BURGITT PUTS IOWA IN LEAD AS GAME ENDS

Wolverines Hold Three Point Lead With Four Seconds To Play

"Shoot, Bob, shoot!" howled the Bobcats as they strode from their seats, at the last gasp to see the last four seconds of the basketball game. They may have been disappointed as they walked away with the Wolverines holding a three-point lead. The final score: 66-70. Bobcats 66, Hawkeyes 70. The game featured one of the most dramatic finishes of the season, as the Bobcats were able to come back from behind to win the game.

In the third quarter, the Bobcats took the lead, with a score of 60-57. However, the Hawkeyes were able to rally in the fourth quarter, scoring 13 points in the final six minutes of the game to take the lead back.

The game was a tightly contested affair, with both teams showing their ability to score and defend. The Bobcats were led by their star player, Bob, who scored 20 points in the game.

The Hawkeyes were led by their star player, Bob, who scored 20 points in the game. The team was able to hold off the Bobcats' challenge in the final moments of the game, thanks to a timely three-pointer by Hawkeye star, Hawkeye.
