirty women will be needed for the girl captain committee.

It is believed that some of the organizations named will be able to handle their own campaign very satisfactorily such as the nurses and the quadrangle. A big banquet will be given November 5 for the workers. Last year this Memorial Union banquet was one of the biggest dinners on the campus and it is planned to make it even better this year. The committee in charge of the banquet are: Leona White A4, of Council Bluffs, Hubert H. Matt L3, of Iowa City, Margaret Moore A4, of Harlan.

WENTWORTH EXAMINES FOSSIL WOOD FOUND AT WASHINGTON D. C.

Mr. Chester K. Wentworth, instructor in the department of geology and also a member of the United States geological survey of America, examined large quantities of fossil wood found in an excavation by workmen digging the foundation of a large hotel at Washington, D. C. last summer for the geological survey. Here at a depth of about twenty-five feet below the street level a layer of black swamp muck was found containing large quantities of the wood, tree trunks and stumps. This discovery shows evidence of an ancient swamp where great trees flourished and which were possibly contemporaneous with the earliest man in America. Some of the stumps were of great size, a few of them having a diameter of nine or ten feet. The trees probably were 100 to 150 feet in height. Much of the wood was well preserved and showed the woody structure and the external markings of the bark clearly. One of the more common trees of this ancient swamp was a species of cypress.

1,300,000 Years Old

The geologic history of the excavation examined by Mr. Wentworth for the geological survey dates back to the cretaceous period, 1,000,000 years ago. The stamping ground of prehistoric monsters became inundated and covered by the mud, sand and gravel, then emerged again and was severed by the Potomac river, which cut its valley through these deposits.

Fine clay and pebbles were laid down by streams of water during the glacial epoch over the layer of plant debris and muck in this old swamp.

Boulders and pebbles found in beds of the same age elsewhere in Washington bear scratches and grooves like found on boulders scratched by glacial ice. Many thousands of years later the climate again became warm, the glacial ice melted and the Potomac river still further deepened its valley and trees like those of the present day grew in the latitude of the city of Washington, D. C.

Grading Uncovers Deposits

According to Mr. Wentworth, the layer of vegetable matter just uncovered lies beneath a fill made in grading the city of Washington. Old residents of Washington remember that small creeks, which are now covered up, once flowed across the city to the Potomac River and that trees grew in their valleys. These trees, however, which lived fifty or a hundred years ago, are widely different from those which formed with other vegetation, the layer of peat now disclosed by the excavation.

Y. W. C. A. NATIONAL RELIGIOUS SECRETARY TO ADDRESS CABINET

Local Y. W. C. A. announces that Miss Oloah Burner, national secretary of the religious education department, will be in Iowa City, November 4, 5, and 6. Individuals or groups are invited to schedule dinner or luncheon dates with Miss Burner. Those desiring personal conferences regarding Y. W. C. A. training or similar information should sign also.

Monday afternoon at four o'clock in liberal arts drawing room, a special meeting of first cabinet will be held. All first cabinet members are requested to be there.

The membership campaign, according to Leona Hambrecht A3 of Iowa City, is now in full swing. Many girls have come to the association office to sign for membership without awaiting personal solicitation. No definite figures as to present membership are available until each captain reports. The annual membership banquet for both new and old members will be held November 1.

On Sunday afternoon the regular weekly program for children at the Perkin's hospital will be given. Those who care to volunteer for entertaining on these occasions should notify Myrne Moffit, by calling 593.

HINKLEY, Y. M. C. A. HEAD, HERE FIRST OF NOV.

In view of the expected arrival of E. M. Hinkley during the first week in November, to arrange for the Christian training of local boys, the Y. W. C. A. will make the necessary plans at the Sunday morning cabinet meeting held in the Y. W. C. A. building.

The purpose of Mr. Hinkley's visit to the University of Iowa is to encourage college men to take a more active interest in the boys of the town to help to create a more Christian influence.

It is his belief, according to R. L. Fitzgerald, secretary of the local Y. W. C. A., that if only a few Christian college men will take hikes with these high school boys over week ends, etc., the boys will be influenced by the interest and examples shown by these older men.

Mr. Hinkley is the head of all the student Y. M. C. A.'s in the state where no paid secretary is employed.

KILL A FEW PROFS URGES J. A. PATTEN

Too Many College Professors and Too Few Plasterers; Makes Pay Small

Chicago, Oct. 20—Killing of a few college professors "beginning with the leading one", to overcome a scarcity of plasterers, was advocated Friday by James A. Patten, one time "King" of the Chicago wheat Pit and donor of Northwestern university $500,000 Patten gymnasium.

The proposal to execute the professors was made at a subcommittee meeting of the citizens' committee to enforce the Landis award regulating building trades wages in Chicago, when it developed that plasterers are getting as high as $20 a day and are scarce at that wage. Patten said he had talked it over with college professors.

"There is something wrong when plasterers get more pay than University professors," Patten said he had told the professors, "there is too much education—boys who go to school acquire a desire for a white collar job and won't work at a trade."

"That is what is the matter with the plasterers. It is all a law of supply and demand, too many college professors and too few mechanics."

"What do you want to do?," asked one of the professors, "Start by killing us off?"

"Yes, and perhaps we better start with the leading one first," said Patten.

OWSLEY, NEW LEGION COMMANDER, PLEDGES LOYALTY TO AMERICA

New Orleans, Oct. 20—The American Legion must pledge to America an even greater service than was pledged in the days of war, Alvin M. Owsley, of Texas newly-elected national commander said in acknowledgement of the honor that has just been conferred upon him.

"Please accept from my heart the expression of my profound appreciation for what I consider to be the highest honor that ever could come to a man who served in the world war and now serving the best interests of America," Commander Owsley said.

UNIVERSITY HEEDS CRY OF "BETTER BABIES"

Heeding the cry, "Better Babies!" which has been heard throughout the country, the University of Iowa is sharing the active work of cutting down infant mortality and bettering conditions of infancy.

New Division Opened

The University has this year opened a new division known as the Division of Maternity and Infant Hygiene, created under the Sheppard-Towner bill of Congress passed in 1921, providing for the promotion of the welfare and hygiene of maternity and infancy. 5000 is granted the division from the Federal treasury. Prof. O. E. Klingman, director of the extension division, is director of the new division.

Since September 25, when actual work began, Dr. Florence Johnson, Physician, has given forty lectures to women throughout the state and held as many conferences. Dr. John W. Prentiss, pediatrician, has held clinics in four counties of Iowa, one of four and three of six days, and has examined 278 infants, finding 232 with physical defects and pathological conditions, seventy-five per cent of which can be corrected. Without the establishment of these clinics, few of these cases would have received medical attention.

Wide Field Covered

The work of the new division covered a big field, including medical work in lectures to women, assistance in conducting clinics for infants and children of pre-school age, health education, dissemination of literature and exhibits, and co-operation with the various state agencies working for the betterment of infancy and maternity.

SHRINER'S CONVENTION IN IOWA CITY OCT. 27

The Shriners are coming. About 2000 of them from the neighboring cities will take possession of the city on Oct. 27, stage a big parade in the afternoon, and root for Iowa in Saturday's game. The largest delegations will be from the El Kahir Temple at Cedar Rapids, and the Kaaba Temple at Davenport.

The parade will be divided into five divisions, and will probably be about eight block long. It is hoped that Colonel Mumma will act as marshal. Governor Nate Kendal and the Lieutenant Governor are expected to be here, and will be in the first division. The University Band will head the parade. As nobody but Shriners are allowed in parade of the nature, the local organization obtained a special dispensation from the Grand Potentate permitting the band in the parade.

Bands made up entirely of Shriners

will be here from Cedar Rapids and Davenport, and it is also expected a band will come from Washington and a Drum Corps from Muscatine.

FORENSIC COMMITTEE TO MEET

The committee from the forensic council which is working on plan for the freshman literary society will hold a meeting the first part of next week. Pearl Davies A3 of Plymouth, chairman of the committee, Catherine Donica A2 of Cedar Rapids, and Lois Sensor A3 of Independence will meet with Mildred Freburg, instructor in department of speech, and Prof. Glenn N. Merry to complete the plans.

EASTWARD HO!

All eyes are to the east today as the Old Gold football team takes the field against the Indians. It's a case of fighting Hawkeyes against fighting Illini with odds on Mr. Jones' eleven. Both teams will fight until the final whistle—that is certain. For the Illinoi team a victory over the conquerors of Yale, today, before homecoming alumni would in part retrieve the defeat suffered at the hands of Butler last Saturday. Coach Zupke who witnessed the Iowa-Yale game must be reconciled with the Illinois victory over Ohio State last year, showed that this able coach could turn defeat into victory overnight.

We know that Iowa will fight too. Although sports writers concede Iowa the victory and added to this the defeat of Yale Saturday, which naturally may give the team a certain amount of overconfidence, these will be more than counterbalanced by the grudge Iowa bears its foe dating back to 1919 when Coach Jones put his first strong team into the conference field. This was the year that Iowa left the Illinois field with a 9 to 7 defeat stinging them; the on-side kick which won the game for the Indians was in violation of the rules, they thought. The following year the Hawkeyes went over to Urbana expecting a sure victory—they came home with a 20 to 3 defeat. Last year, Iowa, remembering the humiliating defeats of the two previous seasons, would not be beat; the Illini line was torn to shreds, it hadn't a chance.

But the thorn of defeat still rankles in the Hawkeye's side. Everything coming from the camp to our east is scoffed at; Zupke fooled us once with his propaganda and we don't expect to give him another opportunity. Iowa will take no chance on the game today.

Hundreds of students and alumni, with the Old Gold band, will be there to cheer Iowa to victory. And those of us who can't be in Urbana today will be at the armory to hear the reports. For we're going to scalp the Indians.

JURGEN

Expressing the opinion that "Jurgen" by James Branch Cabell was not an "obscene, lewd, lascivious, filthy or an indecent book," Judge Nott has directed a jury in general sessions in New York to acquit Robert M. McBride & Co., publishers, on charges contained in an indictment returned last May on complaint of the Society for the Suppression of Vice.

This action brings to a close a controversy waged for many months over the deleterious effect of such a work as "Jurgen" on the morals of the country, especially those of the younger generation. Heywood Brown, drama and art critic of the New York World, who has been one of the leaders in the fight against what he terms "the meddlesome attention" of the Society for the Suppression of Vice, characterizes the book as "a merry and gorgeous story." It is a fantastic and imaginative tale depicting the adventures of one restored to first youth.

Brown's stand on such literature seems to be a very sensible one. Sex knowledge for years has been shrouded in puritanical robes and concealed in caverns of mystery when in reality such knowledge should be dispensed from our public schools. Instead of suppressing vice, secrecy and misinformation, have intensified it.

In discussing the problem Brown says: "After all, a boy has to learn the facts of sex sometime or other and Cabell has been felicitous enough in "Jurgen" to present them not only as beautiful, but merry as well. Those elements ought to be present in everybody's sex education. The new knowledge comes to almost all youngsters as a distant shock, because while the things their boy companions tell them may be merry enough, they are also sufficiently gross to be distinctly harmful in a number of cases; and if their parents tell them it is either in some form so highly poetic that it means nothing, or as something decidedly grim and solemn as Sunday school. In either case this knowledge is apt to be regarded as something of which to be ashamed, and it seems to us that the world is just beginning to realize that shame is almost the most destructive of all the evil forces in the world."

INDIVIDUALITY

(Michigan Daily)

Many a man stranded on a desert isle has gone mad from the sheer monotony of the thing. Likewise, it has been said that a venerable philosopher took his life because he had exhausted the resources of the why and wherefore, and there was nothing new under the sun. All of which goes to prove the necessity of something different.

Just as two blades of grass are alike, so also no two members of the genus mankind are exactly the same, and the degree of difference is more noticeable in man because of his larger size. This variety is truly the spice of life, even the redeeming factor of living.

The only reason in the world why we are interested in anyone else is because he is different from us, and yet there are people who ever mask their individuality behind the cloak of affection in an effort to imitate others. The only thing that may be said in favor of such persons is that they deserve praise for their perseverance in so hard a task.

Those who imitate rarely overcome the awkwardness accompanying conscious action and rarely reach the ease of the imitated; but if there is one thing in which every person can excel it is the grace that accompanies the exhibiting of one's own individuality.

The Sounding Board

THE SOUNDING BOARD'S PLATFORM FOR A GREATER UNIVERSITY OF IOWA

1. Completion of the repairs on Old Capitol
2. Liquid soap in all university lavatories.
3. Good seats at football games for "I" book holders.
4. Enforcement of the motor vehicle laws.
5. Total abolition of bell-muzzled trousers.

By the time that these lines appear in print we shall be well on our way to Urbana. We couldn't resist the temptation to be there when our boys make Illinois III.

In spite of the fact that we had heard Sousa's band numerous times before, we went to the concert Thursday afternoon on the theory that too much of a good thing is just enough. We were not disappointed. Miss Caroline Thomas, violinist, played "Souvenir," and to our notion that in itself was enough to make the afternoon very much worth while.

We'll say that those who engineered the tag day to send the band with the team showed mighty good judgment in picking the taggers. It would have taken a disposition far more stony than ours to refuse the young lady who tagged us.

Hughie Fullerton is all wrought up over the fact that the draft in the late war disclosed that about one-half the men who were examined could not leap a six-foot ditch.

We must confess we don't know whether we could jump that far or not. It might depend on circumstances. We think that almost anyone could do it if he were in enough of a hurry.

"Oil may put shiny hair on the head, but it doesn't grow it on the chest."—Iowan editorial. Come to think about it, think hair on the head and hair on the chest don't seem to go together, somehow.

"What is worse than a pretty college man?" asks Ye Editor.

Nothing, unless perhaps one who thinks he's pretty.

COFFIN TO SPEAK AT NEXT VESPERS

Religious Educator Makes Initial Appearance Here, October 27-29

The Rev. Mr. Henry Sloan Coffin, pastor of Bedford Park Presbyterian church, New York City, is the next speaker secured by the university. He will also deliver a series of lectures during the week end Oct. 27, 28, 29. Dr. Coffin has the reputation of being one of the three leading religious educators in the United States, as well as being pastor of one of the leading churches in New York City.

The students and faculty of the university will have the pleasure of hearing Reverend Mr. Coffin several times. On Friday afternoon at four o'clock, he will address the freshmen men and women in the Natural Science auditorium. And Dean George F. Key of the College of Liberal Arts will be in charge of a faculty dinner at the Pagoda Tea Shop given in the honor of Rev. Coffin.

Will be Guest at Banquet

At six o'clock on Saturday evening a student banquet will be held in the basement of the Methodist church with the Reverend Mr. Coffin as the guest of honor. He will address the Vespers audience on Sunday afternoon at four. Under the auspices of the churches of the city and of the Christian association, he will speak at the Methodist church on Sunday evening.

The university feels itself to be very fortunate in being able to secure the Reverend Mr. Coffin. The Reverend Mr. Charles W. Gilkey, pastor of the Hyde Park Baptist church of Chicago, who spoke here at the vespers service said when he heard the Reverend Mr. Coffin was going to talk here, "It is most unusual for the Reverend Mr. Coffin to consent to address an audience so far west." When Chicago university heard of Iowa's success in engaging the Reverend Mr. Coffin, they immediately secured him for the days previous to the time that he arrives here. From all reports, Chicago's reception of him will be very elaborate.

Is Yale Graduate

The Reverend Mr. Henry Sloane Coffin is a Yale graduate, having received his bachelor's and doctor's degrees from that institution. He has the distinction of being an annual preacher at Yale, and Princeton. This is the first time that he has ever been here.

Henry Sloane Coffin is the author of several well-known religious books. "The Creed of Jesus," "Social Aspects of the Cross," "The Christian and the Church," "University Sermons," "The Ten Commandments," and "Christian Convictions," "In a Day of Social Rebuilding," and "A More Christian Industrial Order" were written by him.

The Reverend Mr. Coffin holds a degree from the Union Theological seminary, an institution noted for individual liberty and freedom of thought.

ARMAMENT GROUP TO PUBLISH PERIODICAL, "THE NEW STUDENT"

A new semi-monthly periodical is being put out this fall by the National Student Association on Limitation of Armaments, called "The New Student." This magazine is of particular interest to students of political science. Charles E. Hughes, Secretary of State, Ex-President Woodrow Wilson, and Bernard Shaw, noted English writer, contribute regularly.

The purpose of the Association in the Limitation of Armaments is the study of international relations in order to acquaint themselves with the conditions and policies that promote peace. It is the belief of the association that the political leaders of tomorrow will come from the student body of today. There fore, if the student body of today is acquainted with the above conditions and policies, the members who rise to future political power may utilize their knowledge in perpetuating peace.

At present representative students from the various seats of learning are contributing articles to "The New Student" picturing conditions in their various institutions, in a hope of bringing about a better mutual understanding between the student bodies of the universities of the nations of the world. Most of the articles deal with the prevailing opinion and sentiment of the respective universities regarding student self government.

The National Student Association on Limitation of Armaments was formed at a meeting of representative students at the La Salle Hotel, in Chicago, Ill., on November 11, 1921.

W. A. MEMBERS CHOOSE DISTRICT CAPTAINS

Under the direction of Women's association, meetings for the election of permanent district captains are being held at various houses. Each captain elected by the women residents in her particular district will act as district representative at all council meetings of Women's association.

Every woman registered in the University is a member of the association. It is her privilege to take an active part in all association activities.

Women are urged to locate their respective district captain and attend election meetings, states Lois Jackson, A3 of Mechanicsville, in charge of district representatives. Any further information concerning the method of district election may be obtained from Catherine Wright A4 of Des Moines, president of Women's association, or other officers.

UNIVERSITY HOSPITAL CLINICS TAKE CARE OF MANY PATIENTS DAILY

From sixty to seventy-five people are being cared for daily at the medical clinic held in the basement of the west wing of the University hospital. The clinic is open daily from nine to five and the surgical clinic is open from eleven to twelve and from four to five daily. The other departments are open from four to five p. m. daily. Neurological, pediatric, and psychiatric cases are sent across the river, while the rest are cared for at the University hospital. All cases must go to the west wing basement before they may be admitted for treatment. There a record is made and filed away for future reference and an admittance card is given the patient which permits him to go to the doctor for treatment.

Miss Pauline Johnson is in charge of the clinic, but at present she is ill in the University hospital and her position is being filled by nurses in the department, there being five working in the clinic in the various departments.

BOBBED HAIR EPIDEMIC HAS NOT REACHED FIJI ISLANDS, SAYS NUTTING

"The bobbed hair epidemic has not yet reached the Fiji Islands," said Prof. Charles C. Nutting, head of zoology department, who has recently returned from a trip to the Fiji Islands and New Zealand.

The women's dresses do not change in style. Women wear aprons over their best dresses, which are made of tapa. This is a woven cloth very coarse in texture. Sometimes below the hem of the apron there may be seen the border of the best dress. The women of the Fiji Islands are much more in the background and more retiring than the women of America.

Women never take part in the Kava ceremony, nor are they permitted to help in the making of the drink. The pictures of them drinking it are absolutely false," said Professor Nutting. "There are many rites and customs which are still taboo, just as in heathen times. The missionaries have done wonderful work among the heathens," he said.

COMPETITION IS KEEN AMONG ASPIRANTS FOR IOWA SWIMMING TEAM

Varsity swimming training is already under way, and about thirty-five tank men are reporting daily at the pool. Their present work according to Coach Dave A. Armbruster, is principally learning form and long, free strokes. On Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights, their training is water basket ball, while on Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday, they practice their strokes. Endurance is a thing Armbruster wants the men to get before any speed trials are made.

Among the men who are out are several prospects from last year's freshman team. Also, all of the men of last year's champion relay team, which beat Chicago last season and set a new University record, are back. Although prospects are good Armbruster says he is still short on plungers, breast stroke and back stroke men, and fancy divers.

Much interest is being shown at the tank among the swimmers and competition is going to be keen. The new men from last year's freshman team are; Gage, Kramer, Bastian, Griffin, W. T. Brown, Hogan, Rockefeller, D. H. Brown, and Marquardt.

Dates for conference dual meets have not yet been made, but these will probably be in February and March.

MOTHERS AND TEACHERS TO VISIT WELFARE STATION

The board meeting of the National Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teachers Association will be guests of the Iowa City child welfare research station here Saturday. Among those who will be present are: Mrs. Milton P. Higgins Worcester, Mass., President; Mrs. Hubert N. Rowell, Berkeley, Calif., treasurer; Mrs. George B. Chandler, Rocky Hill, Conn., corresponding secretary; Mrs. Arthur C. Watkins, Washington, D. C., executive secretary; Miss Carolyn Forgrave, Boone, Iowa, state president; Mrs. Isaac Lea Hillis, Des Moines, who helped to secure the Child Welfare Research Station for Iowa; Mrs. David O. Mears, Essex, Mass., daughter of the founder of Grinnell College; Miss Beatrice Jones, Boston, Mass., a research worker at the station and grand-daughter of the Grinnell founder.

Y. M. C. A. MEETING PLANS PLATFORM

Alcohol, Gambling, Cribbing and Petty Thievery to be Driven From Campus

Probably the first case on record of a University Y. M. C. A. attempting to create specific standards for its members, and to draw up a substantial platform for the general benefit of the entire student body, was the substance of the meeting of 100 Y. M. C. A. members who assembled in the liberal arts drawing room Thursday night. These members were chosen by the Y. M. C. A. cabinet, and were intended to be as nearly representative of the entire student body as could any group selected.

Twenty-three suggestions were offered, as to how the standards of the Y. M. C. A. members, and to some extent the entire University student body might be improved.

Although it need not be thought that some of these suggestions offered will ever be realized in their present condition at least it is significant that others eventually may materialize much to the advantage of the University in future years, was the general sentiment of those present.

Such standards as: "United opposition to the sale or use of alcoholic beverages", "abolishing of cribbing", "campaigning against the petty thief, who steals laboratory supplies, notebooks, caps, etc.", should meet with the approval of all the seventy-eight per cent of the students who are church members, according to the belief of the 100 delegates.

In taking action on Thursday's meeting plans, it was voted that the president appoint a special committee to arrange and restate the suggestions. They then will be mailed to the members present Thursday who are to select ten which they consider most relevant and essential for enforcement during the present year.

"Such a list of standards most popular both with these 100 representatives and with the University church members as a whole will constitute the basis of the present year Y. M. C. A. membership requirements," says Mr. Fitzgerald, secretary of the local Y. M. C. A.

SOCIAL SCIENCE CLUB TOOK IN 19 MEMBERS LAST TUESDAY NIGHT

Nineteen new members were elected to the social science club at its first meeting on last Tuesday night. The new members are: Harvey H. Davis G; Jay J. Sherman, graduate assistant in political science; Wendell White G; W. A. Jackson, fellow in political science; T. A. Miller G; Glenn M. Allen A4; William H. Moore A4; Joseph Jackson A4; H. C. Bixley L2; J. P. Jones, graduate assistant in commerce; Helen Watson; Miss Briggs G; and Forest Roberts.

Besides the election of new members, a paper on "Criticism of Socialism" was read by M. A. Gearhart.

The social science club is composed of instructors and graduate students in social science departments such as economics, political science, sociology, history, education, social psychology, and students in law. Senior students of high scholarship may be admitted upon special recommendation. Applications for membership may be addressed to Ethel Verry, secretary of the club.

The club meets every two weeks. At the next meeting on October 31 a paper on "Cooley's Conception of Human Nature" will be read by O. A. Rawson.

Stewart Concludes Lectures

The last of a series of lectures and conferences on Atomic Structure, conducted by Prof. George W. Stewart, head of the physics department, will be given at 9:30 o'clock this morning in room 301 physics building. This conference, consisting of a series of six lectures which began Thursday afternoon, is regarded as an important scientific meeting and is being well attended by professors and students of science from all parts of the state.

COLORADO REJOICED IN IOWA'S VICTORY OVER YALE, WRITES PIERCE

J. Albert Pierce, a graduate of the college of pharmacy in 1909 is now chief chemist of the Great Western sugar commission in Greeley, Colo. He writes that the people of Colorado took as much interest in the victory of Iowa as did the Iowans themselves. Mr. Pierce received his B. S. in 1910 and then went to Denver, Colorado, where he owned and operated two drug stores successfully. Upon selling them he took up the work in which he is now engaged. The remarkable part of his success is that he is totally deaf and took all his lectures, while in school, by lip-reading.

8 KILLED; 4 INJURED IN MINE EXPLOSION

(By United News) McBratun, Okla., Oct. 20—Eight miners were crushed and burned to death and four seriously injured in an explosion at the Blue Ridge Coal Company Progressive mine here Friday which is believed to have been caused when one of the miners set off a charge of high explosive to loosen the coal and ignited a gas pocket.

There were but twelve men in the mine when the explosion occurred and all were entombed in the resulting cave in. The four injured, it is believed, will recover. Rescue was not difficult as the mine was a shallow affair and had been but recently uncovered.

SURVEY RANKS PIPER'S WORKS WITH THOSE OF HAMLIN GARLAND

The life and poetry of Prof. Edwin Ford Piper was mentioned in the August first number of "Survey", under the editorial section, termed "Neighbors". The editorial states that the poems of Professor Piper have pictured the West as those of Hamlin Garland have pictured New England life. The article gave a brief account of his early life in Nebraska and highly praised a number of his poems.

It states, "In Barbed Wire", he paints the coming of the settlers and the slow disappearance, after a stubborn fight, of the cattlemen, makes an excellent choice of descriptive nouns in the vivid "Husker," clothes his "Canyon" in a beautiful atmosphere of loneliness, and recounts the birth of the community spirit from out of the wilderness in "Branded."

Represent Buffalo Center Buffalo Center with a population of 987, claims a representation of 17 students at the University; that is one out of every seventy inhabitants, a larger percentage than any other town in the state of Iowa.

IOWA DEFEATS ILLINOIS 8 TO 7

Urbana, Ill., Oct. 21.—Illinois hoped to stage a comeback for the benefit of the grads here for homecoming week. The strong Iowa team, conquerors of Yale, arrived early with a band and scores of husky rooters. Coach Zupke appeared confident that he had found a team that could hold the Hawkeye eleven. He gave his backfield orders to uncork some of their trick plays.

The team lined up as follows:

ILLINOIS	IOWA
Rohensk, rg	Hancock, rg
Oakes, rt	Engeldinger, rt
Umnus, rg	Meade, rg
Gen, c	Heldt, c
McMillan, lg	Minnick, lg
Auelters, lt	Thompson, lt
Wilson, lb	Kadesky, lb
Clarke, qb	Parkin, qb
McIlwain, rhb	Miller, rhb
Happenny, lhb	Shuttleworth, lhb
Woodward, fb	Locke, fb

Iowa won the toss and the kickoff; Illinois kicked to Locke who returned to the 20-yard line; Locke fumbled; Illinois got the ball on the 20-yard line; the two plunges by Clark netted nine yards. Shuttleworth failed to gain and Iowa lost the ball. Happenny fumbled but Illinois recovered the ball. Happenny gained two yards; Woodward one yard through Minnick; Clark made two yards through left tackle. McIlwain made two yards through left guard and Clark punted to mid-field where Locke was downed in his tracks.

Illinois went through Parkin for a 3-yard loss, Locke gained back the advantage on a delayed buck, and Minnick kicked to Clark, who returned to Illinois' 28-yard line. Happenny hit right guard for two yards.

Delayed buck on the left side by McIlwain added two yards more, and Clark punted to aPrkin who returned to Iowa's 38-yard line. Parkin hit left tackle for two yards; a pass, Parkin to Kadesky, placed the ball on the Illinois 30-yard line; Parkin failed to gain through the line.

Locke made four yards through center and Parkin was thrown for an 8-yard loss on an attempted pass. Minnick punted over the Illinois goal line and Illinois was given the ball on their 20-yard line. Minnick stopped McIlwain for no gain and Iowa got the ball on her 30-yard line.

Clark dropped back for a drop kick which went to one side for a touch-back. Happenny stopped by Hancock and Engeldinger for no gain. End of first quarter. Score is nothing to nothing. Illinois' ball on Iowa's 33-yard line, following a 15-yard penalty.

Second Quarter

Minnick and Thompson stopped Woodward after three-yard gain; Iowa's ball on the 20-yard line; Locke gained two yards through left guard. Locke made four more yards through left guard, and Minnick dropped back and punted outside on Illinois' 38-yard line.

Miller stopped Happenny after a 4-yard gain through Iowa's right end. Woodward gained two yards through left guard. Clark gained one yard through left end and was stopped by Miller. Ball was on the 45-yard line.

Clark dropped back and punted from his own 37-yard line to Iowa's 35-yard line and aPrkin was downed in his tracks. aPrkin gained three yards over Iowa's right tackle and placed the ball on the 30-yard line. Parkin was stopped for three-yard loss.

Minnick punted on his 30-yard line to Clark on the Illinois 30-yard line, who returned the ball to the Illinois 45-yard line. Happenny gained three yards through Minnick and McIlwain made first down through Engeldinger on Iowa's 45-yard line; Happenny made two through Minnick and Woodward made two yards through Meade, placing the ball on Iowa's 40-yard line. A forward pass, Clark to Robsek, was incomplete.

Meade and Engeldinger tackled Clark who fumbled and Iowa got the ball on their own 43-yard line; Parkin gained two yards around the Iowa left end and fumbled, but recovered. Locke carried the ball to the side lines for no gain and the ball was placed in play on the Iowa 43-yard line.

A forward pass, Parkin to Shuttleworth, was incomplete and Miller recovered. Clark barely missed intercepting the pass. Minnick punted to Clark who received the ball on the Illinois 38-yard line but fumbled it and Miller picked up the ball and ran to the Illinois 15-yard line. Locke failed to gain through center. It was second down on the Illinois 15-yard line; Parkin gained four yards around the Illinois left end and placed the ball on the Illinois 11-yard line. Locke stopped for no gain by Unnus.

Shuttleworth attempted a drop kick and the ball was partly blocked. The ball went to the side of the goal and over the goal line for a touch back. Illinois' ball on Illinois' 20-yard line. Happenny made one yard over Minnick.

Illini Start March

Illinois called time out for Woodward; the ball was placed on the Illinois 22-yard line. Illinois substituted Wagner for Woodward. Clark punted to aPrkin who received the ball on his own 47-yard line and was downed on the Illinois 48-yard line by Robusek. McMillan tackled Parkin for a five-yard loss and a pass, P nikratE yard loss, and a pass, Parkin to Shuttleworth, was intercepted by Wagner who carried the ball to Iowa's 25-yard line. Minnick tackled Happenny for a two-yard loss on a criss-cross play and Thompson stopped Happenny for no gain.

The ball was on Iowa's 27-yard line, third down and eight yards to go. Clark dropped back, and Minnick stopped the play, Clark going to Illinois' left side of the line for a one-yard gain. End of the first half. Iowa 0, Illinois 0.

Third Quarter

The crowd displayed tremendous enthusiasm. The Illinois fighting three hundred paraded the field yelling "Fight" and "Beat Iowa." The return of injured players to the Illinois team encouraged the homecomers. The day was hot for football.

Auger kicked for Illinois and Locke received the ball on Iowa's 10-yard

Illinois kicked to Hancock, who received the ball on Iowa's ten-yard line and returned to the 33-yard line.

DAVENPORT IS DEFEATED BY IOWA CITY 7-0

Sweeping down the field with a rush that could not be halted, Iowa City High's scrappy eleven won over Davenport 7 to 0, pushing over the only touchdown shortly after the opening of play.

The invaders came back with a rush, taking the ball to Iowa City's 15-yard line with a series of fake line bucks and three pretty passes. Here Davenport fumbled and Iowa City recovered. They immediately punted to Camp who made a pretty return of fifteen yards. A pretty return of fifteen yards, Iowa City had a slight edge in the second quarter, neither team being able to work the ball in scoring position.

The losers' only chance to score came in the third quarter when Quarterback Camp tried for a drop kick, the ball sailing under the bar by inches.

Lewis, the Red and White flashy quarterback, starred for Iowa City, making their own score. LeBuhn starred for Davenport.

Fourth Quarter

A pass was missed by the Iowa backfield and the ball rolled to the Iowa 20-yard line. Parkin recovered the ball on the 20-yard line, and it was second down and 23 yards to go.

Miller went in for Unnas, who was hurt; Minnick punted to Clark who received the ball on his 30-yard line and returned to Iowa's 47-yard line. McIlwain went through Engeldinger for a five-yard gain; Minnick and Thompson stopped Woodward for one-yard gain.

Clark dropped back and passed to Wilson, but the pass was incomplete; it was third down, Illinois' ball on Iowa's 42-yard line.

An attempted punt was blocked by Engeldinger but recovered by Clark on the 43-yard line; McIlwain gained five yards around Hancock.

Locke stopped McIlwain after a one-yard gain. Hill went in for Woodward. It was third down and three to go. Clark dropped back and Minick and Thompson stopped Happenny for no gain, making it fourth down and still three to go; Clark drops back and attempted a drop kick which went wide of the goal.

Iowa got the ball on Iowa's twenty-yard line. Locke gained one yard through the line; Minick punted to Illinois 40-yard line and Clark returned the ball to Iowa's 38-yd. line. McIlwain went through Engelder for two yards.

A cross buck through Engeldinger gained four yards; Royal failed to gain through ESengeldinger. It was fourth down and four to go with the ball on Iowa's 42-yard line at the end of the third quarter. The score stood six to nothing in favor of Iowa. Kadesky downed Clark on Iowa's 45-

HARVARD IS TOO BIG AND FAST FOR CENTER

FOOTBALL AGGREGATION
Cambridge, Oct. 21—Play started at 2:35. Harvard kicked behind center goal line, and ball was brought out 20 yards. Snoddy fumbled, and Flitts recovered for Harvard on Center's 5 yd. line. Owen then carried the ball over for a touchdown, and Ullman kicked goal. Harvard 7, Center 0.

Roberts kicked off to Harvard's 20 yd. line. The Crimson failed to gain on two line bucks and lost the ball when Chapin fumbled on Harvard's 36-yard line. Center recovered. On the 4th down Center attempted a pass and it was intercepted by Gerkes on Harvard's 20 yard line. Owen gained five yards off left tackle and then skirred the end for five yards and first down.

Gerkes made five yards on delayed pass through left tackle. Chapin made three yards through right tackle. Gerkes punted back to Center goal line. Covington ran around right end for six yards; Roberts made 4 and first down off right tackle. Covington lost three yards on an attempted left end run. Covington punted to Buell who ran the ball back 20 yards to mid-field. Owen made eight yards off right tackle.

Clark punted to Royal for a one-yard loss. A pass from Parkin to Miller was incomplete. Illinois was penalized for being off sides and Iowa had the ball first down on the 48-yard line. A pass from Parkin to Shuttleworth was incomplete.

Locke gained three yards; Minnick punted over the goal line giving Illinois the ball on their 20-yard line.

Hill made three yards over Thompson; Illinois punted and the punt rolled over the goal line and was recovered by Illinois for a safety and two points for Iowa. The score is Iowa 8 and Illinois 0.

Minnick tackled McIlwain for one yard loss; Illinois substituted Dawson for Goutherie. A pass from Dawson to McIlwain was incomplete; McIlwain barely missing the pass. Miller intercepted a pass and ran for a touchdown but the ball was called back and Iowa given a five yard penalty for being off-side. It was Illinois' ball on their 43-yard line.

A pass from Clark to Rutsuck was incomplete. Hancock barely missed intercepting another pass but the pass was incomplete anyway. A pass from Dawson to McIlwain carried the ball to the center of the field from the 30-yard line.

A pass from Dawson to McIlwain carried the ball to Iowa's 42-yard line. Thompson stopped McIlwain for no gain.

A conference was held by both teams. Royal gained eleven yards around Iowa's right end, making it second down and nine yards to go. Hill made two yards through Minnick, putting the ball on Iowa's seven-yard line. Illinois scored a touchdown, McIlwain going through Engeldinger. A place kick by Dawson added another point. The score stood Iowa 8 and Illinois 7. Iowa kicked to Illinois and Engeldinger tackled McIlwain after a fifteen-

HAWKEYES HIT SNAG IN ILLINI AT HOMECOMING

Locke and Parkin Fail to Gain; Clark Is as Good as Was Claimed.

The Hawkeyes, who won from Yale only a week ago, struck a snag in the fighting Illini this afternoon, and failed to get their machinery going.

Parkin, who played such a wonderful game last week, had a great deal of trouble with the Illini ends and tackles and the smashing Locke could do little with the rest of the line.

The Hawkeye forward pass attack which it was claimed would go through Illinois since the Indians were weak in that department, failed to materialize, and passes for the most part were either intercepted or else were incomplete.

Clark for Illinois lived up to all the past notices and played a wonderful game for Illinois. His passes were accurate and his running with the ball was exceptional. Wilson, Illinois captain, who is playing left end for the Indians also played one of the best games of his career.

The Illinois team which was wrecked last winter when it was discovered that most of the regular team had participated in a professional football game, has had a hard fight to organize a team which would carry on the good football which previous seasons have played. Zupke, however, has spent all of his time in the development of a team which now seems well on its way to establish a new record for inexperienced elevens.

ARCH OF WELCOME TO BE ERECTED NOVEMBER 2

The arch of welcome for Homecoming will be erected on November 2. The arch will be a sixty foot span between the engineering and physics buildings. The two towers of the sign will be trimmed with corn stalks and words of welcome will be lettered in corn. The rest of the design will be worked out in colors of old gold and black.

Illinois was penalized 15 yards for holding.

Time was called for Iowa. A pass from Dawson to Royal was incomplete. Time was called. Locke gained one yard through right tackle, giving Iowa the ball on the 50-yard line; Parkin went around left end for sixteen yards and first down.

Time out for Illinois and Illinois penalized two yards for taking time out. Final score—Iowa 8, Illinois 7.

MEN'S FORENSIC BOARD CHOOSE QUESTION FOR SOPHOMORE DEBATE

The proposition for debate among the three men's literary societies in the sophomore contest, as decided by the men's forensic council at a meeting in close hall last Wednesday, is, "Resolved: That a Federal Court Similar to the Kansas Industrial Court Should be Established to Settle Industrial Disputes in Essential Industries." The constitutionality of the step is conceded for purpose of debate. The preliminary intersociety sophomore debate on November 30 will be between the Philomathean literary society and Irving Institute. In the final sophomore debate on January 11, the Zetaganian team will argue the winner of the first contest.

Last year the Zetaganian team composed of Robert W. Cooper of Newton, Charles E. Cornwell of Independence, and Buel G. Beems of Anamosa defeated the Philomatheans and the Irvings, and thus won the sophomore debating championship. By right of this, the Zets do not argue this year until the final debate, when the winner of the preliminary debate between the Philos and Irvings will dispute with them for this year's sophomore championship.

Any sophomore in good standing in the University and a member of one of the three men's literary societies is eligible to tryout for his society's team. Three men compose the team. The three societies will hold tryouts for places on these teams within their respective organizations soon.

DOPING THE DOPE

The other day some of the sports staff became ambitious and turned in a lot of copy. "Pest" not only writes this column, but reads copy on sports stuff, and he was so busy that he didn't have time to turn out his masterpiece. He gave us a cigar to do it that night, and as so far no one has offered to run us out of town, he asked us to do it again today.

"Pest" is in Urbana today covering the big game for the Iowan. Those of us who were unlucky enough to have too many classes and not enough money will have to be satisfied with his story in the paper Sunday morning.

Before he left, "Pest" came over to our desk with a notebook full of clippings, and shoved them in our hands. "Here is the dope," he said. "You go ahead and dope it." We have looked it all over and now we are going back over to his desk and look for some more stuff.

We were right. He was holding out on us. There is a press clipping bureau at Chicago that clips all the stories which concern the University, from papers all over the United States, and sends them to the University publicity bureau. In "Pest's" desk there now reposes over 650 clippings, and all of them are about the Yale-Iowa football game.

It is hard to tell how many stories the clippers missed, too. At any rate, it is certain that the Commercial club will shed no tears over this bit of news.

Two significant things stand out in somebody's dope which is among those clippings. The first is that the Yale Bulldog was paraded up and down the sidelines and sniffed significantly when the Iowa players came his way. The second statement is that Iowa lost no time in getting out of town. It is claimed that they took the five o'clock train.

These statements are probably true. It is well to note, however, that the aforesaid Bulldog did not offer to bite anybody, and it is also well to wonder if the fellows were in a hurry to get back to some competition.

IOWANS VICTORS BY SHEER BRAUN—another headline in an eastern paper. They don't say anything about brain. We certainly hope that they don't start that corn and culture stuff again. It seems to us that they would be afraid to.

Wisconsin has come to realize that they lost a good bet in big John Hancock. Their paper doesn't accuse Iowa of stealing Hancock right from under their noses, but it does say that Commissioner Griffith should get the facts on the presence of certain players on some conference institutions. The article also claims that it cannot be said that Iowa alumni did this with Hancock, but it is being done by some associations.

Somehow or other we can't quite figure the sportsmanship of this article. It seems that one of two things has happened at Wisconsin: either they are starting an alibi for the lack of good men on their team this year, before they have given their team a chance to do its stuff, or else they have been asleep and let some good men slip away from them and now are sore at their own slowness.

This is just to illustrate what a championship team will really do to stimulate interest. One hundred freshmen have turned out for basketball at Purdue this year. You will remember that Purdue won the championship last year.

Purdue surely had a good team. That lanky Gullion, who played center for them last year was only a sophomore. Last winter he could stand at one end of the floor and toss them in with one hand, so it seemed to us at the reporter's table, and if he improves any at all, what will he do this year?

A story of the Yale-Iowa game says that during the contest Engeldinger came to blows with Greene, a Yale linesman. It was Hancock who did what little fighting there was, although it isn't best to recall such things. Yale should be thankful, though, that it wasn't Engeldinger.

Maybe if they keep on, that sigh "Iowa Fights" will mean more than it does right now.

"Iowa used many of the strange devices for which conferences football is noted", said one of the eastern papers after the game Saturday. It was the old conservative East kicking about anything that was not in use when they were burning witches in New England.

The conference teams use shifts because they have found that shifts are an effective weapon of offense. Nearly every team in the country including some of the eastern teams are using some sort of shift but few of them have them as well developed as they are in the Middle-West. Why call them odd just because a few teams are not using them.

We suppose that because Iowa was successful in completing passes and Yale was not that passes are included among the "strange devices." But the passing attack has been recognized as one of the great weapons of offense for a number of years. The East should have taken warning from Notre Dame's beatings of West Point, and developed that end of the game.

The West is going to keep on using shifts and passes.

500 IOWA BOOSTERS LEFT YESTERDAY TO ATTEND ILLINI GAME

More than 500 Iowa boosters have left Iowa City to support the team today in their game with the University of Illinois at Urbana, Ill., according to information available last evening.

Approximately half of those who made the trip went in cars. Garage proprietors who specialize in the renting of cars for trips of this kind report the chartering of five vehicles.

Each fraternity on the campus will be represented on the bleachers at Urbana today by a delegation from four to six men. The largest number of representatives for any single fraternity was sixteen.

The majority of the rooters going overland, left for Urbana early last evening. They will leave Urbana Sunday morning arriving back in Iowa City sometime during the day.

250 WORK FOR W. A. A. POINTS

About 250 women are now working for their fifty points in order to join W. A. A. Fifty of these are going in for recreational swimming, while the other 200 are hiking. Last year approximately 150 swam and hiked for points. The increase in interest this year is notable.

ENTRIES COME IN FOR SCHOOL MEET

High School Cross Country Meet is Scheduled for October 28

The high school cross country meet which is to be held here October 28 is attracting a good deal of attention in the schools over the state. A number of entries has already been received by the athletic department.

This meet will be held over a one and seven-eighths miles course northwest of Iowa City, and will start at eleven in the morning before the Iowa-Purdue football game. The run is as follows: Start at the corner of Iowa Avenue and Madison streets, go west across the bridge and turn north. Follow the road along the river, turn to the left at first road past the interurban tracks. At top of the hill turn to right, go north then east to the river road. This road will then be followed back to Iowa avenue, recross the river and finish at the starting point.

The Cedar Rapids and Iowa City high school teams are expected to work out on the course today. Coach Leo Novak of the Cedar Rapids team will bring his men over and will be taken over the courses by some of the members of the Iowa cross country squad.

ILLINI MEN SCRIMMAGE HARD IN LAST PRACTICE BEFORE MEETING IOWA

By Joe Godfrey, Jr.

Urbana, Ill.—With another day of strenuous practice to go through before the Illinois-Iowa Homecoming battle on Illinois Field here Saturday, Coach Bob Zuppke sent his men through the hardest scrimmage of the season against Burt Ingwersen's freshman, who stood their ground like veterans.

With the ball on the ten yard line, the freshman held, the ball going over and Baker, yearling quarter, carried the ball eight yards through the line on the first play.

Illinois then held and Britton kicked to midfield, where the ball was downed, Coutehie tripping as he was about to get started. The game showed Illinois fighting, the freshman yielding nothing. The practice today showed the Illinois ends getting down on punts better than on any previous day, Captain Dave Wilson and Ted Richards both hitting Baker together on many occasions.

Great preparations for the Homecoming are being arranged. It will be Illini's largest Homecoming. It will be the last Homecoming football game on Illinois field, next year's battle to be in the new Illini Memorial Stadium, which when completed will seat 90,000 spectators.

Celebrations of all kinds will be on card for Friday and Saturday and the big celebration will be the football game. Iowa is feared, but Illini hopes are running high. A great baseball game is expected Friday afternoon between the Alumni, coached by George Huff, and the Varsity, headed by Coach Carl Lundgren.

On the alumni team are many famous ball players. Jack Bradley one of the greatest ball players ever produced here, is to play in the outfield, Julie Mee to play short, Captain Mickey Ryan of many years back, and Kemment of the Beloit Fairies to twirl, Bill Kopp to catch, and so on down the list.

Saturday morning will be held the All-American Foreign soccer tilt. These are but a few of the big things, which take in the Senior Hobo parade and the annual class scrap between the freshman and sophomores.

HAWKS WILL FACE "RUNE" CLARK TODAY

When Iowa takes the field at Illinois today, they will face "Rune" Clark, brother of "Potsy", present coach at Kansas university, and former All-American quarterback at University of Illinois. If "Rune" lives up to advanced notices he will give Iowa plenty to worry about as Illinois claims that he is every bit as good as his famous brother. He is big, rangy, and fast, tosses and receives passes, is a shifty ball carrier, and punts with no mean ability. He comes from a true football family.

Bulletin Accounts for Unrest

The history department of the University maintains, in a recent service bulletin, that the turmoil of the few last years, is a direct outgrowth of the tragedy of 1453 when the Turks captured Constantinople and established a foothold in Europe. An interesting fact concerning the siege of the city was that on the day of the first great assault of the Moslems 200 men were killed. It was in this campaign that the use of cannon first played an important part.

UNION DRIVE FOR HOMECOMING WEEK

District Captains to Supervise Nine Organized Divisions of the City

Plans for the Memorial Union drive to be held Homecoming week have been completed. The campaign is divided into nine main groups and the entire campaign will be carried on through these organizations.

The nine divisions, which it is believed will include every student are as follows: fraternities, Ben F. Martinson L3, of Lyons, sororities Catherine Wright A4, Des Moines, nurses Elizabeth Kimmel N, of Sheldon, Beatrice Gates A4, and Elizabeth Beckman, quadrangle, Clemont F. Mullen L3, of Waterloo, Currier Hall, Miss Martha H. Althaus A4, of Muscatine, literary societies, George O. Hurley A3, of Rolfe, freshman John S. Grassfield 22.

Iowa City will be divided into twenty-nine districts for the women students and over each district will be placed a captain. Elizabeth Ensign A4, of Iowa City, will have supervision over the twenty-nine captains. A house to house canvass of the men will be made this year and this division will be in charge of Hubert H. Matt L3, of Iowa City, George H. Gallup A4, of Jefferson, and Virgil Hancher, L3, of Rolfe. These divisions will need many more workers than those named. At least fifty men will be needed for the men's house to house canvass and thirty women will be needed for the girl captain committee.

It is believed that some of the organizations named will be able to handle their own campaign very satisfactorily such as the nurses and the quadrangle. A big banquet will be given November 5 for the workers. Last year this Memorial Union banquet was one of the biggest dinners on the campus and it is planned to make it even better this year. The committee in charge of the banquet are: Leona White A4, of Council Bluffs, Hubert H. Matt L3, of Iowa City, Margaret Moore A4, of Harlan.

WORK ON OLD CAPITOL PROGRESSES RAPIDLY

Reconstruction of Old Capitol is progressing rapidly and workmen are busy in all departments. The plastering is well under way on the inside of the building and painting is nearly finished. The foundation of the tower is now being constructed and will be composed entirely of brick.

WENTWORTH EXAMINES FOSSIL WOOD FOUND AT WASHINGTON D. C.

Mr. Chester K. Wentworth, instructor in the department of geology and also a member of the United States geological survey of America, examined large quantities of fossil wood found in an excavation by workmen digging the foundation of a large hotel at Washington, D. C. last summer for the geological survey. Here at a depth of about twenty-five feet below the street level a layer of black swamp muck was found containing large quantities of the wood, tree trunks and stumps. This discovery shows evidence of an ancient swamp where great trees flourished and which were possibly contemporaneous with the earliest man in America. Some of the stumps were of great size, a few of them having a diameter of nine or ten feet. The trees probably were 100 to 150 feet in height. Much of the wood was well preserved and showed the woody structure and the external markings of the bark clearly. One of the more common trees of this ancient swamp was a species of cypress.

1,000,000 Years Old

The geologic history of the excavation examined by Mr. Wentworth for the geological survey dates back to the cretaceous period, 1,000,000 years ago. The stamping ground of prehistoric monsters became inundated and covered by the mud, sand and gravel, then emerged again and was severed by the Potomac river, which cut its valley through these deposits.

Fine clay and pebbles were laid down by streams of water during the glacial epoch over the layer of plant debris and muck in this old swamp.

Boulders and pebbles found in beds of the same age elsewhere in Washington bear scratches and grooves like found on boulders scratched by glacial ice. Many thousands of years later the climate again became warm, the glacial ice melted and the Potomac river still further deepened its valley and trees like those of the present day grew in the latitude of the city of Washington, D. C.

Grading Uncovers Deposits

According to Mr. Wentworth, the layer of vegetable matter just uncovered lies beneath a fill made in grading the city of Washington. Old residents of Washington remember that small creeks, which are now covered up, once flowed across the city to the Potomac River and that trees grew in their valleys. These trees, however, which lived fifty or a hundred years ago, are widely different from those which formed with other vegetation, the layer of peat now disclosed by the excavation.

Y. W. C. A. NATIONAL RELIGIOUS SECRETARY TO ADDRESS CABINET

Local Y. W. C. A. announces that Miss Oloah Burner, national secretary of the religious education department, will be in Iowa City, November 4, 5, and 6. Individuals or groups are invited to schedule dinner or luncheon dates with Miss Burner. Those desiring personal conferences regarding Y. W. C. A. training or similar information should sign also.

Monday afternoon at four o'clock in liberal arts drawing room, a special meeting of first cabinet will be held. All first cabinet members are requested to be there.

The membership campaign, according to Leona Hambrecht A3 of Iowa City, is now in full swing. Many girls have come to the association office to sign for membership without awaiting personal solicitation. No definite figures as to present membership are available until each captain reports. The annual membership banquet for both new and old members will be held November 1.

On Sunday afternoon the regular weekly program for children at the Perkins' hospital will be given. Those who care to volunteer for entertaining on these occasions should notify Myrne Moffitt, by calling 593.

HINKLEY, Y. M. C. A. HEAD, HERE FIRST OF NOV.

In view of the expected arrival of E. M. Hinkley during the first week in November, to arrange for the Christian training of local boys, the Y. W. C. A. will make the necessary plans at the Sunday morning cabinet meeting held in the Y. W. C. A. building.

The purpose of Mr. Hinkley's visit to the University of Iowa is to encourage college men to take a more active interest in the boys of the town to help to create a more Christian influence.

It is his belief, according to R. L. Fitzgerald, secretary of the local Y. W. C. A., that if only a few Christian college men will take hikes with these high school boys over week ends, etc., the boys will be influenced by the interest and examples shown by these older men.

Mr. Hinkley is the head of all the student Y. M. C. A.'s in the state where no paid secretary is employed.

KILL A FEW PROFS URGES J. A. PATTEN

Too Many College Professors and Too Few Plasterers; Makes Pay Small

Chicago, Oct. 20—Killing of a few college professors "beginning with the leading one", to overcome a scarcity of plasterers, was advocated Friday by James A. Patten, one time "King" of the Chicago wheat pit and doner of Northwestern university $500,000 Patten gymnasium.

The proposal to execute the professors was made at a subcommittee meeting of the citizens' committee to enforce the Landis award regulating building trades wages in Chicago, when it developed that plasterers are getting as high as $20 a day and are scarce at that wage. Patten said he had talked it over with college professors.

"There is something wrong when plasterers get more pay than University professors," Patten said he had told the professors, "there is too much education—boys who go to school acquire a desire for a white collar job and won't work at a trade."

"That is what is the matter with the plasterers. It is all a law of supply and demand, too many college professors and too few mechanics."

"What do you want to do?" asked one of the professors, "Start by killing us off?"

"Yes, and perhaps we better start with the leading one first," said Patten.

OWSLEY, NEW LEGION COMMANDER, PLEDGES LOYALTY TO AMERICA

New Orleans, Oct. 20—The American Legion must pledge to America an even greater service than was pledged in the days of war, Alvin M. Owsley, of Texas newly-elected national commander said in acknowledgement of the honor that has just been conferred upon him.

"Please accept from my heart the expression of my profound appreciation for what I consider to be the highest honor that ever could come to a man who served in the world war and now serving the best interests of America," Commander Owsley said.

UNIVERSITY HEEDS CRY OF "BETTER BABIES"

Heeding the cry, "Better Babies!" which has been heard throughout the country, the University of Iowa is sharing the active work of cutting down infant mortality and bettering conditions of infancy.

New Division Opened

The University has this year opened a new division known as the Division of Maternity and Infant Hygiene, created under the Sheppard-Towner bill of Congress passed in 1921, providing for the promotion of the welfare and hygiene of maternity and infancy. 5000 is granted the division from the Federal treasury. Prof. O. E. Klingman, director of the extension division, is director of the new division.

Since September 25, when actual work began, Dr. Florence Johnson, Physician, has given forty lectures to women throughout the state and held as many conferences. Dr. John W. Prentiss, pediatrician, has held clinics in four counties of Iowa, one of four and three of six days, and has examined 278 infants, finding 232 with physical defects and pathological conditions, seventy-five per cent of which can be corrected. Without the establishment of these clinics, few of these cases would have received medical attention.

Wide Field Covered

The work of the new division covered a big field, including medical work in lectures to women, assistance in conducting clinics for infants and children of pre-school age, health education, dissemination of literature and exhibits, and co-operation with the various state agencies working for the betterment of infancy and maternity.

SHRINERS' CONVENTION IN IOWA CITY OCT. 27

The Shriners are coming. About 2000 of them from the neighboring cities will take possession of the city on Oct. 27, stage a big parade in the afternoon, and root for Iowa in Saturday's game. The largest delegations will be from the El Kahir Temple at Cedar Rapids, and the Kaaba Temple at Davenport.

The parade will be divided into five divisions, and will probably be about eight block long. It is hoped that Colonel Mumma will act as marshal. Governor Nate Kendal and the Lieutenant Governor are expected to be here, and will be in the first division. The University Band will head the parade. As nobody but Shriners are allowed in parade of the nature, the local organization obtained a special dispensation from the Grand Potentate permitting the band in the parade. Bands made up entirely of Shriners will be here from Cedar Rapids and Davenport, and it is also expected a band will come from Washington and a Drum Corps from Muscatine.

FORENSIC COMMITTEE TO MEET

The committee from the forensic council which is working on plan for the freshman literary society will hold a meeting the first part of next week. Pearl Davies A3 of Plymouth, chairman of the committee, Catherine Donica A2 of Cedar Rapids, and Lois Sensor A3 of Independence will meet with Mildred Freburg, instructor in department of speech, and Prof. Glenn N. Merry to complete the plans.

LAW COMPLETES PERSONNEL OF NEW MINISTRY

Lloyd George, En Route to Leeds, Travels in Veritable Triumph

(By United News)
London, Oct. 20—David Lloyd George has been making a great fight for his return to power.

Doing a four-hour journey from London to Leeds the ex-premier barely indicated his unrelenting opposition to the now forming new government or his intentions of carrying on a battle for "national interests."

Leaving London at the conclusion of a ceremony of welcome to the Prince of Wales at Guild Hall the "Welsh wizard" enjoyed a veritable triumph en route to Leeds where he is expected to make a complete announcement of his future course.

"The spirit of 'a return to the good old days,' reminiscent of the Harding slogan 'back to normalcy' in the 1920 days across the Atlantic dominates England in hailing the new government. Though the assurance that their expectations will be fulfilled by Bonar Law may be about as safe as that of the American people who supported Harding, certainly it is the general hope.

Bonar Law, progressing with his cabinet making, expects to be able to go before the King not later than Monday to formally advise his Majesty that he will lead the new government. Preceding his audience with the King, the unionists of both houses of

Following a day of conference it was authoritatively revealed that Law was making sufficient progress to insure an early completion of his new ministry.

It already is assured that Lord Curzon will be awarded the post of foreign minister, Lord Derby minister of war; Lord Salisbury, president of the privy council; Stanley Baldwin, chancellor of the Exchequer and Colonel Amery, first Lord of the admiralty.

Lord Finlay is prominently mentioned as slated for Lord Chancellor Douglas Hogg as attorney general and Lord Peel as secretary of state for India.

Lloyd George in his speech Saturday is expected to reveal the party machinery thus far undisclosed by which he will appeal to the country. All England anticipates a dramatic announcement.

His slogan, however, is expected to be, "Let there continue that great national unity to carry us through peace which carried us through war."

In addressing the crowds en route to Leeds, Lloyd George repeated with emphases that he had an agreement with "the ablest and most distinguished leaders of the conservative party, Austin Chamberlain, Lord Balfour, Lord Birkenhead and Sir Robert Norn and that this agreement contemplates continued cooperation.

COLLEGE RIVALRY TURNS INTO RIOT

Twenty Injured, One Totally, When Students at University of California Mix

(By United News)
Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 20—College rivalry turned into a riot on the campus of the University of California, southern branch, early today and as a result more than twenty students were injured, one perhaps, fatally.

It was the traditional bonfire fight when University of Southern California students attempted, by the use of "gasoline bombs" to destroy the majestic wood pile the night before the rally preceding the southern branch of the University of California football game with Occidental College.

The invaders arrived in automobiles and hurled gasoline soap rags and succeeded in setting the fire but students guards engaged the attackers in combat which brought clubs, sticks, and stones into play.

Police and firemen, attracted by flames called out reserves and stopped the fighters only after a student had been seriously injured in the set to. The most seriously hurt was Roger Bargas 18 years old who sustained a possible spinal fracture.

MRS. ANNA D. OLSEN CHALLENGES OPONENT TO SERIES OF DEBATES

(By United News)

St. Paul, Oct. 20—Mrs. Anna Dickey Olsen first woman to be nominated by a major political party for the United States Senate has challenged Senator Frank D. Kellogg, republican opponent to a debate or series of debates on the administration attitude towards a soldier's bonus, the tariff bonus, and the Newberry case.

Senator Kellogg who is at Redwood hall said Friday night that he had not accepted the challenge and refused to intimate whether or not he would accept it.

"I will answer the message when I receive it," Kellogg said.

"Mrs. Olsen's challenge gives the Republican senator a choice of one, three, five or seven debates—or none. She issued it following a record breaking campaign in which she spoke in more than 200 Minnesota towns and cities.

EASTWARD HO!

All eyes are to the east today as the Old Gold football team takes the field against the Indians. It's a case of fighting Hawkeyes against fighting Illini with odds on Mr. Jones' eleven. Both teams will fight until the final whistle—that is certain. For the Illinois team a victory over the conquerors of Yale, today, before homecoming alumni would in part retrieve the defeat suffered at the hands of Butler last Saturday. Coach Zuppke who witnessed the Iowa-Yale game must be reconed with. The Illinois victory over Ohio State last year, showed that this able coach could turn defeat into victory overnight.

We know that Iowa will fight too. Although sports writers concede Iowa the victory and added to this the defeat of Yale Saturday, which naturally may give the team a certain amount of overconfidence, these will be more than counterbalanced by the grudge Iowa bears its foe dating back to 1919 when Coach Jones put his first strong team into the conference field. This was the year that Iowa left the Illinois field with a 9 to 7 defeat stinging them; the on-side kick which won the game for the Indians was in violation of the rules, they thought. The following year the Hawkeyes went over to Urbana expecting a sure victory—they came home with a 20 to 3 defeat. Last year, Iowa, remembering the humiliating defeats of the two previous seasons, would not be beat; the Illini line was torn to shreds, it hadn't a chance.

But the thorn of defeat still rankles in the Hawkeye's side. Everything coming from the camp to our east is scoffed at; Zuppke fooled us once with his propaganda and we don't expect to give him another opportunity. Iowa will take no chance on the game today.

Hundreds of students and alumni, with the Old Gold band, will be there to cheer Iowa to victory. And those of us who can't be in Urbana today will be at the armory to hear the reports. For we're going to scalp the Indians.

JURGEN

Expressing the opinion that "Jurgen" by James Branch Cabell was not an "obscene lewd, lascivious, filthy or an indecent book," Judge Nott has directed a jury in general sessions in New York to acquit Robert M. McBride & Co., publishers, on charges contained in an indictment returned last May on complaint of the Society for the Suppression of Vice.

This action brings to a close a controversy waged for many months over the deleterious effect of such a work as "Jurgen" on the morals of the country, especially those of the younger generation. Heywood Brown, drama and art critic of the New York World, who has been one of the leaders in the fight against what he terms "the meddlesome attention" of the Society for the Suppression of Vice, characterizes the book as "a merry and gorgeous story." It is a fantastic and imaginative tale depicting the adventures of one restored to first youth.

Brown's stand on such literature seems to be a very sensible one. Sex knowledge for years has been shrouded in puritanical robes and concealed in caverns of mystery when in reality such knowledge should be dispensed from our public schools. Instead of suppressing vice, secrecy and misinformation, have intensified it.

In discussing the problem Brown says: "After all, a boy has to learn the facts of sex sometime or other, and Cabell has been felicitous enough in "Jurgen" to present them not only as beautiful, but merry as well. Those elements ought to be present in everybody's sex education. The new knowledge comes to almost all youngsters as a distant shock, because while the things their boy companions tell them may be merry enough, they are also sufficiently gross to be distinctly harmful in a number of cases; and if their parents tell them it is either in some form so highly poetic that it means nothing, or as something decidedly grim and solemn as Sunday school. In either case this knowledge is apt to be regarded as something of which to be ashamed, and it seems to us that the world is just beginning to realize that shame is almost the most destructive of all the evil forces in the world."

INDIVIDUALITY

(Michigan Daily)

Many a man stranded on a desert isle has gone mad from the sheer monotony of the thing. Likewise, it has been said that a venerable philosopher took his life because he had exhausted the resources of the why and wherefore, and there was nothing new under the sun. All of which goes to prove the necessity of something different.

Just as two blades of grass are alike, so also no two members of the genus mankind are exactly the same, and the degree of difference is more noticeable in man because of his larger size. This variety is truly the spice of life, even the redeeming factor of living.

The only reason in the world why we are interested in anyone else is because he is different from us, and yet there are people who ever mask their individuality behind the cloak of affection in an effort to imitate others. The only thing that may be said in favor of such persons is that they deserve praise for their perseverance in so hard a task.

Those who imitate rarely overcome the awkwardness accompanying conscious action and rarely reach the ease of the imitated; but if there is one thing in which every person can excel it is the grace that accompanies the exhibiting of one's own individuality.

The Sounding Board

THE SOUNDING BOARD'S PLATFORM FOR A GREATER UNIVERSITY OF IOWA

1. Completion of the repairs on Old Capitol
2. Liquid soap in all university lavatories.
3. Good seats at football games for "I" book holders.
4. Enforcement of the motor vehicle laws.
5. Total abolition of bell-muzzled trousers.

By the time that these lines appear in print we shall be well on our way to Urbana. We couldn't resist the temptation to be there when our boys make Illinois Ill.

In spite of the fact that we had heard Sousa's band numerous times before, we went to the concert Thursday afternoon on the theory that too much of a good thing is just enough. We were not disappointed. Miss Caroline Thomas, violinist, played "Souvenir," and to our notion that in itself was enough to make the afternoon very much worth while.

We'll say that those who engineered the tag day to send the band with the team showed mighty good judgment in picking the taggers. It would have taken a disposition far more stony than ours to refuse the young lady who tagged us.

Hughie Fullerton is all wrought up over the fact that the draft in the late war disclosed that about one-half the men who were examined could not leap a six-foot ditch.

We must confess we don't know whether we could jump that far or not. It might depend on circumstances. We think that almost anyone could do it if he were in enough of a hurry.

"Oil may put shiny hair on the head, but it doesn't grow it on the chest."—Iowan editorial. Come to think about it, shink hair on the head and hair on the chest don't seem to go together, somehow.

COFFIN TO SPEAK AT NEXT VESPERS

Religious Educator Makes Initial Appearance Here, October 27-29

The Rev. Mr. Henry Sloan Coffin, pastor of Bedford Park Presbyterian church, New York City, is the next speaker secured by the university. He will also deliver a series of lectures during the week end Oct. 27, 28, 29. Dr. Coffin has the reputation of being one of the three leading religious educators in the United States, as well as being pastor of one of the leading churches in New York City.

The students and faculty of the university will have the pleasure of hearing Reverend Mr. Coffin several times. On Friday afternoon at four o'clock, he will address the freshman men and women in the Natural Science auditorium. And Dean George F. Key of the College of Liberal Arts will be in charge of a faculty dinner at the Pagoda Tea Shop given in the honor of Rev. Coffin.

Will be Guest at Banquet

At six o'clock on Saturday evening a student banquet will be held in the basement of the Methodist church with the Reverend Mr. Coffin as the guest of honor. He will address the Vespers audience on Sunday afternoon at four. Under the auspices of the churches of the city and of the Christian association, he will speak at the Methodist church on Sunday evening.

The university feels itself to be very fortunate in being able to secure the Reverend Mr. Coffin. The Reverend Mr. Charles W. Gilkey, pastor of the Hyde Park Baptist church of Chicago, who spoke here at the vespers service said when he heard the Reverend Mr. Coffin was going to talk here, "It is most unusual for the Reverend Mr. Coffin to consent to address an audience so far west." When Chicago university heard of Iowa's success in engaging the Reverend Mr. Coffin, they immediately secured him for the days previous to the time that he arrives here. From all reports, Chicago's reception of him will be very elaborate.

Is Yale Graduate

The Reverend Mr. Henry Sloane Coffin is a Yale graduate, having received his bachelor's and doctor's degrees from that institution. He has the distinction of being an annual preacher at Yale, and Princeton. This is the first time that he has ever been here.

Henry Sloane Coffin is the author of several well-known religious books. "The Creed of Jesus," "Social Aspects of the Cross," "The Christian and the Church," "University Sermons," "The Ten Commandments," and "Christian Convictions," "In a Day of Social Rebuilding," and "A More Christian Industrial Order" were written by him.

The Reverend Mr. Coffin holds a degree from the Union Theological seminary, an institution noted for individual liberty and freedom of thought.

ARMAMENT GROUP TO PUBLISH PERIODICAL, "THE NEW STUDENT"

A new semi-monthly periodical is being put out this fall by the National Student Association on Limitation of Armaments, called "The New Student." This magazine is of particular interest to students of political science. Charles E. Hughes, Secretary of State, Ex-President Woodrow Wilson, and Bernard Shaw, noted English writer, contribute regularly.

The purpose of the Association in the Limitation of Armaments is the study of international relations in order to acquaint themselves with the conditions and policies that promote peace. It is the belief of the association that the political leaders of tomorrow will come from the student body of today. Therefore, if the student body of today is acquainted with the above conditions and policies, the members who rise to future political power may utilize their knowledge in perpetuating peace.

At present representative students from the various seats of learning are contributing articles to "The New Student" picturing conditions in their various institutions, in a hope of bringing about a better mutual understanding between the student bodies of the universities of the nations of the world. Most of the articles deal with the prevailing opinion and sentiment of the respective universities regarding student self government.

The National Student Association on Limitation of Armaments was formed at a meeting of representative students at the La Salle Hotel, in Chicago, Ill., on November 11, 1921.

W. A. MEMBERS CHOOSE DISTRICT CAPTAINS

Under the direction of Women's association, meetings for the election of permanent district captains are being held at various houses. Each captain elected by the women residents in her particular district will act as district representative at all council meetings of Women's association.

Every woman registered in the University is a member of the association. It is her privilege to take an active part in all association activities.

Women are urged to locate their respective district captain and attend election meetings, states Lois Jackson, A. S. of Mechanicsville, in charge of district representatives. Any further information concerning the method of district election may be obtained from Catherine Wright A. 4 of Des Moines, president of Women's association, or other officers.

UNIVERSITY HOSPITAL CLINICS TAKE CARE OF MANY PATIENTS DAILY

From sixty to seventy-five people are being cared for daily at the medical clinic held in the basement of the west wing of the University hospital. The clinic is open daily from nine to five and the surgical clinic is open from eleven to twelve and from four to five daily. The other departments are open from four to five p. m. daily. Neurological, pediatric, and psychiatric cases are sent across the river, while the rest are cared for at the University hospital. All cases must go to the west wing basement before they may be admitted for treatment. There a record is made and filed away for future reference and an admittance card is given the patient which permits him to go to the doctor for treatment.

Miss Pauline Johnson is in charge of the clinic, but at present she is ill in the University hospital and her position is being filled by nurses in the department, there being five working in the clinic in the various departments.

BOBBED HAIR EPIDEMIC HAS NOT REACHED FIJI ISLANDS, SAYS NUTTING

"The bobbed hair epidemic has not yet reached the Fiji Islands," said Prof. Charles C. Nutting, head of zoology department, who has recently returned from a trip to the Fiji Islands and New Zealand.

The women's dresses do not change in style. Women wear aprons over their best dresses, which are made of tapa. This is a woven cloth very coarse in texture. Sometimes below the hem of the apron there may be seen the border of the best dress. The women of the Fiji Islands are much more in the background and more retiring than the women of America.

Women never take part in the Kava ceremony, nor are they permitted to help in the making of the drink. The pictures of them drinking it are absolutely false," said Professor Nutting. "There are many rites and customs which are still taboo, just as in heathen times. The missionaries have done wonderful work among the heathens," he said.

COMPETITION IS KEEN AMONG ASPIRANTS FOR IOWA SWIMMING TEAM

Varsity swimming training is already under way, and about thirty-five tank men are reporting daily at the pool. Their present work according to Coach Dave A. Armbruster, is principally learning form and long, free strokes. On Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights, their training is water basket ball, while on Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday, they practice their strokes. Endurance is a thing Armbruster wants the men to get before any speed trials are made.

Among the men who are out are several prospects from last year's freshman team. Also, all of the men of last year's champion relay team, which beat Chicago last season and set a new University record, are back. Although prospects are good Armbruster says he is still short on plungers, breast stroke and back stroke men, and fancy divers.

Much interest is being shown at the tank among the swimmers and competition is going to be keen. The new men from last year's freshman team are; Gage, Kramer, Bastian, Griffin, W. T. Brown, Hogan, Rockefeller, D. H. Brown, and Marquardt.

Dates for conference dual meets have not yet been made, but these will probably be in February and March.

MOTHERS AND TEACHERS TO VISIT WELFARE STATION

The board meeting of the National Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teachers Association will be guests of the Iowa City child welfare research station here Saturday. Among those who will be present are: Mrs. Milton P. Higgins Worcester, Mass., President; Mrs. Hubert N. Rowell, Berkley, Calif., treasurer; Mrs. George B. Chandler, Rocky Hill, Conn., corresponding secretary; Mrs. Arthur C. Watkins, Washington, D. C., executive secretary; Miss Carolyn Forgrave, Boone, Iowa, state president; Mrs. Isaac Lea Hillis, Des Moines, who helped to secure the Child Welfare Research Station for Iowa; Mrs. David O. Mears, Essex, Mass., daughter of the founder of Grinnell College; Miss Beatrice Jones, Boston, Mass., a research worker at the station and grand-daughter of the Grinnell founder.

Y. M. C. A. MEETING PLANS PLATFORM

Alcohol, Gambling, Cribbing and Petty Thievery to be Driven From Campus

Probably the first case on record of a University Y. M. C. A. attempting to create specific standards for its members, and to draw up a substantial platform for the general benefit of the entire student body, was the substance of the meeting of 100 Y. M. C. A. members who assembled in the liberal arts drawing room Thursday night. These members were chosen by the Y. M. C. A. cabinet, and were intended to be as nearly representative of the entire student body as could any group selected.

Twenty-three suggestions were offered, as to how the standards of the Y. M. C. A. members, and to some extent the entire University student body might be improved.

Although it need not be thought that some of these suggestions offered will ever be realized in their present condition at least it is significant that others eventually may materialize much to the advantage of the University in future years, was the general sentiment of those present.

Such standards as: "United opposition to the sale or use of alcoholic beverages", "abolishing of cribbing", "campaigning against the petty thief, who steals laboratory supplies, notebooks, caps, etc.", should meet with the approval of all the seventy-eight per cent of the students who are church members, according to the belief of the 100 delegates.

In taking action on Thursday's meeting plans, it was voted that the president appoint a special committee to arrange and restate the suggestions. They then will be mailed to the members present Thursday who are to select ten which they consider most relevant and essential for enforcement during the present year.

"Such a list of standards most popular both with these 100 representatives and with the University church members as a whole will constitute the basis of the present year Y. M. C. A. membership requirements," says Mr. Fitzgerald, secretary of the local Y. M. C. A.

SOCIAL SCIENCE CLUB TOOK IN 19 MEMBERS LAST TUESDAY NIGHT

Nineteen new members were elected to the social science club at its first meeting on last Tuesday night. The new members are: Harvey H. Davis G; Jay J. Sherman, graduate assistant in political science; Wendell White G; W. A. Jackson, fellow in political science; T. A. Miller G; Glenn M. Allen A4; William H. Moore A4; Joseph Jackson A4; H. C. Bixley L2; J. P. Jones, graduate assistant in commerce; Helen Watson; Miss Briggs G; and Forest Roberts.

Besides the election of new members, a paper on "Criticism of Socialism" was read by M. A. Gearhart.

The social science club is composed of instructors and graduate students in social science departments such as economics, political science, sociology, history, education, social psychology, and students in law. Senior students of high scholarship may be admitted upon special recommendation. Applications for membership may be addressed to Ethel Verry, secretary of the club.

The club meets every two weeks. At the next meeting on October 31 a paper on "Cooley's Conception of Human Nature" will be read by O. A. Rawson.

Stewart Concludes Lectures

The last of a series of lectures and conferences on Atomic Structure, conducted by Prof. George W. Stewart, head of the physics department, will be given at 9:30 o'clock this morning in room 301 physics building. This conference, consisting of a series of six lectures which began Thursday afternoon, is regarded as an important scientific meeting and is being well attended by professors and students of science from all parts of the state.

COLORADO REJOICED IN IOWA'S VICTORY OVER YALE, WRITES PIERCE

J. Albert Pierce, a graduate of the college of pharmacy in 1909 is now chief chemist of the Great Western sugar commission in Greeley, Colo. He writes that the people of Colorado took as much interest in the victory of Iowa as did the Iowans themselves. Mr. Pierce received his B. S. in 1910 and then went to Denver, Colorado, where he owned and operated two drug stores successfully. Upon selling them he took up the work in which he is now engaged. The remarkable part of his success is that he is totally deaf and took all his lectures, while in school, by lip-reading.

8 KILLED; 4 INJURED IN MINE EXPLOSION

(By United News)

McBurtain, Okla., Oct. 20—Eight miners were crushed and burned to death and four seriously injured in an explosion at the Blue Ridge Coal Company Progressive mine here Friday which is believed to have been caused when one of the miners set off a charge of high explosive to loosen the coal and ignited a gas pocket.

There were but twelve men in the mine when the explosion occurred and all were entombed in the resulting cave in. The four injured, it is believed, will recover. Rescue was not difficult as the mine was a shallow affair and had been but recently uncovered.

SURVEY RANKS PIPER'S WORKS WITH THOSE OF HAMLIN GARLAND

The life and poetry of Prof. Edwin Ford Piper was mentioned in the August first number of "Survey", under the editorial section, termed "Neighbors". The editorial states that the poems of Professor Piper have pictured the West as those of Hamlin Garland have pictured New England life. The article gave a brief account of his early life in Nebraska and highly praised a number of his poems.

It states, "In Barbed Wire", he paints the coming of the settlers and the slow disappearance, after a stubborn fight, of the cattlemen, makes an excellent choice of descriptive nouns in the vivid "Husker," clothes his "Canyon" in a beautiful atmosphere of loneliness, and recounts the birth of the community spirit from out of the wilderness in "Branded."
